Bank President At Clintonville Dies of Injuries

John Buehrens, 62, Involved in Crash Monday Afternoon

CLINTONVILLE — John Buehrens, 62, president of Dairyman's State Bank, suffered fatal injuries in a two-car crash about 1:30 p.m. Monday at the intersection of Hemlock and Ninth Streets.

Buehrens, 162 N. Main St., died about three hours later in Clintonville Community Hospital. The driver of the other car, Mrs. L. A. Russell, 52, Chicago, sustained minor injuries and was reported in good condition this morning at the hospital.

Police said Buehrens was driving south on Hemlock returning to the bank after attending a luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club at the Hotel Marson. Mrs. Russell was driving west on Ninth, when the collision occurred, police said.

Struck House

After the collision, Buehrens' car crossed the lawn of the Adolph Buelow residence, 63 Ninth St., struck the house and damaged a door and vestibule of the Buelow home.

John Buehrens

Mrs. Russell's car also ended up on the lawn.

An attending physician said Buehrens' injuries included a concussion, head cuts, and several broken bones.

An autopsy was scheduled this morning.

Buehrens started work at the bank as a bookkeeper in 1922. In May, 1963, he was elected executive vice president. He became bank president in 1964.

Active in civic affairs, Buehrens was treasurer of the Clintonville Board of Education, a menber of the Rotary Club and Christ Congregational Church and admissions and budget chairman of United Funds of Clintonville and Vicinity, Inc.

Buehrens recently was elected to the executive council of the Wisconsin Bankers Association

Western Leaders Gather For Final Adenauer Rites

COLOGNE, Germany (AP) — This Rhine River city was somber in spring sunshine today as Germans and leaders of the Western world attended a funeral mass for former Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Inside Cologne Cathedral were 2,000 invited guests, including President Johnson, President Charles de Gaulle of France and Prime Minister Harold Wilson of Britain. Later the leaders were to discuss common problems with Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger.

Joseph Cardinal Frings, 80-year-old friend of Adenauer, said in a brief funeral sermon that "the German nation will mourn him as it would a father."

Bundestag Rites

Formal eulogies were pronounced earlier at Bonn in a ceremony in the Bundestag — Parliament. The mass at the 718-year-old cathedral was the last public service for Adenauer, who died last Wednesday at the age of 91.

A private family service in the little Waldfriedhof — forest cemetery — in Rhoendorf, his home town, is the last rite for the man who led postwar Germany from ignominious defeat to a respected place in the community of nations.

A military band played funeral music as troops marched in slow-step toward the Rhine River bank where the casket was placed aboard a motor torpedo boat of the West German Navy for the final journey to Rhoendorf.

Crowds lined the streets before the twin-spired cathedral that has survived the ravages of time and near misses by World War II bombs as Western leaders arrived.

Johnson, in a slow-moving limousine, was among the first chifs of state to reach the cathedral.

Johnson and De Gaulle talked together for 10 minutes at a luncheon given by President Heinrich Luebke but the meeting apparently was confined to civilities. Aides said the conversation, carried on through interpreters, was amiable and the two men expressed the hope of seeing each other again.

New Attacks Officially End Ban of LBJ

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Resumption of U.S. air attacks on military targets in the vicinity of Hanoi ends the ban President Johson imposed last December on air strikes within about 10 miles of the center of the North Vietnamese capital.

The forbidden zone was never officially announced but authorities quietly confirmed its existence months ago.

Analysis of the News

The ban ended today when U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs struck a railroad repair yard 2¼ miles from the center of the city and an electric transformer site 7 miles from the center.

The attacks had been foreshadowed Monday when U.S. planes struck for the first time two airfields serving Soviet-designed MIG fighter planes.

Stone Wall

One of the most important elements of the policy of escalation in targeting, informants here agree privately, is the stone wall stand which the government of President Ho Chi Minh has taken against any kind of peace moves.

In the view of some officials the Hanoi tough line on peace proposals and the newest potential threat of direct mass invasion against South Vietnam have justified Johnson in stepping up bombing pressures on the north. This in turn presumably brought reconsideration of the no- strike circle around Hanoi.

The forbidden zone was set up

Troubles Aboard Rocket

U.S. Delays Attempt To Loft Five Military Satellites Into Space

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A faulty booster control valve today halted a rocket countdown one second short of liftoff and forced a two-day postponement in plans to orbit five military satellites.

Project officials late this morning scheduled a new launch attempt for 4:17 a.m. CST Thursday. Time required to replace the valve forced the delay, they said.

A countdown toward an original 4:07 a.m. blastoff was interrupted by a faulty radar at a tracking station. A second launch atempt, planned for 4:25 a.m., got to within one second of liftoff when an automatic sensing device determined there were troubles on the rocket and stopped the countdown before the motors actually ignited.

Steering Mechanism

Air Force officials said the problem apparently was associated with a control valve in the steering mechanism of one of two strap-on booster rockets.

Data received at mission control indicated the control valve did not open as planned, officials said.

The powerful Titan 3 was scheduled to perform nearly 4½ hours of acrobatic space maneuvers to carry its payload toward a preliminary orbit ranging from 5,300 to 69,000 miles above the earth.

About 22 hours after separating from the rocket's last stage, one of the nuclear detection satellites, called Velas, was to trigger a spacecraft motor to kick it into a circular path 69,000 miles high.

Same Maneuver

The second Vela sentry was to perform the same maneuver in three days, stationing itself on the opposite side of earth.

The 730-pound Velas, shaped like lump beachballs, were built to spot nuclear blasts in the Earth's atmosphere and deep in space, perhaps as far from earth as Mars.

Bullets Wound Seven Students

Injuries All Slight During Protest at Louisiana College

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Seven students demonstrating on the campus of Southern University suffered superficial wounds today when struck by ricocheting .30 calibre rifle bullets and flying bits of asphalt pavement.

The Easton Baton Rouge Parish sheriff's office took a Negro night watchman into custody after the 8 a.m. shooting. An official of the sheriff's office quoted the watchman, James G. Jones, as saying:

"I didn't mean to shoot anybody. I was just trying to scare them."

Three shots were fired downward into asphalt. The students were wounded by fragmenting bullets and asphalt.

Southern University is a predominately Negro institution north of Baton Rouge. It was the scene of a student boycott Monday following a dispute over several grievances, including the university's refusal to hire two white instructors on a full-time basis.

Blockade Threatened

Threats were made to blockade college buildings today to enforce the boycott.

Several thousand students milled around the campus after the shootings today, blocking newsmen who attempted to get on the campus.

Detectives said someone shot into the pavement with a 30-30 rifle and the bullets ricocheted, hitting the students. All the wounds were superficial, said sheriff Bryan Clemmons.

Milwaukee Killer Remains at Large

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Authorities questioned more than 30 persons Monday in connection with the knife slayings of two Waukesha County women, but sheriff's deputies said the killer was still at large.

The bodies of Miss Cheryl Ann Packard, 22, of rural Pewaukee, and Miss Sharon Malone, 25, of rural Hartland, were found Sunday in a farm field in suburban New Berlin.

An official said Miss Malone had been stabbed 15 times and Miss Packard, 16 times. He said that autopsies failed to establish that either girl had been sexually molested.

N. Vietnam's 2 Big Cities Again Blasted

SAIGON (AP) — American warplanes pounded relentlessly at prime targets in North Vietnam today, hitting again inside the port city of Haiphong and closer than ever before to the center of the Communist capital of Hanoi.

The new strikes against North Vietnam's two major cities came within 24 hours of the first attacks of the war on MIG airfields in North Vietnam.

The stepup in the air was accompanied by a jump in American plane losses. Four U.S. planes were reported lost over the north — three Monday and one today. American pilots reported shooting down two Communist MIG17s Monday.

China Broadcast

A Peking broadcast said two U.S. fighters were shot down Monday in a dogfight just over the border of Red China from North Vietnam, but a U.S. spokesman denied it. He said "I can find no report that would even remotely relate to this."

The Soviet news agency Tass said Hanoi reported a total of 15 U.S. planes shot down today — three at Hanoi and 12 over Haiphong. It said one American pilot was captured.

Saigon announcements were limited to the one plane. The record loss over North Vietnam in a single day was eight planes shot down last Dec. 2.

Only sporadic fighting was reported in the ground war in South Vietnam. Scattered enemy resistance was encountered in Operation Manhattan in War Zone C northwest of Saigon which involves about 20,000 U.S. troops. Spokesmen said 18 enemy had been killed since the operation began Sunday. American losses were put at 2 killed and 14 wounded.

A new U.S. Marine operation was announced in the menaced northern part of South Vietnam. Called Operation Shawnee it began Saturday and so far 27 of the enemy have been killed, spokesmen said. Four Marines were reported wounded.

The accelerating air war over North Vietnam after weeks of bad weather included two strikes this morning on the fringes of Hanoi.

One strike by U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchief pilots hit a railroad repair yard which the American command said was 2¼ miles east-northeast of the center of the city and across the Red River from the capital's most densely populated section. The second raid, also by Thun-

Many Arrested by Greece's Leaders

ATHENS (AP) — Greece's new military government has made a number of new arrests, it was learned today.

Soldiers who rounded up thousands of persons in the first hours of the coup last Friday launched a new roundup Monday in Athens and the provinces. Most of those picked up were believed to be leftists.

Premier Constantine Kollias claimed in a broadcast by the army radio Monday night that King Constantine would demonstrate his support of the new regime before the week is over. Kollias said the 26-year-old monarch would preside over a meeting of the new Cabinet within the next five days.

Soviets Pay Homage To Fallen Cosmonaut

Russian Committee to Investigate Crash; U.S.-U.S.S.R. Cooperation Felt Unlikely

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet President Nikolai V. Podgorny and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin stood in the guard of honor beside the ashes of cosmonaut Vladimir Komarov today as a long line of Soviet citizens filed past to pay tribute to the first known victim of the Soviet space program.

The urn containing Komarov's ashes was placed atop a high pedestal covered with black in the army's red banner hall. The government announced that Komarov would be given a hero's funeral in Red Square Wednesday and his ashes interred at the Kremlin wall.

Newspaper front pages displayed a portrait bordered in black of Kovarov, 40, the first Soviet cosmonaut to make two flights into space. He had piloted Voskhod 1, which carried three cosmonauts into orbit in 1964.

Posthumous Award

The papers also published a decree of the Supreme Soviet posthumously awarding Komarov a second Gold Star medal. This was accompanied by the same brief description of the crash of Komarov's spaceship, Soyuz 1, which appeared Monday.

Condolences poured in to the family and associates of Komarov. They included a telegram of sympathy from the American astronaut corps.

"We feel comradeship for this test pilot because we have met several of his fellow cosmonauts," said the cable signed by all 47 U.S. spacemen, "and we know that we are all involved in a pioneering flight effort which is not without hazards."

The Soviet government announced that it was setting up a commission to investigate "all the circumstances" of Komarov's death, the first announced fatality in the Soviet Union's space program. But in view of the secrecy that has always surrounded the Russian program, it was considered unlikely that the commission's report would ever be made public.

U.S. Proposals

The disaster revived U.S. proposals for cooperation between the two chief space powers in space exploration. But Western experts privately doubted the Russians would be willing to share their knowledge or admit their shortcomings.

Novel Reportedly an Agent

Probe by Garrison Linked With CIA

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The New Orleans States Item said today in a copyrighted story there is mounting evidence of Central Intelligence Agency links in Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's Kennedy assassination probe.

"At least one Garrison probe figure intends to use CIA connections as part of his defense," the newspaper said.

The story said "still others linked to the Garrison investigation have been named as acting for the supersecret espionage organization — as informers, as couriers and munitions carriers."

Gordon Novel, the 28-year-old former French Quarter bar owner who is fighting extradition from Ohio to Louisiana, was named as having the strongest CIA ties.

The newspaper said Novel told intimates "he was a CIA operative and will use this role to battle Garrison's charges."

Novel is free on $10,000 bond in Columbus, Ohio after his arrest on a Louisiana warrant charging that he helped plan the burglary of an oil-field explosive bunker near Houma in 1961.

Novel has referred to the alleged bunker burglary as "the most patriotic burglary in history."

The States-Item quoted Novel as saying he was working for the CIA in New Orleans.

Gen. Westmoreland Tells Editors 'No End in Sight'

'Have to Wear Down Enemy at Every Chance'

NEW YORK (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland, who says his troops are fighting "a war of attrition" in Vietnam, will brief Congress and the nation's governors Friday on the course of that war.

"I do not see any end of the war in sight," Westmoreland said during a question and answer period at the annual meeting of The Associated Press Monday.

"It's going to be a question of putting maximum pressure on the enemy anywhere and everywhere that we can," the U.S. commander in Vietnam continued. "We will have to grind him down."

President Johnson invited Westmoreland to address the governors at the White House Friday, together with key members of Congress and the Cabinet.

The same day, the general will appear before a joint meeting of Congress.

Monday, in his first major speech on the war since taking command of U.S. forces in Vietnam, Westmoreland departed from a prepared text to say his troops were "dismayed, as I am, by recent unpatriotic acts here at home."

Even as he spoke, some 100 antiwar demonstrators marched and chanted outside the Waldorf-Astoria hotel where the luncheon meeting took place.

Earlier this month, draft cards and an American flag were burned at an antiwar rally here.

The enemy, noted Westmoreland, "does not understand that American democracy is founded on debate, and he sees every protest as evidence of crumbling morale and diminishing resolve."

"Thus, discouraged by repeated military defeats but encouraged by what he believes to be popular opposition to our effort in Vietnam, he is determined to continue his aggression from the north," he said.

During the question period, Westmoreland said he was "delighted" to learn of the bombing of two MIG bases in North Vietnam Monday. He conceded the planes might take sanctuary in China but said they would be at a disadvantage in doing so.

To another question, the 53-year-old general said the South Vietnamese troops were "fighting better than ever. Whereas a year ago, there were only about 30 of their 154 battalions considered combat-ready, now I consider all but about six as combat-effective."

Another trend Westmoreland noted was an increase in the number of prisoners taken. "There are more defectors," he said. "A year ago it was primarily limited to lower ranks, but now we're getting some senior officers."

Monday night the general flew to Columbia, S.C., to spend today with his mother, sister and other relatives. He was greeted at the airport by some 200 cheering persons and told the crowd:

"This is quite a contrast to New York where they attempted to burn me in effigy. I'm overwhelmed by this very warm and cordial reception. I must say I've been taken by surprise."

Knowles Won't Attend

MADISON (AP)— Gov. Warren P. Knowles wrote President Johnson today that commitments would prevent him from attending a White House dinner Friday at which Gen. William Westmoreland will address governors.

Protester Steals Stokely's Thunder

HAMPTON Va. (AP) — Hampton Institute students greeted "black power" advocate Stokely Carmichael with foot-stomping applause Monday, but for an emotion-charged moment a single protester moved to center stage.

The moment came when Carmichael, fiery leader of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, told the predominantly Negro audience the college's ROTC program was "training you to be hired killers."

Near the front of the auditorium, a Negro ROTC student jumped to his feet and shouted angrily, "If my government told me to, I would shoot you down. I would shoot you down twice."

A faculty member, who asked not to be identified, said the student told him he had had two brothers killed in Vietnam "and I just couldn't listen to anything unpatriotic like that."

Views Thought Too Liberal

Dismissed Priest Reinstated by Catholic University to End Boycott

WASHINGTON (AP) — Officials at Catholic University have reinstated a theology instructor whose questioning views led to his dismissal and prompted a five-day student-faculty boycott that shut the school.

The Rev. Charles E. Curran, 33, fired last week without a hearing, was told Monday he could have his old job back plus a previously approved promotion to the rank of associate professor effective Sept. 1.

The more than 7,000 students and faculty then said they would end the walkout. Classes were to resume today.

Crowd Cheers

The concession was announced to a cheering crowd of 2,000 banner-waving students by the Most Rev. Patrick J. O'Boyle, archbishop of Washington and chancellor of the university. It came after he met with Father Curran and 22 other members of the theology faculty for 90 minutes. He had also consulted with school trustees.

"I would emphasize that the present action must not be interpreted as in any way affecting the theological issues injected by the news media," Archbishop O'Boyle told the student rally — staged a few hundred yards from the gold-domed Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Father Curran

"In particular," the archbishop added, "this decision in no way derogates from the teachings of the church and statements by the popes and bishops on birth control."

Theological Debate

Father Curran, who has advocated easing the church's rigid rules against birth control devices and pills, agreed.

"This has not been a revolt against authority," he told a news conference moments after the rally. "This has not been primarily a theological debate.

"The issue has been clear and simple," he added. "A contract was not renewed without charges or a hearing."

Archbishop O'Boyle said the university's 44-man board of trustees, which made the decision to fire Father Curran, would hold a series of meetings with theology professors "to clarify the issues. He also told the students a new committee had been formed to survey educational needs and objectives at Catholic University.

Congressmen Demand Rail Settlement

Law Banning Strike Threatened; Truck Accord Unlikely

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress is demanding that deadlocked rail negotiators settle their dispute in the name of "the national interest and security" or face a law to block a nationwide walkout.

On another troubled labor front, returns from Teamsters Union locals were running heavily against a proposed contract with the trucking industry.

That posed the threat of a nationwide trucking stoppage.

The rail settlement demand was formally posted Monday by the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare. The warning of strike-stopping legislation was sounded individually by virtually every member of the panel—but not formally by the committee.

The unanimously adopted resolution calling for a prompt rail settlement asked the railroads and six shop unions—which could strike May 3 — to reconsider the settlement terms recommended by a presidential panel.

Both sides had rejected those contract terms, which included a 6 per cent pay boost and a 15-cent hourly raise for skilled workers over the next 18 months.

The committee called for a progress report from Secretary of Labor W. Williard Wirtz "at the earliest appropriate time."

That dispute involves some 137,000 railroad workers, who now are paid an average of $2.90 an hour.

The presidential mediation board told the Senate committee that settlement efforts were at an impasse.

In the trucking industry, early voting returns from about 10 per cent of the 450,000 teamsters involved were running nearly 2-to-1 against contract acceptance.

Revocation of Passport Will Be Appealed

Quaker Who Took Supplies to Haiphong Says Policy Wrong

HIROSHIMA, Japan (AP)—An American Quaker says he plans to protest a U.S. State Department decision to revoke his passport for sailing to Haiphong in defiance of U.S. travel regulations.

"I shall protest this as a mistaken policy because it is a policy that restricts my free travel," said Horace Champney of Yellow Springs, Ohio.

The State Department announced in Washington Monday it had revoked passports belonging to Champney, 61, and four other crew members of the yacht Phoenix which sailed to Haiphong earlier this month with a cargo of medicine. The United States bans travel to North Vietnam by Americans, unless the State Departmen grants special permission.

A Wisconsin woman, Mrs. Elizabeth Boardman of Madison, was also among the five crew members who had their passports revoked. Her husband, Eugene, a University of Wisconsin professor of history, said Monday she is traveling abroad.

Champney arrived in Hiroshima recently after the Phoenix ended an eight-day visit to North Vietnam April 5. Champney said the other American crew members have either returned to the United States or are en route home.

Champny plans to leave for Honolulu from Tokyo Thursday en route to Yellow Springs.

Balloonists Ticketed For Drifting Into Park

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Three wayward balloonists, including the eventual winner, were ticketed by forest rangers for drifting into Joshua Tree National Park during a race Sunday, it was disclosed Monday.

"If we had ignored this," said Chief Ranger Rothwell Broyles, "everybody would be doing it."

Federal regulations prohibit an aircraft to land in the park, except in an emergency.

Addresses AP

Percy Leads Dove Hopefuls

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Charles H. Percy of Illinois is emerging among Republicans as a man who could carry the credentials of a Vietnam peace campaigner into a race for the White House.

Percy heavily underscored in recent days his differences with President Johnson's war policy and, by implication, with Republicans who endorse that policy—including other GOP leaders now considered prospects for the presidential nomination.

He has called for a stepped-up peace effort, emphasizing Asian initiative, for an end to military escalation, and for greater restraint in American bombing of North Vietnam.

Bombing Airfields

At the annual meeting Monday of The Associated Press, he registered a "strong dissent" over U.S. bombing of airfields in the Communist north.

Percy has not advocated military withdrawal, nor has he suggested a U.S. halt in bombing of North Vietnam without some peace move by the Communists.

At the same time, Percy has carved a leading GOP role on a major domestic issue looming for 1968: the critical problems facing American cities.

He won unanimous sponsorship of his 35 Republican Senate colleagues for his bill to promote home ownership as a step toward improving life in the slums

Vietnam and urban turmoil could be the two key issues in the next presidential campaign. Percy has said repeatedly he is not a candidate, but has not flatly ruled himself out of that campaign.

Peace Effort

For three days now, Percy has been elaborating his Vietnam position. The process began Saturday with a call for redoubled peace efforts.

"The only rational policy is to pursue peace with at least as much vigor and invention as we now pursue war," Percy said.

On Sunday, he criticized current bombing policies, saying U.S. warplanes should aim at carefully selected infiltration routes, not at power plants and similar targets.

"If we bomb all over North Vietnam, we constantly run the risk of involving innocent people, innocent civilians who have not been forewarned that there will be bombing in those areas," Percy said.

At the AP meeting in New York, Percy restated his critical view of administration peace terms, suggested Asian nations send more troops to Vietnam and proposed once again they take the initiative in seeking a settlement.

19-Year Age for Beer?

The arithmetic of Wisconsin local government decisions by elected representatives eloquently supports the claim of Gov. Warren Knowles that to propose a statewide and compulsory rule of 19 years as the minimum age for the consumption of malt beverages in a public place is politically impracticable, and philosophically anti-democratic.

As the law now stands, local units of government have the option of setting a lower beer age than the 21-year-old state-imposed rule for the sale of other intoxicants. They can issue licenses to beer bars, authorizing them to sell to customers 18 years of age and over.

But well over half of the communities of the state, through ordinances enacted by elected local legislators, have decided that they don't want beer sold to anybody under the age of 21 years.

Now come Sen. LaFave of Oconto and others in the legislature with a proposal to establish a uniform state-wide age rule of 19 years and to have the licenses issued by the state government rather than by the local units of governments according to their own judgment of the fitness of the applicants and the other problems involved.

This is tantamount to overriding the expressed wishes of a decisive majority of the people of Wisconsin.

We can forecast with utter confidence — unless our representatives in Madison have taken leave of their senses altogether — that the legislature will quickly defeat this plan to repudiate not only the home rule principle of licensee selection, but the idea that a minority of the people of Wisconsin should be permitted to defy the clearly expressed desire of the majority.

These columns have attempted to say, again and again, that the issue of uniformity in the rules about young people and beer drinking relates not to morality, but to public safety.

If this was a question of prohibition, as some of the propagandists of the liquor trades would have the unwary believe, we would be counted with the opposition. But it is a question of public safety, and specifically, a question of reducing, at worst, or eliminating in a most hopeful interpretation, the night-time excursions of young motorists from one jurisdiction to another to reach beer bars. Thus the choice is a simple one. If uniformity is to be attained, it must be sought by raising the beer age limit, as it applies to drinking in publicly licensed places. The outlook at Madison is not favorable, as we know, and as the governor's increasingly anxious public statements broadly suggest. Yet we believe that the continuing debate on the question has been helpful, and that one day the logic of the situation will persuade a legislature of the need to act.

East Germany Has Problems

The seventh congress of the East German Socialist Unity is showing just about everything but unity in this latest effort to put back together again the Humpty Dumpty of communism.

Officially all Communist countries were invited to send delegates to the congress but China, Albania and Cuba boycotted the meeting completely. Yugoslavia sent only a minor official and several other Eastern European countries indicated their point of view by not sending their better known leaders.

But Leonid Brezhnev, head of the Russian Communist Party, attended and issued once more a plea for an international conference of Communist parties which would seek to heal the wounds and restore world-wide unity to the Communist cause. His main props for such a drive should now be watched as they appear to be part of the new Communist attitude.

The first is Vietnam and to some extent at least the Soviet Union will get unity on this subject. Reportedly even the severe antagonisms between Russia and China have been patched enough to permit the better shipping of supplies from Russia through China to Hanoi. "Help for Vietnam would be significantly more effective and the fiasco of the adventure of the imperialist aggressors would occur much earlier if a comprehensive unity of action of all Socialist countries, including China, for planning and for practical aid to the fighting Vietnamese people, could be achieved," Brezhnev told the congress.

But he did not single out the United States as the chief aggressor. Instead, when he spoke of the advantages of the treaty to bar the spread of nuclear weapons, which the United States also approves, he said that "all peace-loving people" approve the treaty.

West Germany, however, is now to be considered the great evil. Walter Ulbricht's wild charges against the Bonn government were to be expected since he increasingly fears the isolation of East Germany, not merely in Europe, but among Communist countries of Europe. By throwing cold water on the Bonn government's suggestions for increased cooperation and a lessening of tensions, Ulbricht may have temporarily protected himself. He also managed to get Brezhnev to say somewhat the same thing in the latter's charges that Bonn represents "the main enemy of peace and security in Europe" and is fostering a "tempestuous growth of militarism and inveterate nationalism and neo-Nazism." But he also suggested a European security conference with the participation of both German states.

Rumania, Bulgaria and Hungary already have made advances for better relations with West Germany and of course Yugoslavia did long ago. Poland is reluctant because of border disputes and the Czechs are so far the most closely tied satellite to Moscow. But while there may be a guarded sort of agreement among Communist countries over which side they are on concerning the Vietnamese war, it is doubtful that Ulbricht's long winded oratory or even the prestige of Brezhnev's backing will discourage more cooperation with the West.

Industrial Expansion and Sports

Probably one of the most refreshing items emanating from City Hall is that Appleton finds itself in a position to assist a local industry with its future expansion plans while at the same time having to make a decision on whether to provide the community with a new sports center.

The situations are interlocked and the City Council exercised prudence in directing that the Industrial and Commercial Development Committee be the group to coordinate negotiations and planning which will be necessary to arrive at a satisfactory arrangement.

The offer of a local industry to purchase Goodland Field should be given every consideration and also sets the stage for the city, and possibly Outagamie County, to construct a badly needed new ball park or recreation-sports complex.

We believe all parties are sincere in doing what is best for the City of Appleton, both from an economical and recreational standpoint. At the same time, city officials are to be lauded for their pledge that they will cooperate with the Appleton Baseball Club to help keep the White Sox farm club and professional baseball in the Fox Cities.

Because of the time element, and maze of decisions, planning and negotiations which have to be resolved, it is imperative that all municipal agencies cooperate to the fullest extent. There is no room at this point for petty jurisdictional squabbles, and on this point it might be well for the Park and Recreation Commission to take notice.

City officials have been presented with a big challenge. It's now up to them to prove to the general public that they can handle it in successful fashion.

Haiphong Bombings Raise More Questions About LBJ's Strategy

BY WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY, Jr.

The big news — the bombing of Haiphong — leaves the supporters of Johnson, as usual, without the specific information necessary to defend the timing of his deeds. One way to put it is that if it is justified to bomb Haiphong today, it was justified that we should have bombed it a year ago. Indeed, it is unjustified that we should have waited for so long, a period during which Haiphong has been used as the logistical ganglion of the enemy.

Buckley

Then suddenly we act, and incidentally, only after the enemy's defense has been super-installed so that the price of bombing Haiphong is much higher than it would have been a year or more ago before the enemy installed its high concentration of anti-aircraft guns and SAMs. Moreover it appears to be certain that the bombing of the power plants in Haiphong can only be conceived of as a preliminary to bombing its port facilities and, finally, to the consummation of that most obvious objective, the closing down of the port by the mining of the harbor or by other means.

PROCEEDS BY WHIM?

Here then is where Mr. Johnson is so maddening. Why was he not on television to explain why he chose this moment to escalate? The failure to give his reasons encourages two kinds of suspicions. One is that the President proceeds by whim. That he plain happened to get out of his bed this particular morning, and maybe Lady Bird said "Why not bomb Haiphong?" and LBJ said "Why not, indeed, honey," and reached for the red telephone. That is of course the way Art Buchwald would describe the situation. But the caricature, even as it wounds, can communicate a near-photographic truth.

The other suspicion, which the opponents of the Vietnam engagement are sure to harbor, is that the President has no further control of the situation, that the war has gone out of hand, that the military are in charge, that before we know it we will have entered into a titanic struggle with the whole communist world. If President Johnson had situated the bombing of Haiphong in some sort of a reasoned timetable, it would have come not as one of those dreadful surprises that the President seems to be hooked on, but as the chapter that comes, quite logically, after the chapter we just finished reading.

People Will Speak

Mr. Johnson will have to get over his inscrutable habits just about one year from now, when the American people will have in hand a means of announcing their own surprises to the President if they are of a mind to surprise him. Without saying anything very much at all, they can bomb him right out of the White House without spilling blood of any kind, and leave it to Lyndon Johnson and his publishers to worry about whether he will communicate fully the thoughts that are in his mind. If he continues inscrutable, it will simply mean fewer books sold, not wars misunderstood in which we are all engaged.

Another thing. There is the news that the South Vietnamese are beginning to build a 200-yard-wide fortified clearance, intended to stretch from the Tonkin waters on the east, just under the demilitarized zone on over to the Laotian border

Maginot Line

When I was in Saigon there was a lot of talk about the advisability of this Maginot Line concept, with sophisticated people on both sides of the billion dollar question. It now transpires that the Joint Chiefs of Staff were unanimously opposed to it, on the grounds that the line could not hold back an enemy salient and would be useless. So what happens is that the project, which is said to be favored by Secretary McNamara, is suddenly undertaken not by "the Americans," but by "the South Vietnamese," and of course everybody knows that the South Vietnamese don't have a billion dollars to fling about, and if they did, that they wouldn't use those dollars without the okay of the U.S. military.

Once again there is mystery, and unnecessary mystery, and mystery proceeding on a scale (one billion clams) that almost necessarily involves Mr. Johnson, who simply won't talk. The cat appears to have permanently got his tongue, which would be welcome news under most situations, but not on this particular one.

Proof of the Product Requires Good Shave

PRAGUE (AP) — All men employed at the factory at Jecicko have to shave at work, the Czechoslovak news agency CTK reported.

The factory produces razor blades and the shaving-room serves for "technical control." The management said it regrets that so many women are employed in the plant, "and the practical tests cannot be extended to all employes," according to the CTK.

Nelson-LaFollette Tour Has Repercussions in Democratic Circles

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — Private comments from representative Democrats, experienced in appraising the political outlook, continue to show a dispiritedness within the organization that last fall was shaken considerably by a revived Republican Party drive.

Wyngaard

The reasons are several. It is becoming more clear that Democrats including those who intend to be on an election ballot next year are deeply worried about the signs of electoral disapproval of President Johnson. It is more clear with each passing day, moreover, that the internal differences within the party about Johnson, the Vietnam war, and the evident slowdown of the Great Society programs are hurtful. Now comes a clear signal from Washington that there may also be a painful struggle ahead in the party's state slatemaking next year.

The joint announcement of Sen. Nelson and Attorney General Bronson LaFollette that they have scheduled an extensive tour this spring for a discussion of the "issues of the future" will inevitably be interpreted as Nelson's not-so-oblique worry about the make-up of the state ticket in 1968 when he will be running for re-election.

LA FOLLETTE HAS WON

If Nelson has concluded, as it now appears, that young La Follette would be the most popular and helpful ticket-mate, as nominee for governor, it will be difficult to argue the point. LaFollette has twice won convincing victories against strong Republican opposition. The fact that he was the only Democrat in state office to survive the Republican regeneration of the last four years would make him a leading prospect for a gubernatorial nomination in the eyes of practicing Democrats, whatever his own intentions

But now there is a kind of advance whistle blowing, signifying not only that LaFollette is interested, but perhaps more important, that Gaylord Nelson is interested also and is telling all of his own considerable circle of friends at the earliest moment about his assessment of his problem and the need to recruit a better vote-getter for the top of the state ticket.

Yet such planning if validated by later events, may also signify bruising internal complications for the party organization already weakened in spirit by its statehouse losses of the last four years.

COULD BE IRRITATING

Around Madison the friends of Patrick J. Lucey and David Carley are persuaded that they are not yet ready to be counted out in gubernatorial terms. For the Carley adherents, the Nelson-LaFollette alliance now evidently being formed will be especially irritating, because Carley has been regarded not only as one of Nelson's principal lieutenants but as the beneficiary of much of the Nelson personal organization, at least in southern Wisconsin.

For the Lucey circle that remembers four years ago when LaFollette was being pushed to run for Dane County district attorney by the Nelson group, among others, it will also be a disillusioning example of the fragile nature of political alignments. It was the Lucey camp, anxious to shore up the Reynolds campaign in 1964, that persuaded LaFollette that he could be a strong contender for state attorney general.

Everything considered, the Democratic state convention at LaCrosse in May may be illuminating about the state of the party and its morale. The central issue, aside from the inevitable floor fights about doves and hawks in Johnson war policy terms, will be the selection of a state party chairman As informed Madison Democratic politicians now see it. Chairman Louis Hanson may be in trouble if there is another reasonably well known man available. If such a candidate appears, and efforts are being made, it will be another delicate situation for Sen. Nelson. Hanson is universally regarded as his man, and was put into the top party spot in the first instance because Nelson wanted him there.

Thoughts While Trying To Get New Passport

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

Going to get my passport renewed last month was an interesting example of the poor communications that exist between the public and public servants. Both sides were equally inept.

Harris

From the point of view of the public, the procedure is lengthy and cumbersome. The passport office is confusing, nobody knows which line to stand in, or which forms to fill out before standing in line. The whole process looks like taking pot-luck, where somebody has hidden the pot.

From the point of view of the passport clerks, the public is dumb and thoughtless beyond all measure. While I stood in line, a half-dozen persons in the next line were turned down for faulty applications. Some brought the wrong pictures, some had no proper identification, and others signed their names on the wrong line, or prematurely, before being sworn in as loyal citizens.

The clerks were much more pleasant and helpful than I remember them being the last time I applied for a passport. But the system itself made them short-tempered, and the public resentful and frustrated, without anyone meaning to be. Several applicants stormed out, cursing "bureaucratic red tape," when they were more at fault than the clerks.

"Our procedures for dealing with large numbers of people have not kept pace with the increase in population," I was told. "If [illegible] Americans are going abroad now as were going 20 years ago — but the system for processing this expanded number has not progressed much beyond the primitive stage

It is much worse in other countries, as anyone knows who has tried to cope with foreign visas, or even to buy an automobile in some European countries. In 1950, I remember, it took me a full three days to conclude negotiations for buying a car in France, and involved some six different official departments of the French government.

Much of what we all "bureaucracy" in America is not the petty and stubborn official attitude found throughout Europe, but simply a breakdown in communications. The public is not clearly told what is expected of it, and there is no human "feedback" from the bureaucrats to the people they are dealing with. Everybody is trapped within the system of "it's-not-my - fault-if-you - can't-read."

Directions for getting a passport ought to be as vivid and explicit as directions for reaching a fire exit: plain language, large type, red arrows, and no opportunity for going wrong. People will be stupid if they are allowed to, and officials will be obdurate if they must. A good system would give no one a chance to be either.

Determined Priest Teaches Negro Children, 'Black Is Beautiful Color'

EDITOR'S NOTE: He is a white priest in a black parish preaching a gospel of love, but the Rev. James E. Groppi is an angry man. He is also a committed one who has become for some the symbol of the civil rights movement in Milwaukee. Below is the first in a series on the man and his work.

By KEN HARTNETT
Associated Press Writer

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The priest clad in mourning vestments got the perfect answer to his question but the girl's voice was almost lost in the tall stillness of the parish church, so the priest posed the question once more.

"And why am I wearing black today? Tell them again."

"Because it's a beautiful color," the girl said.

"Because it's a beautiful color," the priest repeated. "Wonderful. It is a beautiful color. All colors are beautiful—black, white, red, yellow — all colors. And why is that?"

"Because God made them," said a child.

"Because God made them," said the priest.

Core Church

The priest was the Rev. James E .Groppi, 36, assistant pastor of St. Boniface Roman Catholic Church in Milwaukee's Negro section, the Inner Core.

It was the 8 o'clock mass and Father Groppi had just finished reading the school children the gospel account of the parable of the Good Shepherd.

"We all belong to this flock of Jesus," he said.

Then, gripping a hand microphone, the priest who has become perhaps the most controversial figure in the Milwaukee civil rights movement as adviser to the NAACP Youth Council, moved away from the altar rail down the aisle toward the front pews.

Black Moses

"Who was the Black Moses of the Negro race?"

No one knew.

"The Black Moses of the Negro race was Harriet Tubman," Father Groppi said. "Harriet Tubman was a slave. She escaped. She escaped out of that slave camp. She couldn't read. She couldn't write. She escaped, then she went back south and helped other slaves escape. She made 19 trips back south with the underground railroad.

" 'Harriet, take us back to the plantation,' some of the slaves would say to her. 'At least we were safe there.' And do you know what Harriet Tubman would do? She'd take a shotgun and point it at them and say, 'I'd sooner see you dead than be a slave.' "

After mass, a group of school girls followed the priest into the sacristy. One stepped on the altar steps, did a quick two - step, and joined the others.

The girls chattered giddily with the priest, then broke into song:

Song and Dance

"My dog loves your dog, Your dog loves my dog," they chanted, their feet and hands marking the quick beat.

Not all priests would have approved. Father Groppi never raised an eyebrow. "Isn't it about time you got to school?" he finally asked, and the group melted away.

"My teaching of religion is in the aspect and the manner you saw this morning," Father Groppi said.

He has never preached a sermon on such standard Catholic pulpit topics as devotion to the Sacred Heart.

"We don't teach religion that way," he said. "We believe in making it relevant to the needs of our kids."

The priest returned to the subject of his sermon.

"It's the most effective brainwashing job that's ever been done in the history of the world," he said. "Everything that's white is good and everything that's black is bad."

He mentioned the common terms, blackball, blackmail, black sheep and black lie.

"Black is beautiful. What a magnificent answer she gave!"

Police Investigate Fight in Teen Bar

KAUKAUNA — Police are investigating a fight at the Shamrock Bar, 100 Island St., which is believed to have taken place early Saturday morning, resulting in the hospitalization of Paul D. Wink, 18, 1300 S. Alicia Drive, Appleton.

Wind was taken to Kaukauna Community Hospital in the city ambulance with a cut head and bruised face. Police plan on questioning the bar owner and hospitalized youth.

Former Actor Tom Conway Dies at 63

CULVER CITY, Calif. (AP) — Tom Conway, movie and television star in former years, died Monday at the age of 63.

Two generations of moviegoers remembered Conway as the suave, British-accented hero of the "Falcon" movie series. His return to public view came after he was found ill and broke in a rundown waterfront hotel at Venice, Calif.

The $1 million he had earned in a 29-year acting career was gone.

"Fairly high living," he explained. "Keeping up a front."

Belated news of his death came Monday. Conway had died Saturday in a hospital of cirrhosis of the liver.

Conway, a native of Russia with a Russian mother and a British father, was schooled in England. He had earned as much as $4,500 a week as a star in such films as "One Touch of Venus."

In the 1950s, he played the title role in the television series, "Inspector Mark Sabre."

Both his marriages ended in divorce. He had no children.

This Is Season For Candidates To Test Wings

Even Westmoreland Refuses to Flatly Refute Possibility

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — This is the presidential nesting season when the possible candidates attract attention by ruffling their vocal cords while trying to avoid laying an egg or saying yes or no positively.

Even Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam didn't say "absolutely not, under any circumstances" when he was questioned Monday at the annual meeting of The Associated Press.

From time to time his name has been mentioned as a man the Republicans might like for a candidate. He was asked if it was true he might be coming home one of these days and that he would have political ambitions if he did.

Important Job

"I am a soldier," Westmoreland said, "and I think I have a fairly important job in South Vietnam today, and as such, I'd have no political intentions, ambitions or aspiration, and I will remain at my post as long as my superior authorities wish me to do so."

But this still wasn't a flat refusal to consider the nomination if it were offered him. He is in this country on a short visit and will return to Vietnam.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon is back from a world tour — he stopped off in Vietnam for a look-see — with information and opinions which ought to give him a lot of talking points if the Republicans pick him.

He still hasn't said he wants the nomination, or will try for it, but just a few days ago in Taipei he left all the doors open by saying something so obvious it meant nothing.

Headquarters Open

He said no one could predict what the future held for him in terms of an active part in a political campaign. But a group backing him for the Republican nomination has opened a headquarters one block from the White House.

And one of his active supporters, Robert C. Kill, a former U.S. ambassador to Mexico, said earlier this month, "In my opinion the decision is not open. It has been made. Nixon will run, despite the fact that he hasn't said yes and he hasn't said no."

Nixon is going to have opposition if he does run, right in his own neighborhood. Backers of Michigan's Republican Gov. George Romney opened Romney-for-president headquarters in Washington last month, two blocks from the White House.

Just a little over a week ago, wandering around with a couple of hundred other tourists and his wife in historic Williamsburg, Va., Romney paused to pat a baby on the head. He said he doesn't kiss babies, "I pat them."

In Public Eye

He was much less positive when asked if he would seek the presidential nomination. "I don't know," he said.

For a man who says he doesn't know the answar to that question, he is spending an awful lot of time going around making speeches and keeping in the public eye. If he just wanted to remain a governor, he could save a lot of breath by staying in his office.

And then there's Illinois Sen. Charles H. Percy, already being talked of as maybe the bright hope of the Republican Party in the 1968 presidential race.

For a man so new in the Senate — he arrived in January — he has been getting a lot of attention with a lot of speeches, and on big issues, like the war in Vietnam.

Bombing Views

On the war he has taken a kind of middle ground, which may have a broad appeal, saying he is neither a hawk nor a dove nor, for that matter, an owl. For instance, he is not for unilaterally ending the war but is against escalating it; but he is a little hard to follow on bombing.

He is against bombing North Vietnam but only if the North Vietnamese are willing to make a concession in return but at the same time he would like to see the bombing more limited than it is, say to the infiltration routes from the north.

But on the CBS television show "Face the Nation" Sunday he took quite a bit of time saying "I cannot foresee" circumstances that would make him a presidential candidate and saying he was not a candidate. But he didn't say he wouldn't leap at the chance of being one.

Bill Asks Headlights On Holidays

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — Those increasing numbers of motorists who turn on their vehicle lights during the day-time hours as a safety gesture need the backing of state law, in the view of a group of assemblymen including Grevase Hephner, Calumet County and William Rogers, D-Outagamie County.

They have offered a bill in the legislature that would require that vehicle lights be turned on during enumerated holidays, during the day before and after such holiday, and the weekend nearest such holiday if it is on Friday or Monday. Fines for violations would be $5 for a first offense and $10 for succeeding infractions.

Harrison Tops Quota In Red Cross Campaign

SHERWOOD — The Red Cross quota of $495 in the Town of Harrison has been exceeded by $57 with still two envelopes to be counted, according to drive chairman, Mrs. Hugh Leader, route 1, Menasha.

A total of $532 has been turned over to Mrs. William Stauss, Chilton, Red Cross Chapter Chairman.

"What Am I Bid for this little dandy?" Lt. Vern Remter asks as he holds a bicycle up for inspection by a "record crowd" Saturday at the Appleton Police Department's annual bike auction. About 70 unclaimed bicycles and a few miscellaneous items, including a pair of shoes, a motorcycle jacket, and a woman's bathing suit, drew bids. One bicycle, a 10-speed model, brought $51. Proceeds are turned over to the city. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Tax Payment Plan on Forest Land Criticized

Alfonsi Disputes Formula for State Reimbursement Pay

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — The Legislative Council Monday delayed consideration of a bill which would revise Wisconsin's system of making payments to localities in lieu of property taxes on lands removed from local ownership for conservation purposes.

The bill, prepared for the Council's interim conservation committee last week, would pay towns one cent for each mill of local property tax levies for each acre of land owned by the state within the town. The land is used for conservation purposes ranging from state park lands to forests being preserved for future generations of nature lovers.

Present law requires the state to make a flat payment of 30 cents per acre for all state forest and fish and game lands owned by the state, but excludes coverage of parks.

The Council laid the bill over to its May meeting after Assemblyman Paul Alfonsi, R-Minocqua, endorsed the concept of the proposal but disagreed with the one cent per mill per acre proposition.

Forest-Rich Area

The rate should be higher, he argued. Alfonsi represents a state forest-rich area of northern Wisconsin, which like much of the region, has relatively low property tax rates. A net loss would result from the formula proposed in the bill draft.

Another study of the mill rate formula si being carried out by the state Conservation Department, using a one and one half cent per mill per acre formula, but the results were not completed in time to be reported to the Council.

The powerful interim study agency comprised of the leaders of both parties in each house of the Legislature, also endorsed a 150-page draft of a bill recodifying state school laws for passage in this session.

The bill is the result of an interim study which started in December, 1965.

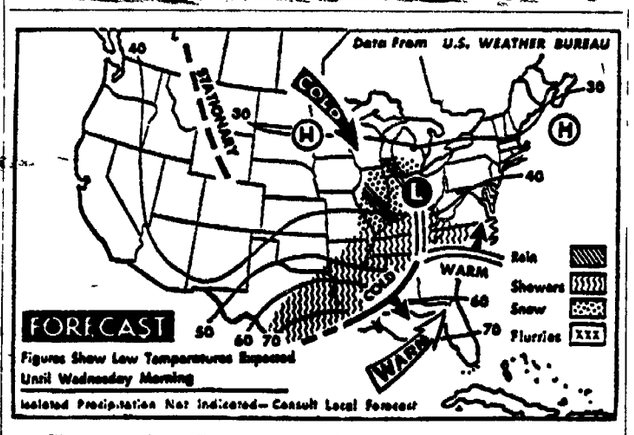
Memo to Elks Lodges Regarding Television at Oregon Girls' School

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — Memo to the Elks lodges of Wisconsin:

Your closed circuit radio station gift to the Wisconsin School for Girls at Oregon is functioning well, thank you.

Besides opening up a new recreation channel for the young girls at the school during the last six months, the school administration is exploring other program service opportunities. An institution chaplain is experimenting with a live record show featuring inspirational and religious themes.



Showers Are Forecast Tonight from the Texas Gulf coast to the Carolinas, mixing with snow in the central Mississippi Valley and lower lakes. Cold temperatures are expected for the Midwest and northern Rockies, while the Southeast will be warm. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Elderly Woman Dies Day After Anniversary Fete

NEW LONDON — Mrs. Frank J. Wagner, 83, 506 W. Cook St., lived one day after the celebration of her 50th wedding anniversary.

The party was Sunday, and Mrs. Wagner died unexpectedly at her home Monday evening.

Mrs. Wagner was a member of the Most Precious Blood Catholic Church and a charter member of its Senior Sodality.

She is survived by her husband, a daughter, a brother and a sister.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m. Thursday at the Most Precious Blood Church, and burial will be in the parish cemetery. Friends may call at the Cline and Hanson Funeral Home after 2 p.m. Wednesday.

Correction

Based on information provided by the Winnebago County coroner's office, The Post-Crescent reported Monday that Michael D. Herter, 16, who was killed in a traffic accident early Sunday, recently had been discharged from the Marine Corps. His mother said this morning he had never been in the service, but was scheduled to enter the Marine Corps May 4.

Allocations May Receive Post-Audit

Legislative Intent Must be Met, Lawmakers Supporting Plan Say

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — Creating a program of post-audit of state programs to insure that state departments are carrying out the intent of legislative appropriations will require at least a tripling of the present 17-man state auditor's staff, the Joint Committee on Legislative Organization was told Monday.

Senate minority leader Fred Risser, D-Madison, reported to the committee that the estimates came from interviewees seeking the new legislative auditor's position, as well as staff members of the current audit division.

The post-audit function would be added to the auditor's duties under the new program, and would be expected to take about two-thirds of the time of the staff.

Searching Reviews

The responsibility would include searching reviews of the operations of programs and appropriations given state departments by the Legislature, to insure that the intent and aims of the lawmaking body are carried out by state administrators after funding is secured for new programs.

Risser reported that at least 50 persons will be needed on the auditor's staff to perform the function every year for all state departments.

Currently, the state auditor examines the books of state departments once every three years, performing the traditional audit functions to make sure that state books balance.

The new program, pointed out committee chairman Sen. Robert Knowles, R-New Richmond, would be a pioneering effort among the states and would require great amounts of self-education by the auditor selected for the position, and that two enlarged staff.

No one can teach them the new process, he said.

Candidates Interviewed

Risser reported that three candidates had been interviewed to head the program and his might be acceptable to the committee which will hire the new auditor, but that more direction will be needed as to the scope of the program before any selection—or further interviews—can be made.

Under the revised statute, the position requires that the director be a certified public accountant. The pay scale ranges up to $18,000 a year.

The statute, changed last year to move the auditor under the wing of the Legislature, may have to be changed again to allow the hiring of the type of auditor required by the new duties, Knowles said.

Assembly Speaker Harold V. Froehlich, R-Appleton, a CPA, warned that traditional audit functions should not be overlooked while starting the new program. "Someone has to watch the pennies," he said.

Income Rises 57 Per Cent

Fond du Lac Firm Announces Figures For First Quarter

Giddings & Lewis Machine Tool Co., Fond du Lac, reported net income for the quarter ended March 31, 1967, rose 57 per cent to $1.1 million from $702,000 the first quarter of last year.

Chairman of the Board Ralph J. Kraut said shipments rose to $19,673,000, a gain of 19 per cent over $16,552,000 a year ago. Net income per share, based on the average number of shares outstanding, climbed to 82 cents from 58 cents in 1966.

Figures for 1966 have been restated on a pooling of interest basis to reflect the June 30, 1966, merger with Gisholt Corp. The 109-year-old Fond du Lac firm has Giddings & Lewis divisions of the parent company with installations at Fond du Lac, Kaukauna, and Menominee, Mich.

The Gisholt Machine division has operations in Madison, Janesville, and Chicago, and subsidiaries in Scotland and West Germany.

Kraut said the company's backlog of orders was $88,332,000 on March 31, 1967, compared to $60,429,000 on the same date last year.

Salt Water Taffy Sure To Cool Any Romance

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

Redheads have more fun than either blondes or brunettes because men are more vulnerable to them. No man feels he has lived life utterly unless he has been in love at least once with a red-haired girl.

The greatest exhibitionists among sports enthusiasts are spear fishermen and water skiers.

Few midgets care to have dogs as pets, and the breeds they are least likely to own are Great Danes or Chihuahuas.

Executives who put their feet on the desk while opening their mail rarely get to become head of their firms — except through inheritance.

If yod want to cool a romance, the quickest way to do it is to send the girl a small box of salt water taffy on her birthday.

In 20 years soccer will probably be a bigger game in America than baseball.

You can always borrow money from a guy who still carries a pocket watch — but you can't borrow very much.

No matter how homely a fellow may be, if he buys a motorcycle he always seems able to find a pretty girl to ride behind him on the buddy seat.

One of the biggest mistakes any married man can make is to let his wife teach him how to run the electric dishwasher.

Yoh can't really expect to learn very much talking to a guy who reads nothing but the same book reviews you do.

Simple Tastes

Wealthy people generally have simple tastes in food. Even the poshest restaurants sell 90 orders of chicken a la king, or corned beef hash, for every order of pheasant under glass.

The odds are at least five to one that the next person over 40 you meet won't be chewing gum.

Most of the people I know who drink black coffee have some other character defect, too.

Among the things about the bleaker sex that puzzles men is why skinny dames usually have bigger feet than plump dames.

After 5,000 years of inventive effort, civilization has finally produced a ball point pen that can write in eight different colors. But why?

Swedish Movie

Just when we thought we knew all there was to know about sex, we went to see a Swedish motion picture. Now we're starting all over again.

A man who wears a mustache five years will usually keep it for the rest of his life.

One out of every five office workers has a telephone number in his desk drawer that he wouldn't want his wife ever to call.

The average American teenage boy can't chin himself half as many times as his grandfather could at the same age.

Gout has always been pretty much of a masculine disease, but more and more women are claiming it now that it is said by some doctors to be a sign of superior intelligence.

If Mayor John V. Lindsay really wants to clean up New York City, he ought to tackle the taxicabs. As every visitor notices, they are probably the dirtiest in the nation. A neat cab in Manhattan is about as rare as a clean mind in a burlesque house.

Never take a betting tip at a racetrack from a fellow who wears a polka dot bow tie. They're generally losers.

True happiness is a guy with a 10-cent mind contentedly puffing away on a two-bit cigar.

Green Bay Senior Appointed to Academy

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Rep. John W. Byrnes, R-Wis., announced today that Alan George Brown, a senior at Green Bay East High School, has won a competition for appointment to the United States Naval Academy from the Eighth Congressional District.

Last week, Byrnes announced the appointment of John E. Hansen Jr., Green Bay West High School, to the academy. Brown and Hansen qualified and ranked highest in a series of tests conducted by the Civil Service Commission and the academy in order to win the competition.

4 American Planes Reported Downed derchiefs, was made on an electrical transformer site seven miles north of the city.

An American spokesman said the raid on the railroad repair yard was the closest ever made to Hanoi but the target "does not appear to be in the city limits."

The previous closest strikes to Hanoi were on an oil storage area 2.5 to 3 miles north of the city last summer.

The spokesman said the rail yard was the largest rolling stock repair facility in North Vietnam. He said he had no immediate bomb damage assessment, but pilots reported columns of smoke rose 7,000 feet after the raid.

Pilots also reported encountering MIGs, surface to air missiles and heavy antiaircraft fire over both targets in the Hanoi area.

While the Air Force fliers were going after the targets near Hanoi, Navy pilots from the carriers Bon Homme Richard and Kitty Hawk attacked a cement plant U.S. spokesmen said was 1.1 miles west of the center of the city of Haiphong.

A Navy officer said the plant was adjacent to the thermal power plant Navy planes attacked last Thursday in the first raid inside the city limits of the big port.

Other Navy fliers hit an ammunition depot four miles south of Haiphong and an oil storage center about 2½ miles north of the city, the spokesmen said, but they had no details on these raids.

U.S. Air Force and Navy planes flew 88 missions against North Vietnam Monday, and from early indications followed up with that many or more today.

Pilots Missing

Downed over the north Monday were a Navy F8 Crusader with the pilot listed as missing, a Navy F4B Phantom with both pilots rescued and an Air Force F4C Phantom with the two pilots listed as missing.

The F4B was downed "in conjunction" with an attack on the MIG airfield at Kep, 37 miles northeast of Hanoi, the spokesman said. The Air Force Phantom was downed during an attack on the airfield at Hoa Lac, 19 miles west of Hanoi. The Navy Phantom ran out of fuel and both pilots ejected over the Tonkin Gulf and were picked up by helicopters.

said in Washington Monday President Johnson is ready to act on a cooperative basis with the Soviet Union.

Webb said space cooperation "on a realistic basis" might have averted the accident that killed Komarov or the launch pad fire that caused the deaths of U.S. astronauts Virgil I. Grissom, Edward H. White II and Roger B. Chaffee at Cape Kennedy Jan. 27.

But Webb told a news conference he felt it would be practical to cooperte with the Russians only if they are prepared to talk frankly about their plans and their problems.

Details Sketchy

The Russians released only sketchy details of events leading to the point where the parachute straps of Soyuz 1 fouled in landing preparations more than four miles up and plunged to earth with Komarov.

There had been unconfirmed reports that Komarov would stay up for a week and that he would rendezvous with another spacecraft to a step toward building a space platform to rocket a manned capsule to the moon.

Western experts believe that the tangled chute was an aftereffect of a more serious problem that began before the fatal landing, possibly failure in the guidance and control system. Informed sources in Washington said Soviet scientists made several attempts to bring Soyuz 1 to earth before it crashed.

Soviet space expert Sergei Borzenko wrote in the Communist Party newspaper Pravda that Komarov's "last reports to earth are a model of sensible and crisp information, self-possession and calmness."

"The difficulties that developed during landing had only multiplied his strength," Borzenko said. "But even Komarov with all his experience, ingenuity and fast reactions could not overcome what had happend."

Health Insurance Review Asked By Democrats

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — Leadership of the Democratic minority in the Wisconsin State Senate has called for an interim legislative review of problems in the booming field of health insurance.

Authors of the plan for a formal review by the joint legislative council are Sens. Fred Risser of Madison, minority floorleader, Taylor Benson of Franksville, deputy floorleader, and Martin Schreiber of Milwaukee, minority caucus chairman.

The study would cover private carriers, foreign and domestic fraternal benefit societies and non-profit service organizations including hospital service corporations and plans for sickness care.

"Particular attention," they specified in the resolution now before the senate, should be given to the subjects of "rebate problems, non-duplication clauses, excess limits clauses, and policy standardization."

Labor Leader Pleads Innocent of Murder Of Estranged Wife

WAUKESHA (AP) — A labor leader charged with the first degree murder of his estranged wife pleaded innocent Monday before Waukesha County Judge William G. Callow.

Robert J. Davidson, assistant director of Wisconsin region 12 of the AFL-CIO is accused in the Oct. 14 murder of his estranged wife, Leona, in her New Berlin home.

Trial was tentatively scheduled by Callow for July 5.

Davidson is free on bail.

after worldwide uproar resulted from a mid-December strike against targets at Hanoi — a railway yard and a truck park.

Policy makers conceded after the attack on MIG bases was announced that this shift in U.S. targeting raised the question whether the North Vietnamese might now seek to base some of the MIGs on fields in border regions of Communist China.

That in turn has raised the question which administration officials now call very speculative about whether the United States might feel itself compelled in time to attack MIG bases in China and whether this might force Red China into the war.

Up to the last few days the danger of involving Red China was advanced by officials here as the major reason why there was no need to attack the MIG fields even though intelligence reports made it clear that the number of North Vietnam's fighters was growing.

More Active

Officials, explaining the decision now to attack, say that in the last few weeks the MIGs have become much more active against U.S. attack planes.

As recently as April 3 Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said the decision not to bomb MIG bases "is based on the desire to avoid widening the war."

He said "the loss in U.S. lives will be less if we pursue our present target policy than they would if we were to attack those fields." But he added that the policy could change.

Hawaii Senate Likes Idea of Negotiations

HONOLULU (AP) — The Hawaii State Senate adopted a resolution recently calling for a negotiated peace in Vietnam.

It asks President Johnson "to exhaust every effort to maintain contact with the leaders of the world in order to enlist their aid in seeking an end to the war through negotiation" and calls for the nation "to continue all necessary support for American soldiers in Vietnam."

Teller Spots Holdup Man, Robbed Again

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "The guy that held us up last week just walked by," a teller whispered to a coworker Monday at a Western Savings & Loan Association branch office.

So teller Mary Michiluk, 28, pressed an alarm button.

The man turned, pulled a gun and told her: "Okay, let's have it again." He stuffed $3,596 into a bag and fled.

"I'll be seeing you," he said. The license of the bandit's car was noted.

When police arrived, Miss Michiluk said the bandit was the same man who robbed the firm last Tuesday of $900.

Jimmy Johnson Jr., 36 was arrested nine hours later. Wesley W. Grapp, special FBI agent in charge, said Johnson would be arraigned before a U. S. commisioner on charges of parole violation and staging five bank holdups.

Robert W. Haack Named to Head Stock Exchange

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Stock Exchange announced today the selection of Robert W. Haack, president of the National Association of Securities Dealers, as its president.

Haack, 50, will succeed Keith Funston, who is stepping out after heading the nation's biggest securities exchange for 16 years.

Haack will be paid $125,000 a year, the same salary received by Funston.

The choice of Haack was announced at a news conference by Walter N. Frank, chairman of the exchange's board of governors.

His selection came as no surprise as it had been rumored in Wall Street last week. Haack in 1964 became the first paid president of NASD, the self-regulatory association of some 3,700 brokers and dealers in the over the counter securities business.

He is expected to assume his duties as president of the New York exchange this fall. The exact date will be dependent on his arrangements for leaving the NASD.

Funston will continue as president through Sept. 9, when his contract expires.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Heuer and Sievers Funeral Home. Buehrens is survived by his widow, a son and two daughters.

His death was Clintonville's first traffic fatality of the year and the third of 1967 for Waupaca County. It raised the year's state highway toll to 231, compared with 260 on this date a year ago.

Marriage of West Allis Legislator Annulled

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The wife of Assemblyman Richard J. Lynch, D-West Allis, was granted an annulment Monday in Circuit Court. Her previous name Mrs. Hazel Nelson, was restored.

The Lynches were married last November and separated two months ago.

Lynch, 45, is a widower with three children.

Individual Truck Pacts Being Sought

Associations Not Representative, Teamster Chief Says

CHICAGO (AP) — Unions seeking a new contract with trucking firms in the Chicago area have declared they will concentrate on signing pacts with individual employers in a renewal of the industry's strike-lockout.

"I don't think the trucking associations are actually representing their members," said Louis F. Peick, secretary-treasurer of Teamsters Local 705. "I don't think we'll bother with them."

The move came early Monday as more than 1,000 trucking companies locked out 45,000 Chicago area truck drivers for the second time in two weeks. The lockout apparently was in retaliation for striks against 10 firms by 11 Teamsters locals and an independent local.

The unions answered by filing unfair labor practice charges before the National Labor Relations Board. They asked the NLRB to go into U.S. District Court and ask for an injunction to halt the lockout.

Ross Madden, the labor board's regional director, said an investigation to "determine the facts" will be undertaken.

"We regret deeply the inconvenience to the people and industries of the Chicago area," a spokesman for the associations said, "but we feel we have made a fair offer and cannot allow ourselves to be driven to ruin by greedy demands."

Loosening of B-Girl Statutes Vetoed by Mayor of Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Mayor Henry Maier has vetoed an amendment to Milwaukee's B-girl ordinance, which would have permitted female entertainers to sit with male patrons between shows.

Maier, in his veto message, cited Police Chief Harold A. Breier's opposition to the change. Breier had complained that the change would make it difficult to police solicitation by prostitutes.

Maier's message to the common council said, in part, "To my mind, the police already have been restricted enough in their pursuit of crime and criminals."

Decision Expected Soon

Common Market Move Considered by Britain

BONN (AP) — Aides reported today tha' British Prime Minister Harold Wilson is spreading the word that his government will decide this weekend whether it will apply for membership in the European Common Market.

Wilson, in Bonn for the funeral of former West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, set up meetings with President Charles de Gaulle of France, President Johnson, West German Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger and leaders of the other Common Market countries.

Some of the talks were expected to touch also on current moves toward a treaty to check the spread of nuclear weapons.

Meetings Scheduled

The British cabinet decision, on the Common Market will be taken during two meetings scheduled for Saturday at No. 10 Downing Street and Sunday at Chequers, the prime minister's country residence. These sessions are to be preceded by a meeting in London Friday of foreign ministers of the seven nations of the European Free Trade Association.

Wilson plans to address a special meeting Thursday of Labor members of Parliament.

Wilson met De Gaulle for 25 minutes at a luncheon given by West German President Heinrich Luebke between the Bundestag memorial service for Adenauer and the funeral mass in the Cologne Cathedral.

The British leader planned chats when the opportunities arose with all the top men of the other Common Market nations as well as with Kiesinger and Johnson tonight. Wilson also was seeing premiers or foreign ministers of Britain's six trade association partners — Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Austria, Switzerland and Portugal.

It was generally believed that the British cabinet's decision will be to apply to join the Common Market. But leaders of other governments were waiting to learn whether Britain would offer to sign the treaty first and negotiate special terms later or negotiate first and sign later.

American Beauty To be Selected

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Miss American Beauty will be chosen Wednesday night from a field of 38 girls vying for a chance to win the title, Miss International Beauty.

The field will be reduced tonight to 15 in semifinals in the Long Beach Convention Center.

Miss American Beauty will represent the United States in the international contest Thursday. At that time 15 finalists will be chosen with the final selection of Miss International Beauty being made Saturday afternoon.

Prime Minister Wilson Unmoved by Elections

Losses in London Areas Attributed To His Austere Deflationary Policy

BY ROWLAND EVANS and ROBERT NOVAK

LONDON—For the first time, Harold Wilson is faltering in the superb exhibtion of political juggling he has performed since becoming prime minister in October, 1964.

That is the interpretation, widespread in both Wilson's

Novak

Evans

Labor Party and the opposition Conservative Party, of the unexpected Conservative landslide in the recent county council elections here. The irony is that Wilson, a trimmer by nature accused in the past of political expediency, has gotten in trouble mainly for doing the unexpedient thing (sometimes at the urging of the U.S.).

To be sure, the Wilson government elected by a 97-seat margin last year is not about to fall. Although Wilson has enemies galore inside the Labor Party, he has no rival dangerous enough to even contemplate challenging him. Most important, Wilson is easily the most popular politician in Britain today.

The first British politician really to master the art of television, Wilson runs far ahead of his party in public opinion surveys. As for the county election defeats, he tells intimates that the Tories made their comeback too quickly and that his timetable for national Labor victory in 1971 is right on schedule.

Privately, however, few Laborites are so confident. The size of the Conservative gains in the county elections — particularly the landslide that gave the Tories control of the Greater London Council for the first time in 34 years — has them deeply concerned.

The key reason for the sudden Labor drop is almost certainly the Wilson government's year-old deflationary program, the prime example of Wilson's doing the unexpedient thing. To attack Britain's severe monetary problems, Wilson put a freeze on all wage increases and intends to exert severe pressure on wages indefinitely. There is no need to look further for why working men in London, usually loyal Laborites, didn't vote last week.

But some influential Labor Party leaders see a less obvious cause for defeat. The party precinct organizations performed poorly in the elections, these party leaders say, because of obvious turmoil among Laborites in Parliament. That is, Wilson's problems in party discipline are being felt in the constituencies.

And inside the party is where Wilson's juggling act is breaking down. Originally elected to party leadership with sponsorship of the party's left wing, Wilson has been following economic policies favored by the right wing while trying to maintain support from his old left-wing cronies. It isn't quite working.

The left-wing fringe, which now scorns Wilson as an apostate, has been voting against him in the House of Commons. In response to complaints by right-wing Labor MPs, Wilson recently delivered a caucus speech attacking the left-wing rebels. But he next sent private emissaries to the leftists to smooth matters over. Such manipulation does not build loyalty to the prime minister inside his party.

Nor are the left-wing Laborites alone in their criticism of the go-slow budget policy. "Frankly, a lot of us are just baffled," one junior minister in the Wilson government told us, "that more money can't be found somewhere for social welfare schemes."

Finally, Wilson's responsible foreign policy stands at Washington's behest. Support of the U. S. in Vietnam and maintenance of British troops east of Suez hurt him with Labor backbench MPs of all stripes. Always a loner, Wilson today lacks a nucleus that will love him come what may.

All this has had miraculous therapeutic effect on the previously lethargic Conservative Party. Edward (Ted) Heath, the progressive minded Tory leader scarred by his loss to Wilson in the 1964 elections and sharp-tongued drubbings at the hands of the prime minister in Parliament, was given new life by the county election victories.

There is widespread feeling in the Wilson government that once British admission to the European Common Market is decided upon one way or another later this year, Wilson will inexorably ease up on the economic squeeze. With that step, much of his and his party's lost popularity will return. But whether he can ever again be the miracle man of 1966 remains to be seen.

Today in History

Today is Tuesday, April 25, the 115th day of 1967. There are 250 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1898. Congress formally declared war on Spain.

In 1862, Adm. David Farragut captured New Orleans.

In 1874, Marconi, world renowned Italian inventor, was born.

In 1917, Crina entered World War I against Germany.

In 1945, Moscow announced that two of its armies had completed the encirclement of Berlin.

Ten years ago — The United States ordered the 6th Fleet from French and Italian ports to the eastern Mediterranean as a move in support of Jordan's King Hussein who was facing the threat of rebellion in his country.

Five years ago—A three-stage general disarmament plan submitted by the United States at the 17-nation Geneva disarmament conference was rejected by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin.

Washington Top In Income Growth

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Commerce Department reported Sunday that personal income rose to record levels in all 50 states last year with Washington state leading the way, largely because of growth in the aerospace industry.

The Department said increases in personal income among the states ranged from 2 per cent for Idaho to 13.1 per cent for Washington State.

The total personal income in Idaho was $1,694,000,000 and the per capita income was $2,441, the department said. In Washington state, the total was $9,776,000,000 and the per capita was $3,280.

Wisconsin's total personal income was $12,211,000,000 and its per capita income was $2,935.

Appleton Native To Take Vows In Capuchin Order

Gregory Muraski, OFM Cap., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo L. Muraski, 1730 S. Adams St., will pronounce his first vows as a brother in the order May 1 at Sacred Heart Friary, Baraga, Mich.

Ceremonies will begin at 10:30 a.m. with mass celebrated by the very Rev. Gerard Hesse, minister provincial of the Province of St. Joseph.

Brother Gregory

Brother Gregory attended Sacred Heart School, Appleton, and graduated from Xavier High School. He entered the Capuchin Order in 1965 and was invested as a novice March 17, 1966.

After taking his vows he will transfer to the seminary at St. Mary, Crown Point, Ind., where he will continue his education and manual training.

Central Park Site Of Artifact Dig

NEW YORK (AP) — Central Park will be the site of an archeological dig-in for youngsters, says Parks Commissioner August Heckscher.

"The idea," Heckscher said recently, "is to erect a mound and fill it with several thousand shards of ancient pottery, statuary and glass, which the Israeli government is contributing, and then let the kids dig for it.

"What they find, they will be able to keep and also, in passing, learn a lot about these ancient artifacts and history as well.

3 Days of Bliss can Banish Bulge

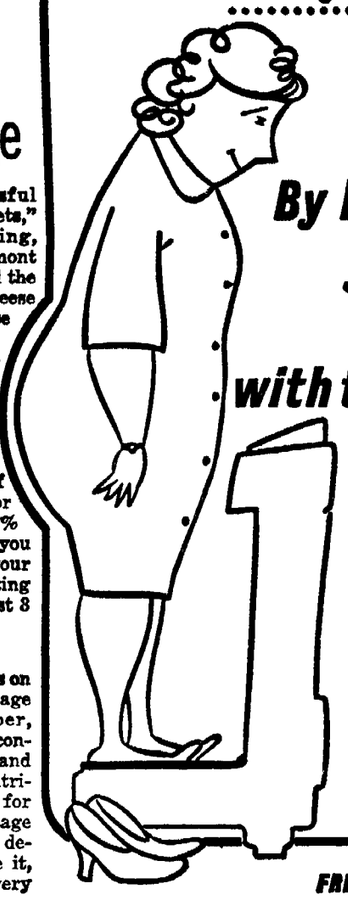
"Our new diet is blissful compared to most crash diets," commented Mary Manning, Chief Dietitian for Fairmont Foods Co., as she described the new Fairmont Cottage Cheese Diet that helps people lose up to 5 lbs. in just 3 days.

"It's very nearly a perfect diet mainstay," said Miss Manning, referring to the role Fairmont Cottage Cheese plays in the new diet. "It provides all of the good nutrients of milk, including the superior milk protein. Yet it's 96% fat-free. And that means you can eat enough to satisfy your appetite while you're melting away up to 5 pounds in just 3 days."

DIET IS FREE

The diet is free and comes on the tops of Fairmont Cottage Cheese cartons. Remember, once you've lost weight, continuing weight reduction and control depend on sound nutritional dietary habits. Look for the amazing Fairmont Cottage Cheese Diet in the dairy department. If you don't see it, ask for it. It's free with every carton.

Today is Tuesday



By Friday night you can lose up to 5 lbs. with the amazing Fairmont Cottage Cheese diet

Jingo Reveals His Favorite TV Shows

Warns Tube-Watching Never Compelling, Since Most Telecasts Not Too Appealing

BY JINGO

For Jingo's personal taste, television offers few regular series appealing enough to watch week after week.

Occasionally, Jingo is asked what he does watch on a regular basis. That's a fair enough question for a TV critic, so here's the rundown:

Jingo

Sunday: "G. E. College Bowl"; "21st Century"; "Bell Telephone Hour"; "Ed Sullivan"; "Smothers Brothers".

Monday: "Monkees".

Tuesday: "CBS News Hour".

Wednesday: "Bob Hope Presents" (rarely).

Thursday: "Stage 67".

Friday: None.

Saturday: "Get Smart".

Those are the regulars, though it must be admitted that none interfere with outside plans. Jingo watches if Jingo has nothing better to do.

In addition, many sports programs and prime time specials are watched.

Speaking of specials, May looks pretty good — at least in advance.

Recommended viewing:

May 1: "Zero Hour" — Zero Mostel in a one-man show includes some "roles I wish I'd played."

In Competition

May 4: "The Crucible" — George C. Scott and Colleen Dewhurst in Arthur Miller's drama of the Salem witchcraft trials.

May 4: "The Human Voice" — Ingrid Bergman in Jean Cocteau's one-character play. Unfortunately, this is in direct competition with "The Crucible."

May 5: "The Legend of Mark Twain" — David Wayne in a depiction of Twain's life through his writings.

May 7: "Carousel" — Robert Goulet, Mary Grover and Charlie Ruggles star in Rodgers and Hammerstein musical.

May 8: "The Pursuit of Pleasure" — An examination of America's new "fun morality."

Look at Education

May 11: "The Colgate Comedy Hour" — Starring Edie Adams, Kaye Ballard, Mel Brooks, Phyllis Diller, Nanette Fabray, Bob Newhart, Carl Reiner, Nipsy Russell, Dick Shawn, Allan Sherman and Rowan and Martin.

May 14: "Boston Pops Concert for Children" — Arthur Fiedler conducts Saint-Saens and Britten works.

May 14: "Jack Paar and a Funny Thing Happened on the Way to Hollywood" — A satirical look at the film capital of the world.

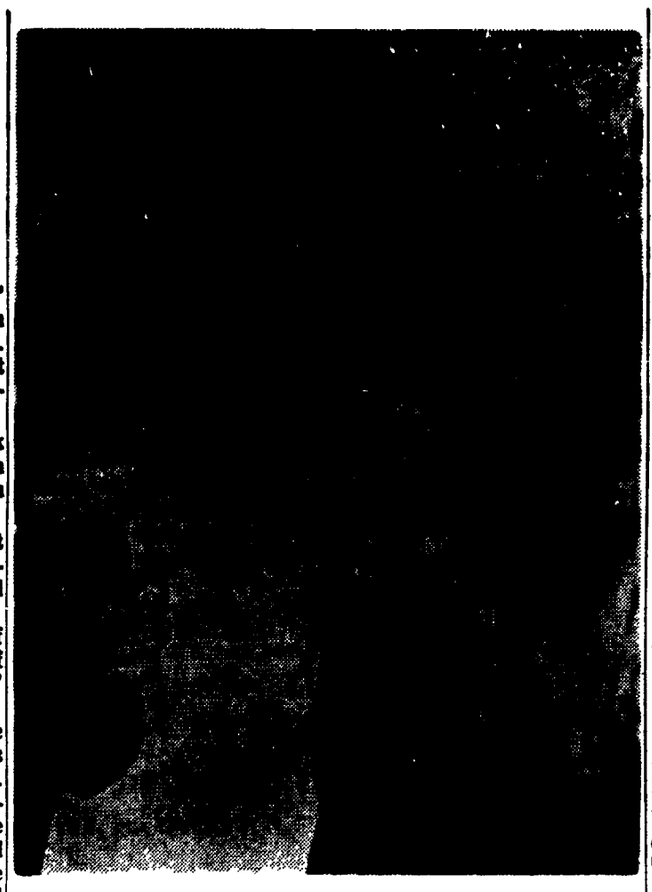
Summer Documentary

May 18: "Summer Focus" — ABC News premieres a series of hour-long documentaries on current problems, such as the draft, air pollution, drug addiction, northern ghettos.

May 23: "The 1967 National Drivers Test" — An updated version of the audience-involving test.

May 26: "The American Image" — America as seen through the eyes of artists, drawing on the resources of the Whitney Museum.

May 30: "Ivanov" — Sir John Gielgud and Claire Bloom star in Anton Chekhov's drama.



Italian Actress Stefania Careddu gets a shooting lesson from veteran American actor Gilbert Roland between scenes of their new movie, "Vado, L'ammazzo e Torno." The title translates literally to "I'll Kill Him and Come Back." The movie is being made on the outskirts of Rome. (AP Wirephoto)

Let's EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By Sylvanus M. Duvall, Ph.D. and Evelyn M. Duvall, Ph.D.

True. Absolute honesty is rarely attained by either men or women. As people grow up, they learn to cover up their weak points and to magnify their strengths — a kind of dishonesty. Each of us at times fudges the truth, "appropriates" something that is not really ours, and fails to attain complete honesty in relationships with others. Actually, few of us know what is really true. So, we do the best we can with what knowledge and strength of character we have.

What is the psychological difference between difficulties and problems?

Your opinion——

Paul Christie, M.D., makes this distinction: "To be alive and human is to have difficulties. Some difficulties are severe or persistent enough (subjectively or objectively) to seem to require the help of others in more than a casual, friendly way; these may be called problems, and the surveys indicate that they afflict up to 80 per cent of a population at any time." Mental health involves dealing with difficulties and learning to cope effectively with problems.

7:30-8 Channels 4-5 — An Occasional Wife can be occasionally wrong, like all other wives, when she moves heaven and earth to dissuade Peter from an oil investment scheme. The fact that she should or should not have used her feminine intuition and household logic is of little importance as is much of this casual comedy. You should enjoy seeing Elinor Donahue in a rare appearance since "Father Knows Best."

7:30-8:30 Channels 2-7-12 — Of June Lockhart, Red Skelton has this to say on The Red Skelton Hour: "June is not only busting out all over, she's half way into July." And right he is as the sexy-looking star of Lost in Space guests with her robot co-star plus mean-man Vincent Price. It's a very funny bit starting with San Fernando Red selling a piece of property on the moon.

8:30-9 Channels 2-12 — After last week's romantic battle between her daughters, Petticoat Junction's Kate Bradley finds herself in another such encounter, but this time it is Charley Pratt, Floyd Smoot and Sam Drucker who are the rivals.

Bernstein Probes 'Rock Revolution'

BY TV SCOUT

9-10 Channels 2-12; 10:30-11:30 Channel 7 — Inside Pop — The Rock Revolution is combined entertainment and education for some and either one or the other for all else. It is introduced by Leonard Bernstein who looks hard and objectively at the revolution in music that has refused to die. His main consideration is with the future and learning something about it by investigating the musical trend that has taken so tenacious a hold upon the youths of the entire world. The program follows several musical groups including Herman's Hermits and the Hollies and singers Brian Wilson and Janis Ian. Like many another educational form, there are inherent hurdles for those uninitiated in the "emotional rewards" of rock 'n roll. But, learn we must, and do.

7:30-8:30 Channels 11-4-9 — War in the Skies is a much-needed documentary that focuses on the fighter pilots in Vietnam, perhaps the most maligned military men in the history of our country. The program follows the activities, heroic and tragic, of the men of the 388th Fighter Squadron, 31st Tactical Wing from their training area in Florida to Pacific staging areas and finally Asia. There are scenes of co-ordinated efforts with ground forces, rescue of a downed pilot and search-and-destroy assignments. Focal point of the telecast is Captain Don Usry, a former West Point football star. James Stewart narrates.

Doctor Lists Warning Signs of Heart Trouble

BY JOSEPH MOLNER, M. D.

Dear Dr. Molner: What are the warning signs of heart trouble? When do you go see a doctor about it?

I understand a woman is more protected while still in her menstruating years. But is this necessarily true? Does age have anything to do with it?

Is a throbbing or fluttering in the chest after hard work a sign? — A.M.R.

There are various kinds of heart disease, but the one to which you refer, I believe, is coronary heart disease, or the common "heart attack". My answers will not necessarily apply to other heart defects — but there will be obvious symptoms in other types anyway.

It is true that before menopause women are much less likely to have heart attacks. The exact reason is not fully understood, but they are protected by estrogen, the female hormone. After menopause the difference between risk for men and women tends to equalize.

When to see a doctor about your heart?

— If you have pain or a distinct sense of pressure in the mid-chest under the breast bone.

— If you are short of breath after ordinary exertion. (Huffing and puffing after heavy exertion is normal.)

—If you are known to have high blood pressure or diabetes the heart should be checked periodically, ideally with an electrocardiogram to detect any changes early.

As to throbbing and fluttering, it depends. This can be a symptom of a disorder in rhythm of the heart, but such flutterings also are common during and after menopause (and sometimes before) and can be quite innocent. An electrocardiogram will identify a true rhythm disorder if present.

A family history of heart trouble is significant — but a parent (or other ancestor) who died of a heart attack at 80 or so does not indicate a "history of heart trouble."

Presence of a high fat content in the blood, and cholesterol is the one for which tests usually are made, is a suspicious forerunner.

Any unexplained dizziness warrants a checkup of heart action — but there are many explainable causes for dizziness not involving the heart.

As to chest pains, again there are many causes. It depends on the location and type of pain among other factors. Most chest pains, if off center, are not due to the heart.

Dear Dr. Molner: My sister-in-law takes a strong laxative after each meal to keep her weight down. This has been going on for a year and a half.

She is 38, 5 feet 5, weighs 112 and enjoys very good health aside from tiring easily. I can't understand this because I have always thought laxatives could lead to trouble. I guess I must be wrong. — M.M.

Just be glad it's her digestive tract, not yours. The human system often can absorb an amazing amount of abuse before it rebels, but such massive amounts of laxatives will take their toll in time by such means as gastritis, irritable colon, rectal disorders or others.

I question its effectiveness for reducing to begin with, but I hope she stops this before she develops a digestive disturbance of one kind or another. She's pretty sure to do so unless she stops.

Worldly Air at Castle Club Party

The Orient Was Noted in party dress and decorations at the Castle Club's Saturday evening party. Above are Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Otteson and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fox. At right, club presidents Mr. and Mrs. William Knuth look at the tiny Mexican dolls that decorated one of the tables.

The world was the limit for members of the Castle Dance Club Saturday evening, as the dress of foreign nations was played up by committee members and in table decorations for the party.

Members met at KP Hall for an 8 p.m. cocktail hour preceding the dance. "Around the World" was the theme, and wall posters picked up the foreign flavor of the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fox were committee chairmen, assisted by the Karl Wenzlaffs, Ken Cottrells, Harry Knoxes and Jerry Ottesons.

Child's Safety Depends On Discipline

The discipline of obedience, or the lack of it, may spell the difference between your child's safety or an accident, says the Council on Family Health.

Obedience may be the reason your toddler will not climb up to an unlocked medicine cabinet and explore the contents.

Obedience may keep your youngster from reaching for a hot pot on the stove, experimenting with matches, or testing potential poisons such as household chemicals and cleaners.

The complications of keeping little children safe from accidents in the modern home, says the council, make it imperative for parents to heed the advice of pediatricians that little children are not only safer but also happier if obedience is demanded of them.

Begin Early

When is the right time to start teaching and demanding obedience from children? According to pediatricians, it is before baby's first birthday. The council passes along some advice from the American Academy of Pediatrics concerning obedience.

Commanding little children to do or not to do something is really lending them your greater know-how, until the children have enough of their own.

Make a game of play-obedience with babies. They love to mind casual, unimportant requests. But all of these are good basic training for the future when obedience is no longer a game.

Safety Device

For toddlers, obedience becomes a safety device. The wise parent will establish a set of command words and a special command tone of voice. Keep the vocabulary simple and the tone firm and calm. Try to make your obedience demand more of a request than a command whenever possible.

When you give a command or make a request, always tell the truth. If you say "Must not touch", "Hot", "Will burn", do so only if the object is hot and will burn if touched. The child who disobeys, only to discover you were telling the truth, will obey you the next time.

Try to ration your commands. If you say "No" too often it soon loses its power. If you fritter away commands on things like eating, dressing or toileting, some children may conclude that they do not have to obey unless they feel like it. And they may decide not to obey when the situation is really critical.

A command is useless unless it is enforced, so follow up your command to see that it is obeyed.

Need Consistency

Be consistent in what you command. If you forbid an object or an act once because it is potentially dangerous, then you must forbid it tomorrow, next week and on into the next two or three years. Don't let yourself be teased or annoyed into saying, "OK — just this once", or you may not be obeyed in an emergency.

Parents must back each other up, even if they don't really see eye to eye in a given situation. Children soon learn to play one parent against the other, if they discover each has a different set of rules to be obeyed.

Doubtless there will be times when a child disobeys a safety command. Then what should you do? The advice of pediatricians is to render punishment every time a child breaks a safety rule. Whatever your choice, give the same punishment for the same violation every time. If a child knows that he will have to pay, he may take fewer chances and defy fewer rules.

Lutheran Women Plan District Spring Rally

Card Party Set By Mission Club

KAUKAUNA — The St. Francis Mission Club will sponsor a public card party at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at St. Aloysius School Hall. Proceeds of the event will be sent to Nicaraguan missionaries.

A variety of games will be played, with prizes awarded at each table. Refreshments will be served. Tickets may be obtained from members and will be available at the door. Co-chairmen of arrangements are Mrs. Walter Renn and Mrs. Clayton Van Dyke.

Mrs. Dennis Mereness, Mrs. Richard Belongea and Mrs. Eugene King have been named to a nominating committee to present a slate of officers at the May 16 meeting of the club, according to Miss Marion Belongea, president.

Plans are being made for a bowling sweeper to be held Aug. 21 through 27 with Edward Belongea and Richard Belongea as co-chairmen.

Tell Plans for Dance Program

LITTLE CHUTE — The Little Chute Recreation Dance Program will present a 'Tulip Festival' at 8:15 p.m. Saturday at Little Chute High School. Theme of the program will be 'Village Merrymakers'.

Miss Marcia Geurts of Marcia's School of Dance, Appleton, is the director and choreographer of the event. Five of her students will be guest performers.

The department, in its first year, had an enrollment of 46 children, who attended 28 lessons from September to April 21.

Tickets for the Friday evening program will be available at the door.

Parents Tell Engagement Of Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Techlin, 1616 N. Outagamie St., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Bonnie Jean, to Richard C. Hahn. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Hahn, 1531 N. Outagamie St.

Miss Techlin is a junior majoring in bio-chemistry at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. She is affiliated with Sigma Epsilon Sigma honor society. Her fiance also attends UW where he is a business administration junior.

The couple plans an Aug. 19 wedding.

'Sweet Nothings' Quite Usual To Ears of Spanish Senoritas

By KELLY SMITH

MADRID, Spain (AP) — A pretty girl strolls down a boulevard. A strange man walks by and whispers sweet nothings in her ear.

In any other country, the girl would bash him. Not in Spain. Not a Spanish senorita. This is Don Juan's homeland, and when it comes to matters of the heart, the centuries haven't changed much.

These titterings on the sidewalk are as embedded in Spanish custom as the siesta and the bullfight. Those murmurings in the ear are called piropos.

Spanish women accept, and blithely ignore, the whispered sonnets they inspire. Tourists panic.

American women endure whistles at home, stares in France and occasional pinches in Italy — but a strange man whispering romantic notions?

Trying to avoid piropos is like trying to avoid bubbles in champagne. And contrary to word from the Spanish tourist office, the piropos are not dying out.

Little dark-eyed boys whisper piropos going home from school. Old men using canes whisper piropos from park benches. A man with two tots under his arms manages a piropos between children's squawks.

National Pride

The Spanish take their piropos seriously. For a woman to pretend dismay borders on insulting national pride. Even worse is for a woman to pretend she even noticed.

The correct reaction is no reaction at all. The idea is to keep walking, no matter what.

Airline offices, hotels and travel bureaus — besieged with queries from women travelers — now usually include an explanation of what to expect when a stranger makes his feelings known.

One such brochure, titled "Spain for Americans," notes that the natives have "an inborn flair and talent at the sight of ladies" for "attractive words."

It advises: "Except in rare cases of mental illness — which occur all over the world — the admiration of your admirer is disinterested, platonic and pure."

The summer tourist influx may present a new twist.

A spokesman whose hotel is on the famed Paseo de la Castellana — Madrid's embassy row — said: "We've noticed that the American boys are picking it up, the Frenchmen too. The last couple of women who came in here fussing said the men who whispered to them weren't Spanish at all."

Even the Old Saying, "Roses are red, violets are blue . . ." takes on a new meaning when whispered into the ear of a young lady in romantic Spain. The whisperings called piropos are as much a part of the tradition of Don Juan's homeland as the siesta and sombrero.

he may not see what has happened. "Very unlucky," he sighs, and nobody points out that he could have found better luck of he had looked harder.

West leads the ten of spades, and South wins with the king. Now our average player draws trumps. Eventually he tries the diamond finesse, losing to the queen. The defenders then take a club trick, defeating the contract.

The best player in the world cannot be sure of the contract when he sees only the dummy and the South hand, but it doesn't take the best player to make six hearts as the cards lie. All it takes is a second or two of thought before declarer draws the trumps.

The diamond finesse will not run away, but dummy's long club suit will. South must start the clubs without a moment's delay if he hopes to develop a club trick. He should lead his singleton club at the second trick.

Trumps Are Entries

East wins with the queen of clubs and probably returns a trump (no return would defeat the contract). Declarer wins in dummy with the eight of hearts and ruffs a club with an honor. He returns to dummy with the nine of hearts and ruffs another club with a high trump, then gets to dummy with the jack of hearts to ruff a club for the third time.

By this time the trumps have all been drawn, and in the meantime South has set up dummy's last club. Declarer leads a diamond to the ace and discards the jack of diamonds on the last club.

If the clubs had broken badly South could fall back on the diamonds finesse as his last resort. The important point is that there is no need to rely on the finesse as the sole resource.

Daily Question

Partner opens with one spade, and the next player passes. You hold: S-10 9 8 5 2, H-None, D-Q 10 7 2, C-A 9 8 7. What do you say?

Answer: Bid four spades. This shows strong trump support (usually five or more cards), a singleton or void in a side suit and not more than 9 points in high cards.

The Fox River Valley Panhellenic Association sponsored a Sunday afternoon tea for young women about to enter college. Girls and their mothers viewed a movie explaining college rushing and a show of college fashions. At right, chatting during the tea, are Mrs. C. T. Attic, Basement Hunt May Unearth 'Treasures'

If you're harboring any thoughts about cleaning all that "old junk" out of your basement or attic, hold your horses. Better take a long look at all that mismatches, "hopeless" furniture. You may be inadvertently throwing away a whole batch of ugly ducklings that could easily be transformed into swans.

Housewives with a little spare time and plenty of imagination have found they can convert old coffee tables into Early American planters, weatherbeaten louvered shutters into unique cabinet walls, and old-fashioned kitchenette sets into colorful playroom or nursery furniture.

And these same do-it-yourself techniques work wonders with brandnew unpainted furniture. Thousands of budget-minded newlyweds have found that out!

Treasure Hunt

The fun and sheer challenge of searching for hidden treasures among the clapboard and slapdash is a lure few women can refuse.

So if there's a chance some could-be work of art is languishing in your very own basement, what are you waiting for? All you really need in the way of materials are available at your local paint or hardware store. There are fun-to-use antiquing kits, a rainbow selection of paints, sanders, wood finishers, and for the final touch-colorful decals.

Who knows? The unfinished table or bench you paint today, may be a future treasured antique.

Refinishing with the new "antiquing" kits and decals is quick, easy, and rewarding. In fact, the hardest job of all is selecting the right piece to salvage.

Check Items

Don't bother with items that are falling apart or ones you wouldn't care to have around the house. Take your time to give each piece a thorough going-over; decide what kind of "look" it should have, then settle for the one you're going to be able to give it." (You'll be surprised how close you can come to what you want to do). Ask yourself, for example, if that table would look better without all that gimcrack gingerbread about the legs. Take off any extra trim that detracts from the basic, most pleasing design.

The same goes for old desks, bookcases, and especially for odds-and-ends that have distinctive Early American qualities. The simpler the piece of furniture, the more likely you will wind up with a dazzler!

Dust Furniture

Your first step in rejuvenating any piece of furniture is to dust it thoroughly, then wipe off with turpentine to remove all wax or other foreign matter. This will give your paint job an easy surface to adhere to.

Next, apply one or two coats of undercoat paint, let dry, then put on your first coat of glazing liquid. Women really excel in these refinishing chores because men are often too heavy-handed when it comes to applying light coats of paint.

It is the wise restorer who does her work appropriately dressed for the occasion. Old blue jeans, a cast-off sweatshirt and old sneakers is the kind of ensemble best suited. In addition, be sure to cover up the floor, whether it be basement, garage or living room, with plenty of old newspapers.

Refinishing Kits

Refinishing kits are available in a wide assortment of colors. The simplest instructions will tell and show you how to achieve all sorts of different effects like marbleizing, stippling, "distressing" crumple textures and so on into a decorator's dream! You can also achieve beautiful simulations of natural wood grains.

Now, for a decorative touch add declas. An old pine bench, for example, has a lot of zing to it when finished in antique red. And the ideal Early American feeling is achieved by American eagle decals right out of the Revolutionary War!

And like antiquing kits, decals are easy and fun to work with. Just soak decals in warm water for a few moments, and slide off the paper back onto the surface you want to spruce up. Be gentle, but firm when slipping the decal in place. For best results, use a soft cloth to smooth it into place. Make sure all wrinkles are out of the decal to insure a long-lasting decoration.

Once the decal has dried another clear glaze may be added.

Your Problems

'Bossy-Backer' Spouts Off On Behalf of Dairy Business

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Everybody cries on your shoulder and I want my turn. I honestly don't know what you can do to help me, but just letting off steam is worth something.

I'm a dairy worker who wants to stay on the farm but I don't see how I can. Most dairy farmers work almost 16 hours a day and don't even make enough money to support their families. We have to keep up a good front for the cows because if they catch us looking sad they get depressed and you know Old Bossy's output depends on how happy she is.

I know I could make more money and work shorter hours if I went into another line of work but I like dairy farming and I think I am needed. I don't want to quit. Please give me some advice, Ann Landers, and some hope, if you can. — C.P., Rudyard, Mich.

Dear C.P.: I don't know much about dairy farming, but I have a good friend who does. I have asked Sec. of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman to resond to your letter. Here is his answer.

Dear Mr. C.P.: Please don't quit. We need you.

Every word of your letter is true. Dairy farmers are overworked and underpaid. Most dairy farmers get up at 4 o'clock in the morning seven days a week, and their average pay runs approximately 60 cents an hour.

When dairy farmers began to leave the farms in droves last year to take jobs offering better pay and shorter hours, the Department of Agriculture gave milk supports a healthy boost. This kept some of the dairy farmers on the job. You were one who stayed, and we are grateful.

Please don't give up. We are keeping an eye on you fellows. Tell this to your cows, too. We want them to be happy so they will give more milk and your income will go up. You deserve it. — Orville L. Freeman, Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: It is exactly one year ago today that he left me. I was 30. He was 33. We had a beautiful home and three handsome sons who look very much like their father. I remember now the times he asked me to invite his mother to dinner. I said, "I refuse to put myself through the agony. I can't stand her." And then there were the times he asked me to invite his business associates for cocktails. I told him to keep his business friends out of our home because they were not our social equals, and it wouldn't do to mix the two.

One morning he left for work as usual. He telephoned from his office to say he was coming back at 3 p.m. — to pack his bags. I asked him where he was going. He answered: "I am leaving you."

I replied, "You can't go. I love you." He said, "That's the first time you have uttered those words in three years. I've waited a long time to hear them. It's too late now, baby."

Ask the women in your reading audience when was the last time they said "I love you" to a hard - working husband. I have said those words many times lately, but my husband has not been around to hear me. — Still Hurting

Dear Hurting: Some people are smart enough to learn from the mistakes of others. Here's your letter for those favored few. Thanks for writing.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a self - addressed, stamped envelope.

WINNECONNE — Miss Kathy Borst, Oshkosh, was named District Poppy Princess at the annual conference of the junior members of the Sixth District American Legion Auxiliary Saturday. The parley was held at Winneconne High School.

Miss Borst, a sophomore at Lourdes Catholic High School, was chosen on the basis of her speech promoting the poppy program, her costume and general appearance. Duties will include promoting the poppy program, especially on Poppy Day and Memorial Day. She will compete for the state title at the state convention in Madison this summer.

Program Chairman

Miss Maureen Christensen, president of Winneconne junior members, was chairman at the program attended by about 100 junior and senior auxiliary members from 10 units.

Mrs. Elmer Baumgart, Milwaukee, department junior activities chairman, presented a talk on Americanism. A slide program was presented by Clarence Wine, last year's recipient of a Freedoms Foundation scholarship to Valley Forge. Mr. Wine is an eighth-grade teacher at Winneconne School.

Ribbons Received

Receiving ribbons for handicraft in the tiny tots division were Winneconne and Oshkosh units; in the nine to 12-year division, Winneconne, and 13 to 18-year group, Winneconne and Oshkosh. First place awards for poppy posters went to Winneconne and Menasha; second place, Winneconne and Oshkosh, and third place, Winneconne.

Poppy Displays

Ribbons for foreign relations dolls went to Winneconne and Oshkosh; poppy displays and prayer books, Winneconne and Menasha, and history and publicity, Menasha and Oshkosh.

Winners will enter their projects in the state competition.

Mrs. Erwin Becker, Menasha, district junior activity chairman, had charge of the conference. Senior district officers attending were Mrs. Roland Duschek, Markesan; Mrs. Norman Koehler, Oshkosh; Mrs. Clemens Spitka, Berlin, and Mrs. Dwight Brown, Dalton.

A noon luncheon was served by senior Winneconne auxiliary members of the Giles-Luce Unit.

Poppy Hats were entered in competition at the American Legion Auxiliary junior members' Sixth District parley Saturday in Winneconne. Displaying hats after the judging are Vicki Christiansen, Winneconne, second place winner; Susan Botdorf, Fond du Lac, who received honorable mention and is assisted by Mrs. James Christiansen, leader of the Winneconne group and conference hostess, Candy Marsh, Winneconne, first place, and Arlyss Drews, Winneconne, third place. Parents' World

Girl, 15, Old Enough to Know How to Take Care of Herself

BY DR. EVE JONES

Dear Dr. Jones: I was always worried about what kind of mother I would be when my daughter became a teen-ager. I vowed I would never make catty remarks about her boyfriends the way my mother did with my sister and me. I have alway wanted my daughter to know I'm proud of her and I respect her taste and ability to conduct herself properly.

To my chagrin, though, I'm finding it more and more difficult to keep from exploding about the two boys she's dating. She's 15, so she hasn't been dating long. The first boy isn't too bad, although we thought it was terrible for him to take her to a dance at school in a velour shirt instead of a suit and tie. But this second boy she seems to like is driving us insane because he phones and just says her name when we answer. He never says please or thank you or may I speak to your daughter. Just grunts her name.

My husband has threatened to tell this boy he's rude and to slam the phone down the next time, but I've convinced him to hold his temper and not say anything to our daughter until we can decide how to call her attention to this without making her feel we're criticizing this boy. Have you some suggestions to offer that will help. MRS. H.D.

Social problems like these will be easy to deal with if you carefully distinguish for yourself between objections you have to the way you are being treated and ones you have over the way your daughter is treated. She's a big girl now, and she can take care of herself in most ways, so she doesn't need you to protect her. You were wise to hold your tongue over the way the first boy was dressed. Your daughter knows what's the custom, and she can learn to refuse to go out with a boy who embarrasses her by wearing the wrong clothes to a dance.

But your right to common courtesy from her friends is another matter completely. Don't let yourself get hung up on those old memories of your mother. Your reason for being critical is not that you're jealous. And your reason for criticizing this boy is no reflection on your daughter's taste in boys. Ask her to inform her friend he's being too casual and she wants him to ask politely to speak with her when he phones. If that has no effect, your husband's remedy sounds fine to me.

For a copy of her pamphlet, "Telling Your Teen-ager About Sex," send 25 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Dr. Eve Jones in care of The Post-Crescent.

Plush Poland Spring Resort Converted to Job Corps Center

By DAN NEARY

POLAND SPRING, Maine (AP) — for years Poland Spring was a playground for the rich, a retreat that catered to presidents, pugilists and the socially prominent.

It was noted the world over for the therapeutic value of its waters, a value assiduously promoted if never proved. The Graf Zeppelin once landed here just to take on water for a flight around the world.

Presidents Theodore Roosevelt, William Howard Taft, Woodrow Wilson, Warren G. Harding and Calvin Coolidge all vacationed at Poland Spring. Gene Tunney trained here in 1923 when he successfully defended his light heavyweight championship against Harry Greb. So did Sonny Liston more than 40 years later, but by that time Poland Spring had faded into obscurity; Liston was about to do the same.

Long ago, the affluent abandoned Poland Spring for gayer playpens.

Come to Learn

Now the poor have inherited the sprawling complex of buildings, designed to resemble a French chateau.

The rich came here to forget their jobs. The poor are here to try and get one.

About 1,100 girls between the ages of 16 and 21 are housed at Poland Spring in the federal government's largest Job Corps training center for women. Most of the girls are high school dropouts who didn't have a job and couldn't get one. They're here to learn vocational skills.

The office of Economic Opportunity announcement last January that the famous old resort would be converted caused considerable alarm among the citizenry.

Feminine Influx

How could this rural area absorb a sudden influx of more than 1,000 young women? That was the question most often heard.

But the center's director, Col. Sol E. Ernst, recalls one resident who stood up at a meeting of the Lewiston-Auburn Rotary Club and told him: "The general worry is about the type of girl being brought in here."

Today, one year after the center began operating, the students no longer are a cause of concern.

Go-Go Problem

The police of Auburn, and of other nearby cities, occasionally are asked by Ernst to pick up a homesick runaway. A night club in Lewiston created a bit of a flap when it hired some young Job Corps students for go-go dancers. The city promptly revoked the club's license. End of problem.

"That place is just like a women's college, except for the subject matter," said a neighbor of the center.

It operates much like a college. The girls sign out for trips into town, and they have a curfew.

Screen Dates

Ernst says about 600 young men from the Brunswick Naval Air Station travel to Poland Spring each weekend for dates. The center carefully screens each man, even to requiring he bring two references.

There's a wide variety of social activities at the center but some of the girls are less than enchanted by the available fun and games, on campus or off.

"I can't wait to get back to California," said Kathy Hammond, 19, Sacramento. "Maine is too tame for me."

Will Remain

But Kathy emphasized that she's content to remain at Poland Spring until she masters the skills she needs to become a florist.

Flower arrangement is one of the courses offered at the center. Others include clerical skills, veterinary training, bookkeeping and commercial art.

There's very little academic work. "There are no textbooks for this sort of education, because this type of school is brand-new," said Ernst.

Ernst says it is still too early to evaluate the curriculum because only 45 students have been graduated, and only 18 of these have been placed in jobs.

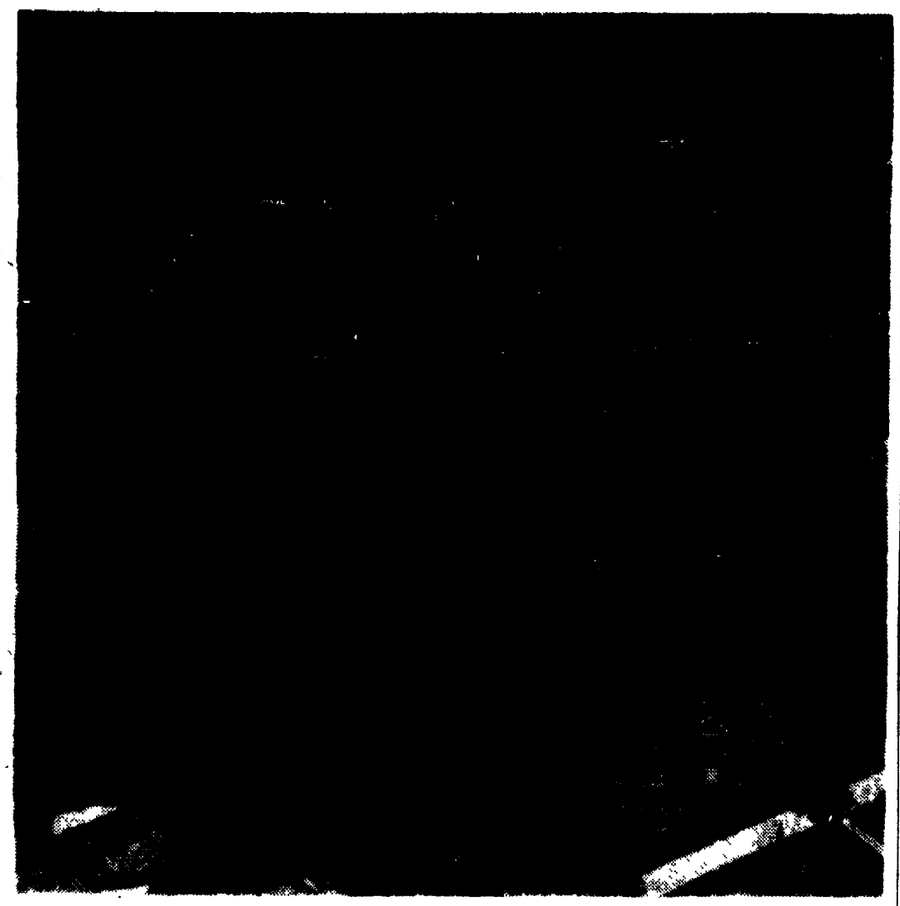
But he is proud of the school's record for its first year, particularly its low dropout rate.

Dropout Rate

"There are 12 centers in the country," Ernst said, "and the average dropout rate for the first 30 days is 20 per cent. Ours is 6 per cent."

The average student stays 9 to 12 months at Poland Spring. The average cost per student is $5,900, including $30 a month salary, and a $140 annual clothing allowance.

For 1966, the center operating costs totaled $6.3 million. Its new budget, for 18 months, is $9.8 million, including $282,000 a month in salaries for the 460 staff members.



Poland Spring, Maine, was a playground for the rich a generation ago. Today it is used as the federal government's largest Job Corps training center for women. Over 1,000 women study flower arranging, bookkeeping, commercial arts and clerical skills to prepare them for jobs when they leave. (AP Wirephoto)

A Lovelier You

By Mary Sue Miller

Tone Up Muscles

A mature Lovely writes: My weight and proportions are good enough. My problem is sagging middle-age muscles, particularly in the upper arms. The flesh is that flabby it jiggles when I move. Is there any hope of firming up after one has passed 40?

The Answer: At any age, exercise is the key to toning both flesh and muscles in all areas of the body. You have a choice of two kinds of workouts. Regular outdoor exercise of the sort that brings all muscles into play, like gardening or swimming.

Or, if you lack the time and facilities for exercising in the outdoors, you can get results with spot-firming routines. The following do a great job on the arms:

1. Sit erect on a sturdy wooden chair. Raise legs straight up and out in front of body; place palms of hands on chair seat close to hips. Now, by straightening arms and pushing with hands, try for five slow counts to raise hips two inches above chair seat. (Note: Hips may not budge. Effort of arms is sole aim.) Repeat 10 times, being careful not to hunch shoulders.

2. Stand in profile at arm's length to a wall, and rest palm of hand on it at shoulder level. Keeping elbow straight, push against wall, as if to topple it. Push for 30 seconds, reverse position and push with other arm.

Let me help you with the problem of a too-fleshy arm, chest or upper back by sending you my leaflet, Trimmers and Slimmers. It contains a set of co-ordinated spot reducing exercises — easy to do, quick to get results. Just write Mary Sue Miller in care of The Post-Crescent, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and 10 cents in coin to cover handling.

Ringo Starrs to Be Parents Again

LONDON (AP) — Ringo Starr, shunning the limelight as all the Beatles do these days, made it known today that he is going to be a father for the second time.

His wife Maureen expects the baby in August. "We've kept the secret for five months," she told a reporter.

Ringo and Maureen have an 18-month-old son, Zak.

"We don't mind whether it's a boy or a girl," said the 27-year-old drummer. "But a girl would be nice this time."

Girl Editor to Marry Her Boss

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — The first female managing editor of the Harvard Crimson is planning to marry her executive editor.

Linda McVeigh, 21, of Anaheim, Calif., and T. Jay Mathews, 22, announced Monday they would be married June 15 and then enter the Peace Corps.

Eventually they hope to work on the islands of Micronesia in the south-central Pacific helping to set up radio station programming.

KAUKAUNA — Robert DeCoster and Maureen Collins will reign over the Kaukauna High School Junior Prom May 5. The theme will be "O' de London."

Donald Bice, senior court representative, has selected Miss Lynn Cherkasky as his date and Patrick Kehoe, sophomore representative, will escort Sally Pitz.

October Rite Planned by Miss Gebheim

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gebheim, 1836 N. Mason St., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Judith, to Joseph Nicholas Helf. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Helf, 208 McKinley Ave., Little Chute.

Miss Gebheim is employed at Miller Manufacturing Co. Her fiance, who served four years with the Air Force, is with the same company.

The couple plans an Oct. 7 wedding.

Last Word in Female Invasion

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Who said it's man's world?

If it is, don't tell that to Ellen Kinney, 39, mother of a 5-year-old son, who has successfully muscled into an occupation usually practiced by the so-called stronger sex — hauling trash.

Five days a week, Mrs. Kinney sends her son, Herbert, off to a babysitter, dresses in sweatshirt and dungarees and heads for work in her pickup truck.

Powder and lipstick are left behind. "I leave that at home. I don't think it quite goes with the attire," she says.

"This kind of work keeps you healthy," said Mrs. Kinney, a stocky-built woman. "And it sure keeps me in shape."

Methodists Plan Spring Carnival, Auction Saturday

KAUKAUNA — A spring carnival and white elephant auction are planned at the Methodist Church Saturday, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Plans call for a fish pond and other amusements for children, as well as refreshments and activities for the entire family.

New and antique items will be auctioned including dishes, clocks, tables, lamps, baked goods, candy, toys, games, books, musical instruments and furniture. Proceeds will be used to apply to the building fund.

Girls Take Sting Out of Kids' Parties

ROCKEVILLE CENTRE, N.Y. (AP) — Linda Pressman and Kathy Tooper — not yet in their teens — have found a way to make children's parties pay.

They hire out to organize and run birthday and other parties for mother who would prefer "something not so disorganized."

Linda, 11, and Kathy, 12, joined in the venture a few weeks ago and already have conducted several parties. They get $6 a party.

"We spend about three or four days preparing for a party," Linda explained. "We make puppets and we write scripts for the puppet shows and we set up other games for the children."

Mothers who have availed themselves of the girls' services are high in thir praise of Linda and Kathy.

"These little tykes came into my house and took over a party for my daughter, with 15 children on hand," one pleased mother said. "Here they were, 15 7- and 8-year-old girls, and Linda and Kathy kept them busy every minute of the time."

Helping at Home

Linda conceived the idea for the business while helping her mother conduct parties for her three young sisters.

"I also helped at parties with my neighbors' children and I decided it might make a good business," she said.

Kathy also had some earlier experience in helping her mother conduct parties for her seven sisters and brothers. She went right along with Linda when the business idea was suggested.

The parents are told what materials to have on hand and are asked to have food prepared and ready to serve. From there on the girls take over.

"You might say we take over when we show up at a house," Linda said. "We just tell the parents to sit back and relax and we do the rest."

The girls say it's really not all work.

"We love doing it," Linda said. "We have almost as much fun as the kids."

Dairy Farmer Takes Herd to Peace Corps Task

NEW YORK (AP) — Margaret Hansen is off for Nigeria with a half-dozen pairs of overalls, an old iron pan and a herd of cattle.

A large and hearty woman, Miss Hansen is a 44-year-old dairy farmer from Middletown, N.Y., who will spend two years as a Peace Corps volunteer in Nigeria.

The herd of 112 heifers — evenly divided among Jerseys, Brown Swiss and Holsteins — was purchased by the Nigerian government.

Miss Hansen and the herd sailed Monday aboard the African Lightning on the two-week trip.

Tri-Delts Form Alumnae Group

The formation of a Delta Delta Delta alumnae group in the Fox River Valley was discussed at an organizational tea Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. William Chandler was hostess.

Information about the Tri-Delta alumnae group may be obtained from Mrs. Eliot Elfner, presiding officer.

Correction

Appleton Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will have a general meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the hospital's conference room. In the Monday Post-Crescent the meeting was incorrectly described as an area meeting.

The Area II Hospital Auxiliary spring meeting, with Appleton Memorial and St. Elizabeth Hospitals as hostesses, is scheduled at 9:30 a.m. Thursday at Biggar's Motel.

Wedding Promises Exchanged

Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Edwin Steinacher, honeymooning in Hawaii, were married in an 8 p.m. April 15 ceremony at the Chapel of Roses, Pasadena, Calif. Officiating was the Rev. Robert Powher.

The bride is the former Sharon Jane Beckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Beckley Jr., 1515 W. Cedar St. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Gustavo J. Steinacher, Eldorado, Calif.

Honor attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Battaglia. Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Martha Bohorquez and Miss Kendall Giler.

Ushering duties were shared by Thomas Keller and Paul Wahlquist.

Mrs. Steinacher attended Colorado Woman's College, Denver, Colo., and Wisconsin State University-Oshkosh, where she was a member of Chi Omega sorority. She was presented at the 1962 Butte des Morts Golf Club Coronet Ball.

Her husband attended American River Junior College, Sacramento, Calif., and received an engineering degree and a master's degree in business administration from the University of California, Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Steinacher will live in Pasadena, where they are employed by Jet Propulsion Laboratory, Pasadena.

Dental Group Tells Officers

The Valley Dental Assistants Society elected Miss Debra Brehmer as president at an April 18 meeting at the home of Mrs. James Welsch, retiring president. Other new officers are Miss Janice Rowan, vice president; Mrs. Richard Rankin, recording secretary; Mrs. Florence Seegers, secretary-treasurer; Miss Darlene Vogel, director, and Mrs. Ed Beaver, historian.

Named advisors were Dr. J. G. Burmeister and Dr. H. J. O'Brien.

Miss Bardean Van Handel and Miss Darlene Vogel are planning an installation dinner.

Dental assistants interested in joining the group may contact Mrs. James Wetlsch, 1120 W. Summer St.

Businessman Talks To Clubwomen

E. B. Brownell, chairman of the board of Kurz and Root Co., was the principal speaker at the 62nd annual conference of the First District Federation of Women's Clubs. The parley was held April 18 to 19 at the Wagon Wheel, Rockton, Ill.

Mr. Brownell is a graduate of the University of Washington, Seattle, and Harvard University School of Business, Cambridge, Mass.

Auxiliary Unit Participates in Spring Parley

Members of the American Legion Unit 38 Auxiliary attended the Ninth District 44th spring conference Saturday in Coleman.

Mrs. Sherman Kapp, District president, conducted the all-day program, assisted by Mrs. James Schroeder, secretary; Mrs. Fred Gehrke, parliamentarian, and Mrs. Sylvester Lynch, page. Mrs. William Brinkman served as chairman of judges.

Mrs. Sylvia Arndt, Department of Wisconsin president, and Mrs. Stanley Staidl, national legislative chairman, were speakers.

Unit delegates were Mmes. Inez Hamlin, Elmer Spengler, Daniel Schultz, Hjalmar Gill, Arthur Koepke and Miss Mary Hamlin.

Contest Winners

The child welfare narrative report presented by Mrs. Gehrke, Appleton Child Welfare chairman, was awarded first place and will be entered in the Department of Wisconsin competition in Madison.

The poppy hat made by Mrs. Phillip Behl, Appleton poppy chairman, placed first in the district contest and will also be shown at the state convention.

The unit's publicity history books were awarded blue ribbons.

The unit received a district and national citation for membership and the district, a Department of Wisconsin membership citation.

Next year's district spring conference will be held in April in Pembine.

Civic Leaders Okay Sketch For Avenue Beautification

BY WILLIAM C. CAREY
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Another stride was taken Monday to provide Appleton with Wisconsin's newest, vitalized downtown.

Architectural and landscaping representatives, contracted by the Appleton Area Chamber of Commerce as a civic gesture, unveiled the streetscaping design for nine blocks of College Avenue under reconstruction.

It took place at an informal meeting of city and business leaders at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Within Estimate

The complete plan to add asthetics to the city's main shopping district — making it a shopping showplace for the entire region — was estimated to cost within the original $100,000 figure discussed several weeks ago during preliminary meetings.

The plan, approved by the council's street-sanitation committee, will be recommended to the council at its next meeting. Mayor George Buckley expressed support and enthusiasm for the proposed layout.

Nelson and Associates, Inc., Milwaukee-based architects and planners, and R C. Greaves, Inc., Milwaukee firm specializing in streetscaping and landscaping, presented a preliminary sketch of their combined effort.

All-Out Support

It received all-out support from representatives of various Chamber of Commerce groups, city officials and other members of the Appleton business community.

The plan, which will have to be put into action by the end of May, calls for:

—Trees, shrubs and floral layouts on both sides of College Avenue, contained within six to eight feet layouts on the sidewalks bordering the curbs.

—A decorative treatment for the east and west ends of the nine-block avenue shopping complex to add color and signify that it is the city's central shopping area

Special Effects

—Special sidewalk effects, including different colors, special treatments and decorative patterns.

—Outdoor furniture for those who wish to relax while they are shopping in the business district.

—A 10-foot sidewalk corridor the length of the nine blocks on both sides of the avenue, which will always be clear for pedestrain traffic with no obstructions of any kind. It is a distinct feature of the overall plan.

Planners and those in charge of the reconstruction emphasized "time is of the essence" in getting formal council approval for working plans to streetscape both sides of the avenue.

Contains Flexibility

William Nelson, the designer, said the sketch presented to the group was the basic concept for the future College Avenue and had considerable flexibility.

"You are dealing with a unique and difficult problem here in Appleton," Nelson said. "The shopping district downtown is the traditional strip type."

Nelson said the challenge was to provide divergence along the strip which would attract people to the central business district and keep them there.

"You will find that people rush downtown, rush into a parking area . . . but then they want to do a little looking around," commented Robert Greaves. He said a pleasing atmosphere would make College

Hydrologist Assigned

County Approves Planners For Health, Sanitation Study

Authority was given this morning to the Wolf River Basin Regional Planning Commission to begin immediately making a health and sanitation study in Outagamie County.

The study will be made by Gerald Paul, a hydrologist who recently joined the commission's staff.

Approval for the study was given by the health, education and institutions committee of the Outagamie County Board after committee members, William Morris, executive director of the commission, and Paul concluded a discussion of what should be contained in the study.

Set Next Month

The county will not have to pay for the study, since it is a member of the commission. It will be undertaken during the next month, with at least 10 full working days devoted to the project A report is expected to be made to the committee in late May

Morris pointed out that some groups have questioned the validity of such a study if it was undertaken by a hydrologist (a water expert). The Appleton League of Women Voters, reportedly, has raised the objection

"I feel," Morris said, "that this report can be the basis for follow-up action to see if there is a need for an in-depth study. We may find that in some instances there are health and sanitary areas which already are adequately covered and inspected On the other hand, we'll certainly find weaknesses in other areas, such as the way food is served in public establishments"

Sanitarian Proposals

Supv Russell De La Hunt, Kaukauna, chairman of the health, education and institutions committee, explained that there have been proposals made that the county hire a full-time sanitarian. He also pointed out that the League of Women Voters has recommended a merger of the Outagamie County and Appleton health and sanitation departments.

The League suggestion, he added later, has been endorsed by the Outagamie County Medical Society. Also, he said, the county has run into a "legal snag" about whether it even has the authority to hire a sanitarian.

Going into the possible results of the survey which Paul will undertake, De La Hunt said, "If it is determined in the future that this county needs a sanitarian, we'll find a way to put him on the payroll."

Study Sought

He said he would like to see Paul "make as comprehensive a study as possible in the area of possible unsanitary conditions in health, food and drink."

Supv. Herbert Helble, a committee member from Appleton, said the county "needs samples of two things. The sample should be geographic, covering all areas of the county, and it should cover a wide variety of potential or existing problem areas."

He suggested that Paul might look at such potential problem areas as cesspools, milk plants, cheese factories, restaurants, water supplies, and waste disposal.

Problems Outlined

Paul outlined some of the potential problem areas he might look into such as watershed and reservoir contamination, lake overturns, ground water supply, public drinking

First Concrete Pouring Set for College Avenue

Crews to Start at Memorial Drive Monday, Work East

Weather permitting — crews of the Vinton Construction Co. will start pouring the first concrete in the College Avenue business district Monday morning.

The word came today from William Vinton, head of the construction firm which has the responsibility for the city's downtown facelifting project

College Avenue has been ripped up and will be replaced anew, including underground utilities, street, sidewalks and lights.

Crews started setting paving forms at the west end of the project area Monday afternoon and were moving eastward at a rapid clip today.

Ahead of Schedule

"I would say we are about a week ahead of the original construction schedule set in January," James Maples, superintendent, reported.

Maples said the weather was a bit cold for pouring concrete now but thought it would warm up by next week.

"However, we don't intend to take any chances," Maples added, indicating if conditions were not satisfactory the paving of the first 85 foot strip of the avenue would be delayed

Lawrence to Cite Ripon President

Honors Day Ceremony Set For Thursday

Dr. Bernard S. Adams, ninth president of Ripon College, will receive the honorary doctor of laws degree from Lawrence University at an honors day ceremony at 10 40 a m Thursday in the Lawrence Memorial Chapel.

Adams

Adams will receive the degree from President Curtis W Tarr Dr. Elizabeth Koffka, professor of history, will speak at the ceremony, in which academic honors such as Phi Beta Kappa will be announced.

President Adams was elected to the Ripon post last October, and will be formally installed early in May. His election was preceded by 13 years of experience in administrative responsibilities and classroom teaching.

He received his bachelor degree from Princeton University, his masters from Yale and doctorate from the University of Pittsburgh, all in English.

From 1953 to 1957 Dr. Adams was assistant director of admissions and part-time instructor of English at Princeton, where he was also assistant to the national director of the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship Program.

From 1957 to 1960 he was director of admissions and student aid at the University of Pittsburgh, and in the latter year became assistant to the chancellor and an instructor in English From 1964 until 1966 he was dean of students and lecturer in English at Oberlin College

The honors day convocation is open to the public.

School Board Reaffirms Mielke Property Decision

Resolution Requests City Council To Consider Price Set by Appraisal

A resolution "strongly" reaffirming its decision to recommend the purchase of the 12 4 acres of land in the Mielke addition, and requesting the city council to enter into an agreement with Dr E. F Mielke, was unanimously approved Monday by the Appleton Board of Education.

According to the resolution, price for the land would be determined by three appraisers, one appointed by the council, a second by the board of education and the third by the first two appointees.

Set Limits

However, the city will not be legally obligated to purchase the property if the appraised price exceeds $3,500 per acre and Dr Mielke will not be obligated to sell if the appraised price is less than $3,000 per acre, the resolution states

The resolution came as a result of the decision of the council to purchase 48 acres of land on the south side for park, school and tri-county expressway purposes. This property is located east of U S 10 and south of Roeland Avenue and was bought for about $3,000 an acre from H and J. Roeland.

"This land was bought without consulting the school board," said John Schneider, who initiated the resolution, "I'm sure all of us feel that since a school is involved we should have been consulted, and since none of the board members have altered their opinion about the Mielke site, it indicates that we still feel it is the best location for a new elementary school," he added

Question Location

"Location is very important because without advance planning we can spend as much for transportation in a couple of years as the difference between the purchase prices of the two properties," said Dr Roy Whitney, board vice president.

The southwest corner of the Mielke land is roughly less than a quarter of a mile from the northeast corner of the Roeland property However, if the school is built facing east on the east side of the Roeland property and south of the Highline, as has been suggested by the city planner, the children living north and east of the attendance center would have to walk .7 of a mile further than to the Mielke site

This certainly should be a consideration, since eventually the parents could ask for bus transportation for their children, which could turn it into a costly operation, Dr. Whitney said.

Another consideration, the board members felt, was the proposed expressway, which could create crossing problems and would be a safety hazard.

Bill Proposes School Milk For Teachers

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — The government-financed milk that is distributed to thousands of children in their schools should be good for their teachers too, according to several rural area legislators who have sponsored a joint resolution on the subject.

The proposed message to the United States Congress would ask for a change in the regulations to provide for eligibility of teachers in the school milk program.

"This is a small benefit our teachers could receive at a relatively low cost, and an increased consumption of milk by our teachers would set an encouraging example to their students," says the resolution offered by Calumet County Assemblyman Gervase Hephner, Chilton, and others.

Oshkosh Truck Firm Lays Off 70 Employes

Oshkosh Truck Corp., Oshkosh, Monday announced the temporary layoff of 70 employes. Robert Eager, vice president of manufacturing, said the layoff was due to a shortage of incoming parts due to the work stoppage at Chicago and St. Louis trucking terminals.

Eager said the potential nationwide strike will further affect the company's employment.

He added, however that he anticipates the layoff will be of short duration "as we expect our representatives in Washington to take immediate, positive action to correct the situation."

Most of the workers laid off were assembly and materials handling employes.

At Green Bay two trucking firms, Olson Transportation Co. and Green Bay-Chicago Lines, closed down Monday, and about 240 employes were affected as a result of the Chicago strike and lockout. Tank trucks still were rolling.

Vocational Director Speaks Thursday to Personnel Association

Milton J Ness, vocational school director, will be guest speaker for an Appleton Personnel Association dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the Elks Club.

Ness' address, "What Vocational Schools Mean to You," will include a discussion of the importance for technical and vocational training to meet the needs of local industry and business for skilled employes.

Anyone seeking further information on the meeting may contact Carlyle Christensen at Fox River Tractor Co., Appleton.

Converted to Catholicism

Christianity Is Tool to Beat Communism, Ex-Red Says

A former Communist journalist who resigned from the party and converted to Roman Catholicism, Monday night told an audience at Xavier High School that he believes neither side will win the war in Vietnam, and the conflict is "diminishing" the image of America in the eyes of the world

Straying from an explanation of the workings of the Communist Party to answer questions, Douglas Hyde indicated a reluctance to criticize American foreign policy because he was "a guest in the United States"

Hyde, former editor of London's Daily Worker and a Communist for more than 20 years, said, "anything that diminishes the image of America in the eyes of the world, increases the chances for the success of Communism"

Not Successful

However, Hyde said, Communism has not been as successful in Indo-China as its leaders thought it would be. They predicted Communist takeover in Indo - China would be complete by 1948.

Hyde said the Vietnam conflict probably will "end" without victory for either side.

Hyde, a British subject, joined the Communist Party at the age of 17 after leaving the study of theology because of a "quarrel with religion"

He threw over party lines in 1948 after he "learned the evil in Communism"

Rehabilitating Communists

The former Communist said the teachings of Marx may be gaining ground around the world. He has spent time, since his conversion, in prisons of Southeast Asia working to rehabilitate Communist leaders.

The Communist Party Hyde said, has always appealed to young, idealistic persons. He criticized the Christian world for putting aside the idealism of teen-agers.

"I get very disturbed when I hear older Christians and more specifically older Catholics talk about 'starry-eyed' idealism as if it were a case of pimples," Hyde said "Youth is not only a stage of idealism, it is a stage of rebellion"

Dedicated Philosophy

Communists appeal to and use the idealism of youth to further party lines, Hyde said He said communistic philosophy could be summarized with the word "dedication"

"To the average young Communist, it becomes a religion," he said. "A young Communist doesn't reject the religion of his parents but he rejects their 'non-religion'"

"He gives to Communism what other people give to God," Hyde said

Hyde continued, "I know the evil in Communism, that's why I left it" But it is a challenge to the free world because Communists are willing to live and die for their beliefs

"No small minority in the Boy Missing From Home on West Side

Police are searching for a 15-year-old west side boy missing from home since Monday morning

The boy's parents reported him missing Monday afternoon, after a junior high school principal notified them their son had not attended classes. Appleton police said the boy's books were found in a mail collection box. A mailman brought the books to the school.

The boy is 5 feet 3 and weighs about 125 pounds. He has black hair, dark complexion, and has dark-rimmed glasses The boy was wearing dark trousers and a light-colored jacket.

Kaukauna Utility Plans Little Chute Station

Post Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — A proposed substation of the Kaukauna electric utility in the Village of Little Chute is being investigated by the state Public Service Commission.

The city has proposed that it be allowed to construct a 7,500 kilovolt substation in the village on Outagamie County Trunk OO just west of Buchanan Street

Estimated cost of the distribution substation is $125,000. No public hearing on the project will be held.

'Wolf' May Disappear From Planners' Name

Expect 'Northeastern Wisconsin' to be New Title; vote on Taking in Florence County

Members of the Wolf River Basin Regional Planning Commission Thursday will consider a name change and the addition of Florence County to the group's membership.

The changes will be discussed at the commission's quarterly meeting at 10 a.m. at the Club Continental, east of Shawano.

Change Name

Agenda for the day-long session includes changing the name to the Northeastern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission. The executive committee has recommended both the addition of Florence County and the name change.

Florence County would be the ninth member-county, and the second commission member to border the Upper Peninsula. Other member counties are Outagamie, Waushara, Waupaca, Shawano, Menominee, Forest and Langlade

Gordon A. Bubolz, commission chairman, will give opening remarks at the morning session. Also scheduled are reports by William Morris, executive director; Frank M. Hedgcock, chief park planner; Henry Allhiser, treasurer and chairman of the finance committee; Alfred Broehm, secretary, and the introduction of Gerald Paul, new chief hydrologist.

See Movie

State highway plans will be discussed by Arne Gausmann, chief of urban and advance planning for the State Highway Commission.

After lunch, commissioners will be shown "The Majestic River," a film of the Wolf River. The afternoon session will be taken up with the quarterly commission business meeting including the proposed changes.

Board of Health Sponsored

Food Handling Clinic Planned at Kaukauna

KAUKAUNA — The hotel and restaurant division of the State Board of Health in cooperation with the Kaukauna city health department and city nurse, will conduct a food personnel and public health institute in the council rooms at 2:30 and 8 p.m on both May 2 and 4.

Employes and managers of business places holding a state hotel or restaurant permit are expected to attend one meeting each day. Classes will be one and one-half hours long and will include lectures, discussions, demonstrations and movies.

The program is designed to acquaint food handlers serving the public with the correct procedure in handling, storage, preparation and refrigeration of food, personal hygiene and public health and prevention of food poisoning.

Special instructions will be given on proper methods to be followed regarding the cleaning and sanitizing of all eating and drinking utensils including cooking and preparation equipment. These regulations are mandatory for any state or city approved drinking and eating establishment Participating will be H. W. Craig, state hotel and restaurant sanitarian K. K. Thiede, state supervisor food personnel training institute, Dr. Gerald Balmke, city health officer, Mrs. Mary Yin city nurse, and James McDaniel, president of the board of health.

Menasha School to Try New Alphabet

44-Character System to be Used In Teaching First Grade Reading

MENASHA — A nod of approval was given to a pilot program in reading, for one class of first graders, in the Menasha public schools, which may be as exciting for the child, parent and teacher as the new mathematics was several years ago.

The board heard a report on a new reading method for first graders called ITA, "An Alphabet That Makes Sense" from Mrs. Ruth Freye, teacher at Clovis Grove School.

"There are many ways to teach reading," she said enthusiastically, "but this ITA method, which means Initial Teaching Alphabet is the most amazing thing I have ever seen. It is designed on a 44 letter alphabet, and each one of the characters has one sound, eliminating the more than 300 vowel combinations and other contradictory sounds which are so confusing to a child when he or she begins to read.

"Using this in first grade, the teacher does not have to fight the mechanics of reading and can concentrate on basic reading skills — it is an alphabet that makes sense." she added.

'20 Kinds of I'

ITA was invented by Sir James Pitman, England, a kind of reading code, with its 44 ITA characters covering every sound in the English language. For example, there are more than 20 ways to spell the sound of "I", as in eye, aisle, aye, height, island, rind, pie, buy, by, sigh choir and cry. With ITA the only symbol needes is "ie."

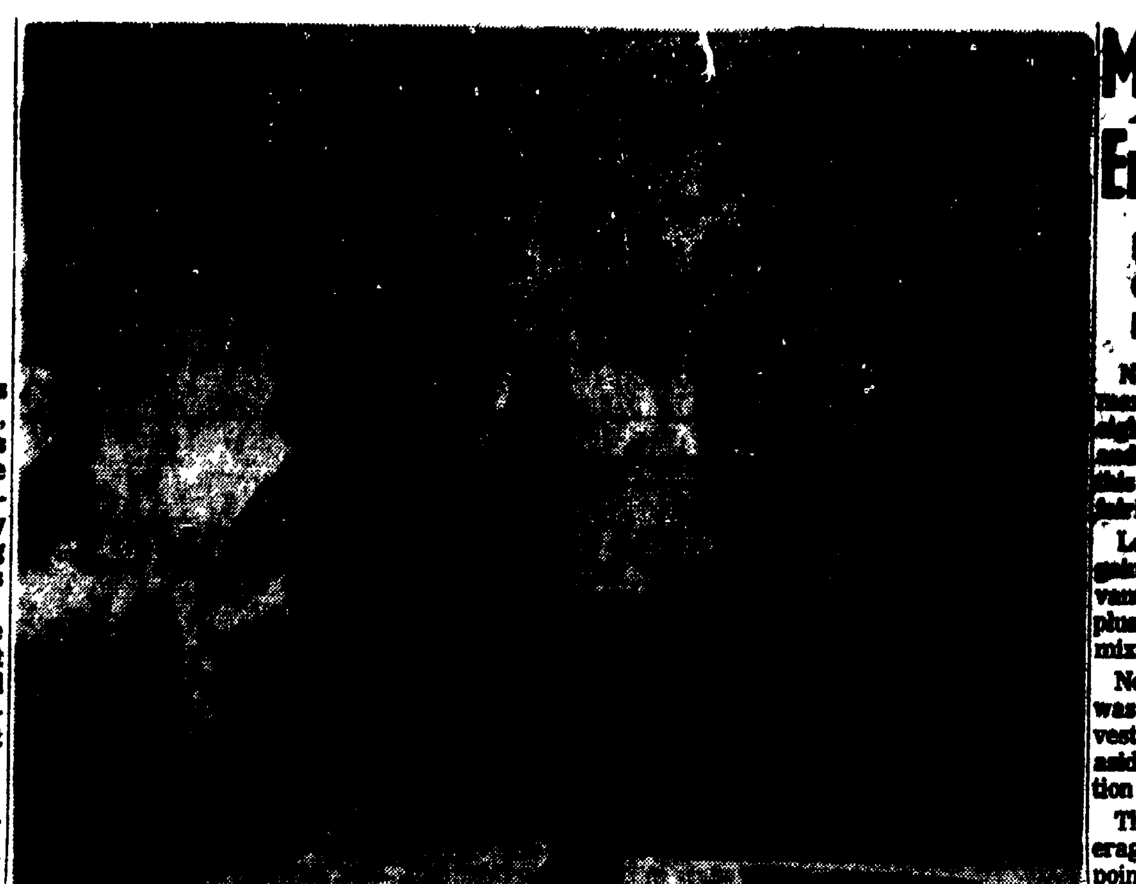
Workshops and class observation in other schools by Mrs. Frye and her principal Miss Marie Acker, have conclusively convinced the teachers that it works, whether the reading is fiction, science or history.

At the second grade level the students slide easily into the standard alphabet and continue with the phonetic approach which the Menasha public schools adopted 12 years ago.

The board will recommend at its May 8 meeting that Mrs. Freye use the ITA method of reading in her first grade class for one year as a pilot program. The cost of reading materials using the new alphabet is estimated at $500. She has asked that the special reading class include 30 youngsters, run-of-the-mill, to prove that it works.

Miss Acker enthusiastically endorsed the pilot program because "it is an easier way to teach the youngsters to read and leaves so much more time for the other skills where individual children need attention."

She told the board that she had $500 budgeted money, $250 of which was earmarked for a special library material program under Title II and the balance for a reading institute. She would like to use it for the new program.



Five Potential Officers enlisted in a new U.S. Army program at the National Guard Armory in Appleton. The men will enter the Army for about six months before being enrolled in Officer Candidate School at Fort Benning, Ga., or the Wisconsin Military Academy, Madison. From left they are Robert Bethe, Appleton; Mark VanThiel and Dennis Kaminski, Kimberly, and John Boyce and Fred Liethen, Appleton. Conducting the swearing in ceremony is Capt. Edward Wulgaert, commanding officer of the National Guard unit.

Market Gain Ends Abruptly

Losers Outnumber Gainers; Selling Pressure Latent

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market snapped a string of eight straight daily advances and headed a little lower early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

Losers slightly outnumbered gainers. At the opening, the advantage was easily with the plus signs, but the list turned mixed and gradually lower.

No special selling pressure was apparent as traders and investors took profits or stood aside to see what the next direction of the market might be.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 1.84 points at 885.69.

DuPont Off

In Monday's market, Du Pont's rise of 8½ points accounted for the lion's share of the rise in the Dow industrials. The common stock of the chemical giant was off more than 2 points early this afternoon and dampened averages.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off .7 at 324.4 with industrials off 1.6, rails up .4 and utilities off .5.

Among other blue chips tugging at the averages, Eastman Kodak dropped a couple of points, General Electric about 1 and U.S. Gypsum 1.

Standard Pressed Steel seemed to be pacing the list on volume as it lost a fraction, followed by American Motors which was about unchanged.

Menasha Girl Escapes Injury in Auto Mishap

CHILTON — Andrea A. Pyzsora, 16, 616 De Pere St., Menasha, escaped injury when the car she was driving was involved in an accident, at 9:20 p.m. Saturday, 3½ miles northwest of Forest Junction, near the Brown County Line Road.

Miss Pyzsora told police she was traveling west when the car hit a soft spot in the road. She lost control of the vehicle and it overturned.

Double Fatality Second of Year In Outagamie

Trains Involved in Both; Death Toll Ahead of Record '65

The deaths of a rural Manawa couple in a car-train accident near Dale late Monday morning accounted for the year's second double fatality mishap in Outagamie County, and boosted the county's traffic toll for the year to eight, five more than a year ago and one more than in record 1965.

Both of the county's double fatality accidents this year involved trains.

Herbert C. Westerman Sr., 64, and his wife, Bertha, 60, route 2, Manawa, were killed instantly Monday when their 1965 auto was struck by a 34-unit Soo Line Railroad freight train at a crossing marked by automatic signals, on Outagamie County Trunk D, three miles northwest of Dale.

Coroner Bernard H. Kemps said Westerman, driver of the car, died of severe head injuries and his wife died of crushing chest injuries. They were pronounced dead on arirval at New London Community Hospital.

Rammed by Train

Robert J. Kons, 27, route 4, Appleton, and his year-old son, Joseph, died Feb. 8 when their car was rammed by a Chicago and North Western passenger train at a crossing on Washington Street in Little Chute.

The Westermans, who moved to Manawa about a year ago, were returning from visiting a son in Menomonee Falls when the accident occurred. The couple lived in Menominee Falls until Westerman retired from A. C. Spark Plug Co. He worked part time at Trantow Hardware in Manawa. Their bodies were sent today to a Menomonee Falls funeral home.

The Outagamie County traffic toll is running ahead of 1965, when at the end of April, there were seven deaths. A record 27 fatalities were counted in the county in 1965. There were no traffic deaths in January of this year. Three persons were killed on county roads in February, two in March, and three so far this month.

Town Will Buy Uniforms Guns For Constables

MENASHA — The constable and deputy constable in the Town of Menasha will begin to look more like law enforcement officers as a result of a town board decision Monday to spend about $195 on uniforms and guns.

Constable Robert Weyenberg asked for the equipment after pointing out the constable's job no longer was only that of a "dog catcher."

He said Deputy Constable Ralph Gunther should also have a pistol, holster and belt, costing about $92. Trousers will be purchased for the two men for $16.50 each and jackets, complete with emblems, priced at $35 each will be ordered.

One objection was raised to the constables' carrying guns but Weyenberg explained both he and Gunther had received training in handling firearms while serving in the Marines.

For More State Funds

Long-Bridge Hearings To Start in Madison

MADISON — Hearings will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday on the proposed new long-bridge act submitted by State Sen. Reuben LaFave of Oconto.

LaFave's bill would increase the amount of state funds provided under the long bridge act from $200,000 to $4.5 million annually.

LaFave said the prospects for favorable action at the hearing were good. He added he has 18 co-sponsors on the bill and the proposal was unanimously approved by the Highway Advisory Committee.

30 Years Behind

Passage of the bill would have considerable impact on the Fox Valley, LaFave predicted. He said bridge construction in the Valley was "30 years behind and something must be done."

LaFave noted the long bridge act has remained unchanged since its original passage in 1911. He said the state is not facing its responsibility in the funding of its share of costs in construction of bridges which come under this act.

Bridge construction under this act is based on a shared cost basis with the state providing one-third, the local community one-third and the federal government one-third. However, with only $200,000 appropriated annually, it normally takes the state several years to accrue sufficient funds for one bridge.

"The state has need for $131 million in bridge construction now," LaFave said. "While $4½ million still isn't adequate it is better than the amount now appropriated."

He said if the state doesn't meet its obligation in this field, the local property tax burden will increase still more.

The additional funds urged by LaFave would be provided for bridge construction by earmarking sales taxes and use taxes now levied on highway and bridge construction machinery.

Doctors Plan 3rd Complex For Neenah

NEENAH — A building permit for a third doctors' complex in the past year in Neenah was issued this morning by Building Inspector Earl Page.

Construction on the $100,000 Professional Arts Building across from Radio Station WNAM on S. Commercial Street will begin this week with completion scheduled for late August or September.

The one-story frame and masonry structure will house four suites, including offices for four physicians and one dentist. The building will measure 95 by 72 feet.

The doctors involved in the project are F. Leroy Schaefer, Delano Zimmerman, John Haselow and Erdal Gursoy, all physicians, and Dr. J. J. Bouressa, a dentist.

Erdman Associates, a construction firm from Madison, is the general contractor for the project.

Last November, plans were announced for a three-story brick structure on E. North Water Street to house the new offices of Dr. William Kennedy and Dr. Waldo R. Varberg and provide space for another five tenants.

The first building in the Professional Plaza complex, a $1 million project planned by nine Twin City physicians and dentists, was opened last fall.

The new Professional Arts Building is located a short distance from the Professional Plaza on S. Commercial Street.

T-C Soldier Wounded in Vietnam War

NEENAH - MENASHA — Another Twin Cities serviceman has been wounded in fighting in Vietnam. He is Lyle Rohde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Talarczyk, 814 Emily St., Menasha.

A member of the Fourth Infantry Division, Rohde was reportedly wounded about three weeks ago by U.S. artillery fire.

He is currently recovering in an Army hospital at Okinawa and expects to be returned to duty in Vietnam, according to members of his family. He is slated for discharge from the army in September.

A 1964 graduate of Menasha High School, Rohde has been in Vietnam about six months.

Another Twin Cities soldier, Marine Pfc. Timothy M. Blank, son of Robert E. Blank, 568 Oak St., Neenah, and Mrs. Susan Laabs, 1609 S. Lawe St., Appleton, was one of a number of wounded servicemen entertained at the Great Lakes Naval Hospital last weekend by a group of entertainers from Milwaukee.

Blank's left leg was amputated below the knee after suffering a fragmentation wound March 23. He expects to be sent to Philadelphia, Pa., shortly to be outfitted with an artificial limb.

Firemen Answer Three Calls During 24-Hour Period in Appleton

Several units of the Appleton Fire Department were dispatched to Marcell's Restaurant, 406 W. College Ave., about 10:30 a.m. today to investigate a possible natural gas leak. Firemen, in checking the building, found nothing wrong.

Children were believed to have started a fire in a clothes dryer at the Half Hour Laundromat, 1700 S. Lawe St., about 6:25 p.m. Monday. Firemen said matches and cigarette butts were found in the dryer. There were no clothes in the machine. A customer said he saw children run out of the building before the fire was discovered. Damage was minor.

At 10:47 a.m. Monday, firemen went to the Lester Hopfensperger home, 913 E. Winnebago St., when lint caught fire in a clothes dryer. The fire was out when firemen arrived.

Modern Jews Observe Ancient 'Passing Over'

Passover, the aniversary of the ancient Israelites' uprising against human bondage, began at sundown Monday and will last through May 2.

The feast is so named from the 10th plague in Egypt when God smote the firstborn of the Egyptians, "passing over" the houses of the Israelites which were marked with the blood of a lamb. They were permitted to leave Egypt and seek freedom in the promised land.

Today this festival commemorates all of the oppression encountered by the Jews during their long history.

The holiday itself also is a harvest festival recognizing the first harvest of the year in Palestine. As part of the morning service in the synagogue, a special prayer for dew and moisture is recited.

At the seder, or home worship service, there are traditional songs, narrations and prayers for freedom and deliverance.

Foods include the matzoh, unleavened bread to recall that baked in haste as the Israelites left Egypt; bitter herbs, as reminders of hardships under pharoah's oppression, and a sprig of parsley as a reminder that Passover is also a festival of spring.

Also part of the meal is a mixture of apples, nuts, raisins and wine, symbolizing the mortar used in Egyptian pyramids.

Children play an important part during the seder. The youngest member of the family poses four questions at the start of the ceremony noting the difference between the passover meal and regular meals. This sets the stage for telling the exodus story.

systems, plumbing systems, and contamination of public waters.

De La Hunt said he fears there are possible health hazards with drinking water supplies in villages since, "in some cases, water is never tested after it leaves the wells."

He also told Paul that, as part of the study, "I'd like to see you order a full-course dinner in some small restaurants in the county. I'd like to know how the food is prepared, how it is served and where it comes from."

Referring to an extensive study of health problems in Outagamie County made by the League of Women Voters, De La Hunt suggested to Paul that he ask League spokesmen "for examples of the unsanitary conditions they speak of; and then go check them out.

"Also," he said, "ask the president of the medical society (Dr. James Gmeiner) just what is so bad that makes them feel we ought to consolidate our operations with the city of Appleton's."

Wisconsin Seeks First Capital Liaison Office In Washington, D. C.

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — Operation of an office of the State Division of Economic Development for national capital liaison in Washington, D.C. would cost the state about $68,000 a year, the division has informed the legislature.

Authorizing legislation is now before the Wisconsin Senate and Assembly for the first office ever sought by a state administration in Washington. Many other states now maintain such Washington branches to keep in close contact with congressional delegations, and with agencies disbursing federal aid grants.

The state division is a part of the executive office of Gov. Warren P. Knowles, who is supporting the branch in Washington.

Christianity Is Tool to Defeat Communism world's history has achieved so much in such a short time as Communists. We've got to see it in terms of people, not conspiracies."

Hyde said the battle against Communism could be won only if taken on a personal basis. "Unless we as Christians are able to produce people who are as dedicated as Communists, we shan't win this battle for hearts and minds."

"Communism doesn't just happen. People don't just become Communists because of original sin," Hyde said.

Dying of Starvation

There are social, economic and political reasons. "As we are sitting here, there are people who are dying of starvation on the streets of Calcutta."

"They used to die fatalistically," Hyde said. "Now they know we have the means of preventing their death. In the past, they accepted death . . . today they reason."

With that in mind, Hyde said, "It is good and proper that Communists want to change the world."

Hyde urged, "We've got to start behaving like Christians for a change. We've got to prove that we are going to change the world . . . change it back to Christianity. The success of Communism is a measure of Christian failure."

Visits Planned To UW Sites At Green Bay

Assembly Committee To Tour Shorewood, Larsen Farm Areas

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — On-site inspections of the two proposed locations of the University of Wisconsin (UW)-Green Bay are scheduled Monday.

The Assembly education committee, which is considering a bill which would move the planned UW campus from the approved Shorewood site on the city's northeast side to the Larsen Farms site of the southwest side, will visit both locations.

Assemblyman D. Russell Wartinbee, R-LaCrosse, chairman of the 11-man committee, sent letters to all committee members during the past weekend stating that the trip had been authorized by Assembly Speaker Harold V. Froehlich, R-Appleton, and that the group would receive further information on the excursion Wednesday.

The bill, authored by Assemblyman William Rogers, D-Kaukauna, is strongly supported by the legislative contingent from the southern part of the Fox River Valley. Opponents of the Shorewood site claim that traffic problems in Green Bay will make it unreachable for commuting students from the southern part of the Valley.

Fly-in Film Featured At Meeting Tonight Of Pilot Association

A film of the 1966 fly-in at the national convention of the Experimental Aircraft Association (EAA) will highlight tonight's meeting of the Appleton Pilot's Association at the Outagamie County Airport.

The convention at Rockford is annually one of the largest fly-ins in the country, attracting pilots from every state and Canada.

"Wings to Temiscamie," a film dipicting the Teniscamie River in Canada, will be an added attraction for fishermen.

During the previous meeting John Barlow was elected vice president of the local association.

The association agreed to seek the aid of Rep. John Byrnes, R-Green Bay, to promote the installation of a radar facility at Green Bay.

Appleton Man Denies Interstate Transport of Coins Taken in Robbery

Donald R. Peters, 28, 916 Ridge Lane, pleaded innocent Monday to a charge of interstate transportation of coins taken in a $50,000 robbery in Menasha March 19.

Peters was arraigned in federal court at Milwaukee. No date was set for his trial. An alleged accomplice, Lawrence V. Miller, 21, 603A W. South Park Ave., Oshkosh, is awaiting trial on an armed robbery charge. Miller and Peters are free on bonds.

Avenue a pleasant place to shop.

Both Nelson and Greaves stressed the avenue business district was in an unusually heavy competitive situation with outlying shopping centers and would be more so in the future.

Nelson and Greaves pointed out, as did contractors, that in effect Appleton was getting about a quarter of a million dollars worth of facelifting for about $100,000.

The reason for this, they explained, was that the time for re-designing the shopping district was now when it is all torn up for new street construction.

The cost of carrying out the project would have been double, they pointed out, if Appleton merely went into such a plan without doing something to the entire street.

"What we are telling you is that it would have cost you much more to rip the strip up, haul excavation away and prepare a layout just for redesigning the street," Nelson declared.

Chamber Support

Harold Adams, chairman of the chamber's project '85 committee, and Ted Gilleland, chairman of the group's downtown College Avenue committee, praised the design.

Additional support came from W. A. Close, active chamber member and downtown merchant, along with Gus Zuehlke, Appleton banker and civic leader.

Ted Bernhard, manager of the Sears Store here, felt the plan was excellent and pledged his support, commenting, "We have a good landlord and he will go along with this improvement."

Bernhard, one of the early leaders in getting the avenue reconstruction off the ground during the planning stages, said his firm recently put $40,000 into interior projects. "But I wonder how many people noticed them," Bernhard commented. "They will notice something outside on the street though."

Opposition Expected

The special chamber group, which held meetings over a period of weeks as did the street-sanitation committee in mapping plans for streetscaping, was unanimous in approving the basic concept presented by the Milwaukeeans.

At one point, however, it was disclosed some merchants at the west end of the College Avenue project will oppose a new design.

Ald. Roy Pointer (14th), street-sanitation committee chairman, said he was pleased with the plan and the cost, adding that he understood some industries wanted to make donations to the streetscaping fund. Other aldermen also supported the design.

Ald. John MacDonald (7th), council president, attended but did not comment.

"I think it is a wonderful plan for our downtown and I support it," acknowledged Mayor Buckley.

"What pleases me most is that the cost of the work falls within the original estimate of $100,000," Buckley added.

Police Search for Missing Woman

Appleton police have requested assistance in finding a 49-year-old Appleton woman reported missing from home since March 17.

Dwight Combs, 1136 Jardin St., reported his wife missing Monday. He said she took her blue 1961 Chevrolet four door. The woman was described as being 5 feet, 5 inches tall, and 120 pounds with brown hair and brown eyes.

Early Morning Fire Damages Living Room

Fire damaged a living room wall early Sunday at the home of Agnes Knapp, 608 W. Michigan St.

Appleton firemen, when they were summoned at 3:35 a.m., were told there was a chimney fire. The fire was in a wall near the fireplace which reportedly had been used Saturday.

Firemen remained at the home about an hour. Investigation into the cause of the fire is continuing.

ing also will begin in conjunction with the paving.

The pavers will start at Memorial Drive and proceed east, following the many other crews of various firms connected with the overall project.

"I would like to say the merchants and everyone have been just terrific. We have had no trouble whatsoever," Maples said. "This is the finest town I have ever worked in . . . and I mean it."

Giving a rundown of the organized activity on the avenue project, Maples said that:

—Bahr Construction Co., Manitowoc, which is the sub-contractor for all sewer work, has been laying sanitary sewers at the east end of the avenue and "moving right along."

Installing Mains

—The gas company has crews installing new mains and expanding underground equipment to meet present and future service requirements.

—A contractor hired by the Wisconsin Telephone Co. has completed about 90 per cent of its underground work.

—Wisconsin-Michigan Power Co. crews are installing new underground conduits and other facilities.

—Superior Electric Co., Appleton contractor, is putting in new conduits and bases for the standards to hold the new lighting system.

Board Okays Three School Line Changes

Franklin, Highlands, Lincoln Get New District Boundaries

Boundary changes involving Franklin, Highlands and Lincoln elementary schools, beginning in September, were approved Monday by the board of education.

Franklin School boundaries are as follows: beginning at Richmond Street and Parkway Boulevard, east on Parkway to Morrison Street, south on Morrison to Roosevelt Street, east on Roosevelt to Meade Street, south on Meade to Woodland Street, east on Woodland to Viola Street, north on Viola Street extended to Capitol Drive, west on Capitol to Richmond south on Richmond to the beginning point.

Eliminate Washington

Highlands: beginning at Lynndale Drive and Wisconsin Avenue, east on Wisconsin to Richmond, north on Richmond to Northland Avenue, west on Northland to Lynndale, then south on Lynndale to the beginning point.

Lincoln: beginning at Lynndale and College Avenue, east on College to Division Street, north on Division to Wisconsin, west on Wisconsin to Lynndale, then south on Lynndale to the beginning point.

These changes incorporate that part of the Lincoln School attendance area north of Wisconsin Avenue into the Highlands attendance area, combine ton School are and eliminate the Washington attendance area as of September 1967.

The presentation was outlined by James Westphal, elementary curriculum coordinator.

Retail Promotion to Be Tried This Week by Kaukauna Merchants

KAUKAUNA — "Kaukauna Days," a new retail promotion, will be held in many city stores Wednesday through Friday under the sponsorship of the retail division of the Chamber of Commerce.

The promotion is designed to bring shoppers special price values between the traditional January and July sale seasons, noted Peter Berens, chairman of the retail division.

Special price reductions will be made on many items during these three days and store owners will also offer some clearance discounts at this time, noted the chairman.

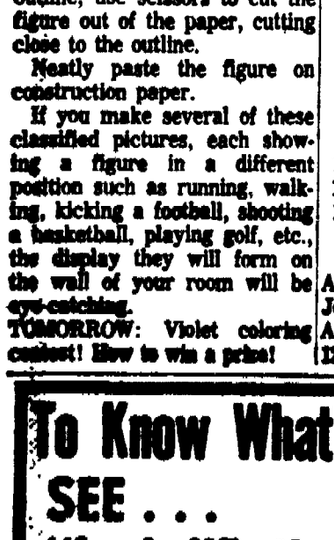
Make Unique Drawings With Newspaper Classified Ads

BY CAPPY DICK

Pictures of people drawn with a felt-tip marking pen on a page of classified newspaper advertisements become distinctive examples of your artistic skill.



Draw Outlines

The type of the classified ads gives an unusual appearance to the pictures after you have cut them from the paper and mounted them on colored construction paper to be displayed on the wall.

Figure 1 shows typical figures which should be simple outlines. The man running in Figure 2 is another example of the kind of outlined figures to make.

When you have completed an outline, use scissors to cut the figure out of the paper, cutting close to the outline.

Neatly paste the figure on construction paper.

If you make several of these classified pictures, each showing a figure in a different position such as running, walking, kicking a football, shooting a basketball, playing golf, etc., the display they will form on the wall of your room will be eye-catching.

Foxes Welcomed at Dinner; Open Season Wednesday

Return of Jones Wins Most Cheers

Alex Cosmidis, new Appleton Foxes manager, promised here Monday night that the team will be mentally and physically ready for the Midwest League season, which opens Wednesday.

Speaking at the annual "Welcome Foxes" banquet, Cosmidis said, "We're going into this thing like we'll be pennant winners all the way."

An enthusiastic, but disappointingly small, crowd greeted the new Foxes and heard guest speaker Harvey Kuenn at Sabre Lanes.

The biggest ovation of the evening was for "Deacon" Jones, when it was announced that the 1966 ML batting champion would be back for his second season as the Foxes' player-coach.

Hugh Mulcahy, pitching coach of the White Sox farm system, said "Appleton will have another good club, and you will be happy with Alex Cosmidis."

Reports on Progress

Mulcahy also reported on the progress of some of last year's Foxes standouts. Mickey Abarbanel and Andy Rubilotta are pitching triple A ball at Indianapolis. "They got a little rough treatment the first time out," he noted.

Fred Rath won his first start with the double A Evansville club, said Mulcahy. He indicated that Bill Melton is being tried at third base at Evansville and has come up with some good plays, in addition to continuing his lusty hitting.

Cosmidis, who introduced each of the Foxes, noted that it is "nice to have Deacon back," adding that Jones did an outstanding job as batting coach at the minor league camp. Cosmidis indicated that Stan Wasiak, 1966 Foxes manager, sends his greetings to all the fans.

Jones said "I really feel honored to be back . . . I don't want to be called a special guest at this banquet; I'm home."

"Deacon" declared that he is happy to work with Cosmidis, who is a dedicated baseball man, just as Wasiak is.

Kuenn reminisced about his 14-year major league career. He related a number of anecdotes and quipped that he helped Sandy Koufax attain baseball glory. (Kuenn said he made the last out in two of Koufax' no hitters).

Kuenn advised the young players to work hard in their efforts to make the big leagues, "You're always being watched," he said.

Club President Bob Rahn gave the welcome on behalf of the Foxes. Business Manager Ed Holtz also spoke briefly. George Banta III was master of ceremonies.

Begin Title Defense on Quincy Field

BY JOHN L. PAUSTIAN
Post-Crescent Sports Editor

A familiar face will be in an unfamiliar position Wednesday night when the Appleton Foxes open defense of their Midwest League championship at Quincy, Ill.

Al Fitzmorris, a clutch performer in his role for a Foxes utility player last year, is starting a new career as a pitcher — and he will be

Al Fitzmorris

Appleton's starting starter in the '67 inaugural.

A new manager, Alex Cosmidis, will be at the helm as the Foxes launch their 10th season in professional baseball.

Two other 1966 Foxes favorites will be on call in the dugout Wednesday night if the need arises. They are slugging "Deacon" Jones, who was officially placed on the Appleton roster Monday; and Willie Hooker, the league's premier relief pitcher last year.

Two starters, other than Fitzmorris — second baseman Roy Radmaker and third baseman Jeff Kolb — saw brief service with the Foxes in '66. Two other pitchers have also been here before. They are Dennis Klasane, a short-time Fox last year, who is scheduled to start Thursday; and Steve Kokor, a star moundsman in the first half of the '66 season, who has been slowed by arm trouble this spring.

Cosmidis has named this starting lineup and batting order for Wednesday: Jose Ortiz, center field; Pete Lentine, first base; Radmaker; Carlos May, left field; Gary Kirtlan, right field; Joe Monty, shortstop; Chuck Brinkman catcher; and Fitzmorris.

After a 2-game series in Quincy, the Foxes invade Decatur, with Durant Cooper and Frank Chambers scheduled to be the starting pitchers. The Foxes return to Goodland Field for their home opener Sunday night — and Fitzmorris, according to present plans, will pitch.

The Foxes, last year, won the first-half title (with a 42-19, —.689 — record), placed third in the second round (with a 35-28 mark), then beat Cedar Rapids in a best-of -3 playoff. The Foxes, with a 77-47 over-all mark, won their third pennant in the club's 9-year history.

Cedar Rapids, which won the second-round title last year, opens as host to Burlington, the runnerup in both rounds. In other Wednesday games, it will be Wisconsin Rapids at Decatur, Waterloo at Quad Cities and Dubuque at Clinton.

Quincy, the Foxes' first foe of the new season, finished fifth in both rounds last year. Its .248 team batting average led the league. The Foxes won five of seven games at Quincy but won only three of seven contests against the Cubs at Goodland Field.

Quincy is managed by Harry Bright, who has a 20-year baseball background. Bright, who once was a player-manager

Willie Wood Seventh in Interceptions

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Wood of the Green Bay Packers is seventh among active National Football League players in pass interceptions.

Wood in seven seasons has snared 31 passes and returned them a total of 427 yard.

The Packers' Herb Adderley is tied with Dave Whitsell, New Orleans, for 11th place. Adderley in six seasons has intercepted 27 passes for 583 yards.

Bobby Boyd of Baltimore is the leader with 43 interceptions in seven seasons.

Dave Robinson of the Packers and Mike Lucci of Detroit tied for first place in interceptions by linebackers in 1966. Each had five.

Wilt Stars; 76ers Post 125-122 Win To Take NBA Title

Accuracy on Free Throw Line Key to Triumph Over Warriors

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "This is the greatest team in the history of professional basketball," declares Coach Alex Hannum of his Philadelphia 76ers, the champions of the National Basketball Association.

"They established a won-loss record for regular season play, beat the Boston Celtics in the Eastern playoffs and defeated San Francisco's Warriors twice on their own court."

By a 125-122 margin, the 76ers beat the Warriors on Monday night to capture the final playoffs, four games to two. Superiority at the free throw line and rugged play by Wilt Chamberlain did it.

The 7-foot 1-inch Most Valuable Player of the NBA capped his performance when he loomed in front of the Warriors' Rick Barry and forced an offline shot when the San Franciscans trailed by one point with 15 seconds to play.

12-Point Deficit

Stars of the 76ers were many, a team where the players picked each other up and where a 12-point deficit late in the third quarter of the final game was more than made up. Over-all Philadelphia hit 41 times from the free throw line while the Warriors notched only 22 free throws.

Wally Jones started them out with a 16-point first quarter and reserve Billy Cunningham hit for 11 of his 17 total in the final stanza when the 76ers surged back.

Still the big man was Chamberlain with 24 points, 23 rebounds and a non-statistical job of forcing and blocking Warrior shots. Winners of 68 while losing only 13 during the regular season, the Philadelphians were hard pressed in this playoff.

Going in with a 3-2 margin in games, the 76ers trailed 94-82 with 4 minutes, 39 seconds remaining in the third period. As Chamberlain put it, "I'd rather be a little behind because then we don't become complacent."

Coach Bill Sharman of San Francisco, admitting his club has great potential with its many young players, added, "You have to look to the 76ers for the next few years. They will be tough to beat."

Vike Trackmen Face Lakeland, Michigan Tech

Triangular Set For Wednesday At Whiting Field

Unseasonably cold weather has hampered workouts, but the Lawrence University track team is making preparations for a pair of tough home meets this week.

Wednesday, highly-regarded Michigan Tech and Lakeland will invade Whiting Field for a triangular. Saturday, the Vikings will play host to a big quadrangular, with Wisconsin State University-Oshkosh, Stevens Point and Ripon Colleges supplying the opposition.

WSU-O and Stevens Point are rated as two of the top track squads in the State University Conference.

Coach Gene Davis, of the Vikings, said the cold weather has been hampering his squad's drills, particularly in the field events.

Dick Schultz, who missed the last meet with Ripon because of a special exam will be back for the two meets, but team captain Chuck Porter, who is in Florida on a training mission with the Air Force ROTC, will not be available for either test.

Lawrence is unbeaten in three meets having notched victories over Knox, Beloit and Ripon.

Nose Operation May Delay Nino's Griffith Rematch

MILAN, Italy (AP) — A nose operation might set back the scheduled July 13 rematch in New York between new world middleweight champion Nino Benvenuti of Italy and Emile Griffith of New York.

Benvenuti injured his nose when he took the championship from Griffith April 17 in Madison Square Garden in New York.

A doctor said plastic surgery is necessary; "otherwise the injury would reopen at the first punch with serious consequences." The skin transplant would mean a month of inactivity for Benvenuti.

Phyllis Buck Fourth in Bowl-O-Rama

Tourney Entry Record Set

The latest tabulation of entries for the fifth annual Bowl-O-Rama, sponsored by The Post-Crescent, shows that 2,862 entries and reservations have been received — and all-time record.

This pushes the cash prize jackpot for the tournament past the $5,600 mark, another record.

Entries will be accepted until midnight Thursday, May 11, or up until the time when the last shifts are filled. Anyone still wishing to enter is urged to do so as soon as possible because late shifts are becoming filled at a rapid rate.

Women bowling in the Class B division brought about the major changes Monday night at the 41 Bowl.

This was the first Monday night of competition in the tournament which has three weeks left to run.

Top change in the standings saw Phyllis Buck, of New London take over fourth place in Class B while close behind was Clovis Swokowski, Appleton, who went into fifth place. The two women keglers were only eight pins apart as Phyllis rolled a 813 total and Clovis came through with a 805.

Also in Class B, Mary Zahringer, Menasha, went into 10th place with a 779 count.

Audrey Deeg Leads

The Class B leader is Audrey Deeg, Appleton with a 857 score and Betty Raddatz, Kimberly is second with 844.

In women's Class A, Kathy Sodermark, Neenah, retained the top spot with her 860 total and Nancy Seidl, Kimberly, is next in line with 848. The only change in the top 10 positions Monday night saw Marie Jansen, Kaukauna, take over the seventh spot with a 821 total.

Vince Cites Bart Starr As MVP in Pro Football

GREEN BAY (AP)— Coach Vince Lombardi of the pro football champion Green Bay Packers said Monday night quarterback Bart Starr "has never received the recognition he deserved" but he is the "most valuable player in professional football."

And, Starr is a "fine man and a humble man," Lombardi told a sellout audience at the sixth annual Elks Club sports award dinner.

Starr returned the compliment by saying: "The man most responsible for my success is Lombardi. He has influenced my life more than anybody else."

Honored at the dinner along with Starr was former Green Bay halfback Vern Lewellen, who retired at the age of 65 after 43 years in the game as a player and front office executive.

"I was sorry on the day Vern became 65 years old," Lombardi said of the man who played for the Packers from 1924-1933. Lewellen became general manager in 1954 and in 1959 was named business manager. He held the latter post until his retirement at the end of last season.

Frederickson and Livingston Expect to Be Back This Season

NEW YORK (AP) — Two National Football League fullbacks are recovering from knee injuries inflicted by the Green Bay Packers in pre-season games last summer.

Both Tucker Frederickson of the New York Giants and Andy Livingston of the Chicago Bears say they expect to be ready to play in 1967.

FVL Track Team Meets Shiocton

The Fox Valley Lutheran track team will play host to Shiocton at 4 p.m. Wednesday.

It will be the third dual meet of the season for the Foxes, who have a 1-1 record.

Lawrence '9' Meets Ripon

Doubleheader Will Go Long Way in Deciding MC Title

The Lawrence University and Ripon College baseball teams share the Northern Division lead in the Midwest Conference and the two teams will meet in a key doubleheader at Ripon Wednesday.

For the season, the Redmen have an unblemished mark of 4-0 while Lawrence, which has been able to get in more games despite adverse weather conditions, has a 4-3 overall record.

In conference play, both the Redmen and Vikings have defeated Carleton twice. A sweep of the twin bill by either team would put the club solidly in the running for the division title. Ripon is defending conference champion.

Last Saturday, Lawrence scored 3-1 and 4-3 victories over Carleton. Ripon was idle as a scheduled doubleheader with Northwestern of Watertown had to be called off because of bad weather.

Doug Faile and Chris Olsen are the likely mound starters for Lawrence.

Reds Grab NL Lead; Dodgers Win in 13

BY DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Unsinkable Ted Abernathy has his submarine ball on target again and the Cincinnati Reds are sailing a steady course in the early National League race.

Abernathy torpedoed the skidding Houston Astros with 1 2-3 innings of clutch relief pitching Monday night, protecting a 3-1 victory that ran Cincinnati's winning streak to five games.

The veteran reliever, who throws with an unorthodox underhand motion, rescued winner Sammy Ellis in the eighth inning and registered his fifth save of the young season. He has appeared in eight of the Reds' 13 starts.

"I'm sure glad he's on my team," slugger Deron Johnson said after the Reds drafted Abernathy from Atlanta's Richmond farm club during the winter. "It takes years to learn to hit a curve that goes down, and then you run into a guy like Abernathy who throws one that goes up."

Set Appearance Record

Abernathy, who set an all-time record of 84 appearances —all in relief —and finished with a 2.58 earned run average two years ago while with the Chicago Cubs, slipped to a 4.55 ERA in 58 games for the Cubs and Braves last season.

Atlanta, seeking to protect its younger pitchers from the draft, placed the 34-year-old right-hander on the Richmond roster. The Reds, desperate for relief pitching, grabbed him.

Abernathy's strong finish against the Astros, who have dropped eight in a row, and Tony Perez' three-run homer lifted the Reds into the league lead.

St. Louis droppd a 6-5 decision to Los Angeles in 13 innings and fell into a second-place tie with idle Philadelphia. The Dodgers-Cards struggle was the only other game played in the NL.

In the lone American League contest, Boston scored three runs on Ken Harrelson's eighth-inning error for a 7-4 victory over Washington.

Puts Out Fire

Abernathy came out of the bullpen with one out in the eighth after Jim Wynn and Ed Mathews touched Ellis for successive singles. The submariner retired Rusty Staub and John Bateman on fly balls, choking off the threat. He walked Aaron Pointer with one out in the ninth

WSU-O Golfers Triumph Over UW-M, 15½ to 2½

The Wisconsin State University-Oshkosh golf team whipped UW-M, 15½-2½, Monday at Milwaukee Brown Deer for its second straight win.

Oshkosh's Pete Benson took official medalist honors, with a 78 (38-40), while UW-M's Andy Anderson carded a 79. Other Titan scores were: Rick Backus, 84; Al Jellison, 81; Mike Malone, 82; Dan Phillips, 81; Tom Collins, 82.

Among the players whose scores did not count in the official tabulation, WSU-O's Bob Simon (of Menasha) fired a 78 and Jeff Ashman had a 79.

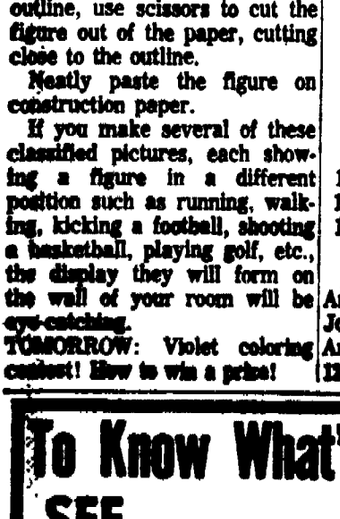
Make Unique Drawings With Newspaper Classified Ads

BY CAPPY DICK

Pictures of people drawn with a felt-tip marking pen on a page of classified newspaper advertisements become distinctive examples of your artistic skill.



Draw Outlines

The type of the classified ads gives an unusual appearance to the pictures after you have cut them from the paper and mounted them on colored construction paper to be displayed on the wall.

Figure 1 shows typical figures which should be simple outlines. The man running in Figure 2 is another example of the kind of outlined figures to make.

When you have completed an outline, use scissors to cut the figure out of the paper, cutting close to the outline.

Neatly paste the figure on construction paper.

If you make several of these classified pictures, each showing a figure in a different position such as running, walking, kicking a football, shooting a basketball, playing golf, etc., the display they will form on the wall of your room will be eye-catching.

but got pinch hitter Chuck Harrison to rap into a game ending double play.

Perez connected following a walk and Johnson's single in the fourth. It was his second homer of the season —both off Houston's Dave Giusti.

The Astros scored in the sixth on singles by Jim Wynn, Mathews and Staub.

Rookie Jim Campanis' first major league hit —a leadoff double in the 13th — triggered the Dodgers' winning two-run rally. Ron Hunt was hit by a pitch and Phil Gagliano fumbled Jim Hickman's sacrifice bunt, filling the bases, before Jim Lefebvre delivered the tying run with a sacrifice fly.

Johnson Key Hit

One out later, Lou Johnson singled the winner across.

The Cards had taken a 5-4 lead in the top of the inning on a run-scoring single by Curt Flood.

Lefebvre drove in four runs with a homer, single and the sacrifice fly, while Johnson connected for a bases-empty homer.

Lou Brock had three hits, scored one run, drove in a pair and stole three bases for the Cardinals.

First baseman Harrelson booted Mike Andrews' bases-loaded grounder with two out in the eighth at Washington, enabling Carl Yastrzemski, Rico Petrocelli and Jose Tartabull — all running on the 3-2 pitch —to score.

Andrews' single and a double by Reggie Smith scored two runs in the seventh, lifting the Red Sox into a 4-4 deadlock after Frank Howard's 480-foot homer with two aboard in the sixth had sent Washington ahead 4-2.

Alligator Makes Golf Hole Special Hazard On Florida Course

FORT WALTON BEACH, Fla. (AP) —When the pro warns a golfer about the water hazard on a par three course here, the golfer had better believe it's hazardous.

There's an alligator in the pond.

Aaron Eastling Upsets Qualls

Erases Only Blot On Record, Wants Ron Marsh Next

MILWAUKEE (AP)— Heavyweight Aaron Eastling was sure of two things Monday night after he erased the one blot on his boxing record by upsetting massive Orville Qualls.

He wants to fight former Kansas football player, Ron Marsh of Minneapolis, one of the Midwest's top heavyweight hopefuls.

He doesn't want to fight Qualls again—at least, not for a while.

"I want to meet a name fighter," said Eastling, a St. Paul boxer with a whistling left hook that landed often enough on Qualls' head to earn a decision. "I don't intend to spend the rest of my life fighting Qualls."

Wins First Fight

It was the third meeting between the two. The 6-foot-6, 245-pound Qualls won the first fight. The second meeting ended in a draw, which was the way one judge saw Monday night's bout. The other cards favored Eastling, 78-76 and 77-75.

The victory gave Eastlin, 27, who never fought as an amateur, a 9-1-1 record and left Qualls, an Omaha, Neb., product, with a 6-1-1 record.

Qualls, 23, was unable to score with his right hand. Whenever he tried, he fell prey to Eastling's left hook.

"I just didn't give him a target," said Eastling, who referred back to the Cassius Clay —Cleveland Williams fight. "Williams is one of the hardest punchers around, but he couldn't hit Clay because Clay didn't give him a target."

In another bout on the Monday night card, Videl Flores, Milwaukee, stopped Reggie Williams, New Orleans, in the third round of their scheduled six-round middleweight bout.

Eddie Brooks of Milwaukee decisioned Art Robinson, Chicago, in a heavyweight match and Wally Swoop of Gary, Ind., decisioned Stanley Moor, Milwaukee, in a welterweight bout.

Rolls 609 Set In WIBC Test

Barbara Spinella Takes Lead in Division II Singles

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Barbara Spinella of New Hartford, N.Y., rolled a 609 series Monday to take the top spot in the Division II singles and the unofficial all-events lead at the Women's International Bowling Congress Tournament.

Meanwhile, Patricia Morgan of New York City grabbed second place in the singles category by rolling a 582 series on games of 190, 201 and 191. It was the highest score the 143-average competitor had compiled in 2½ years of bowling. Her previous high was a 504.

Mrs. Spinella, a 148-average bowler, put together games of 198, 204 and 207 for her tourney-leading series.

Fitzmorris Hurls Opener For Foxes

for Janesville of the old Wisconsin State League, eventually moved to the majors, where he played for several clubs, including the New York Yankees, the Chicago Cubs and the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Foxes' Cosmidis, who is beginning his first year in the White Sox organization, says hitting was the team's strongest point in exhibition play. The Foxes posted an 8-6 record (they were 4-1 against Clinton of the ML, 3-5 against Lynchburg and beat Evansville, a double A club, 3-1).

Lentine, Radmaker, May and Kirtlan all showed good power in spring games, said Cosmidis. Radmaker is the only right-handed hitter of the quartet.

Cosmidis is also high on Ortiz' speed and on the over-all quality of his catching staff. Brinkman is as good a defensive catcher as there is in the minors, in Cosmidis' opinion.

Cosmidis admitted there are some question marks on his pitching staff but hopes that some of the problems (sore arms and wildness) will be overcome.

The ever-reliable Hooker may be a handy man to have around in the early weeks. Hooker, who posted a 15-5 record for the Foxes last year, has been "getting 'em out" again this spring, Cosmidis reports.

Jones, who has been the White Sox' minor league batting instructor, will work his way into tip-top shape shortly, Cosmidis noted. Jones won the ML batting crown in 1966.

Radmaker, after playing only 11 games here last year, joined the Winter Haven club and hit .211 for 111 plate only three times in two games for the Foxes last year. He hit .250 in 14 games for Sarasota of the Gulf Coast League.

Plays for Senators

Chuck Brinkman, whose brother Ron plays for the Washington Senators, hit .186 in 47 games for Lunchburg last year.

Fitzmorris actually made his Foxes pitching debut last Aug. 28 when he appeared against Wisconsin Rapids. He allowed only four hits and one earned run in five innings as the Foxes were saving their regular pitchers for the playoff series against Cedar Rapids.

Rookie Chester Stephenson is expected to open on the mound for Quincy Wednesday. The rest of the Cubs' lineup will be: John Cox, second base; Mike Klahr, shortstop; Greg Werdick, third base; Jim Williams, center; Jim Gretta, first base; Rich Bladt right; Bob Eyeer, left and Elby Bushong or John Dudek, catcher.

Of this group, only Bushong was with Quincy last year.

Q Stadium, at Quincy, boasts a number of changes — including a new electric scoreboard, a new press box and new concession stands.

SPORT FANS!

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

by John Behnke

Here's a tough golf question . . . As you probably know, in the old days, the wooden and iron golf clubs had names in addition to numbers . . . When the old-timers played, they often called the clubs by their names . . . Now, see if you can supply the names for these clubs: No. 2 wood, 3 wood, 4 wood, 5 iron and 9 iron . . . The 2 wood is the brassie, the 3 wood is the spoon, the 4 wood is the cleek, the 5 iron is the mashie and the 9 iron is the niblick . . . That should bring back memories for some of you older golfers.

Do you know who was the oldest man ever to fight in a professional boxing match . . . The record was set by a heavyweight named Walter Edgerton who had his last bout at the age of 631 . . . He boxed professionally for more than 40 years.

What was the biggest margin in history by which a team won a major league baseball pennant? . . . The Pirates of 1902 won the flag by 27½ games . . . No other team ever finished further ahead of the second place team than that.

mained the same with Orv Jirsa retaining the lead position with his 633 total that was hit on opening night of the Bowl-O-Rama. Mike King, Appleton, is second with 603.

In Class B for men, John Borree, Neenah, took over seventh place with a 595 total on a 734 scratch total for the four games and 112 pins handicap.

On Monday's 7 p.m. shift the squad prize for women's high game (including handicap) went to Mary Zabringer with a 196 scratch and 53 pins handicap for a 248. For the men, Ed Schultz, Appleton, had a 236 scratch and 12 pins handicap for an identical 248 count.

Booms 282 Total

The 9 p.m. squad prizes went to Joyce Sweeney, New London, bowling in the Class B division with a 187 scratch game and 35 pins handicap for a 222 count and Ray Sanderfoot, Appleton, also in Class B with a 248 scratch and 34 pins handicap for a booming 282.

Phyllis Buck started out with games of 173 and 165 to go with 43 pins handicap per game. She slipped to 149 in her third game and then came back with a 154 in the last line.

Clovis Swokowski grabbed the fifth spot in Class B with the help of a hefty 208 total pins of handicap to go with her 597 scratch series.

Marie Jansen's climb to seventh place in Class A was highlighted by a 709 scratch total plus 112 pins handicap for 821. She had scratch games of 198 and 190 with the set.

Antigo Names Elleson Head Cage Coach

ANTIGO, Wis. (AP) — Ralph Elleson, who coached Antigo High School teams to a 1967 state volleyball championship and a 1966 state cross country title, has been named head basketball coach at Antigo.

Elleson, a graduate of Superior State University, succeeds Jim Lattam, basketball coach for seven years.

Cubs' Late-Blooming Gigon Thought He Was At End of His Career

By JOE REICHEL

CHICAGO (AP)—What compels a grown man who has a wife and two children and is working on a doctor's degree in history to cavort on minor league baseball diamonds for eight years?

"I just wanted to find out if I could play in the majors," says Norm Gigon, a rookie with the Chicago Cubs who will be 29 May 12.

"I always felt within myself I could play in the majors if I ever got a chance," says the man whose failure to get a crack at the majors is as strange as is the story which led to his big chance.

Gigon, who has always been an infielder, made his first big league start as an outfielder Sunday and responded with a three-run homer to lead the Chicago Cubs to a 7-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

He signed with the Philadelphia club back in 1959. Tampa, Williamsport, Chattanooga, Buffalo, Little Rock, San Diego and Tacoma have been among his stops.

Small Record

Until this season, Gigon totaled only five at bats with the Phillies in exhibition games. He went to the plate three times in the spring of 1963 and twice in 1965.

"Sure I'd get discouraged. But I still wanted that chance. I hit 30 homers for Little Rock in 1964 and figured now I'd get the opportunity," he said.

"I went to spring training with the Phils and played third base in the intra-squad games while Richie Allen was a holdout. But the day the Grapefruit League started, Allen signed and away I went, Gigon said.

"Last year I gave away all all my equipment and saved one glove to play catch with my son. I figured that was it," he said.

Gigon's fortunes began to change last summer. The Cubs needed an infielder for their Tacoma farm. Philadelphia needed an outfielder for San Diego. Billy Cowan went to San Diego and Gigon to Tacoma.

A graduate of Colby College, Gigon earned his master's degree at the University of Rhode Island. He was at Kingston last winter doing research for doctoral dissertation on British Imperialism from 1890-1910 when Cub Vice President John Holland called.

What's Two Months?

Would he mind going to the Instructional League in Arizona for two months?

"I jumped at the chance," said Gigon.

"Maybe it's your fault you haven't made it," Cub Coach Pete Reiser told Gigon in Arizona. "We need bench players. Give it all you've got. What's two more months in your life?"

Gigon batted .290 and was invited to the Cubs' spring camp. During the exhibition stint, third baseman Ron Santo suffered a spike wound and sat out seven games. Gigon replaced him and batted over .400 during that stretch. Before breaking camp, the Cubs gave Gigon his first major league contract.

Can he make it?

"Why not?" says Manager Leo Durocher. "He's certainly got experience. He's hard nosed, likes to play and looks like a hitter. He'll start against lefthanders. I'll plattoon him with Lee Thomas."

"My wife?" says Gigon who has been married eight years. "She always wanted me to find out for myself if I could make it. Peggy has a lot of patience."

Kaukauna Tips Stockbridge On 'Squeeze'

Ken Kappell's Bunt Scores Van De Hey With Winning Run

KAUKAUNA — Ken Kappell's suicide squeeze bunt scored Tom Van De Hey from third base to give Kaukauna High School a 6-5 victory over Stockbridge Monday afternoon in a non-conference game.

The play came in the bottom half of the seventh inning, after the Indians had tied the score, at 5-5, with a pair of runs in their half of the frame. Van De Hey had walked to lead off and had moved to second on Tom Vils' single. Both runners moved up on a wild pitch. The bunt came after an intentional walk and a strikeout.

Stockbridge led after three innings, 3-0, after Tom Head scored on a wild pitch and Dick Schumacher on a Ghost error. Dan Hemauer's triple and Bill Kummerford's single gave the Indians another run in the third.

Kaukauna then came back with five runs in the fourth on singles by Tom VanDe Hey, Mike Grogan, Kurt Luedtke, Tom Vils' double and three walks.

Sophomore Dave LaBorde went all the way to win for Kaukauna, while Dick Propson was the loser.

Kathy Whitworth Takes Raleigh Title With 215

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) —Tall Kathy Whitworth fired a one-under-par 71 Sunday to win the Raleigh Ladies Invitational Golf Tourney.

Miss Whitworth, who started the final round tied with Susie Maxwell, wound up with a 54-hole total of 215. Miss Maxwell finished with 220 to take second place.

Jo Ann Prentice came in third with 221. She pulled within three shots of Miss Whitworth after the first nine but bogeyed four of the last five holes to post a 75 final round.

Ditka Being Dangled As Bears' Trade Bait

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Bears are dangling Mike Ditka as trade bait but they have to move quickly if they want to make a swap.

Ditka played out his option last season and becomes a free agent May 1.

While playing out his option, Ditka revealed that he accepted $50,000 from the Houston Oilers, the team he would have jumped to had not the American Football League and the National Football League merged.

The merging of the two leagues left the big tight end in an enviable position. Houston's $50,000 belongs to Ditka and he can now do as he pleases after May 1.

Dicker With Eagles

However, the Bears are trying to get something for Ditka and admittedly have been dickering with other clubs, including the Philadelphia Eagles.

George Halas Jr., president of the Bears, said "talks have been had with the Eagles and other clubs regarding Ditka but nothing tangible has been resolved."

A story by Gene Roswell in Monday's New York Post said the Bears were close to dealing Ditka for Eagle quarterback Norm Snead but the Bears indicated the Eagles aren't ready to part with Snead.

Ditka recently had an operation to remove calcium deposits from a foot injury suffered two years ago. As to where he plays, Ditka claims it doesn't make any difference because "it's a matter of economics.

"I couldn't face my wife or children if I didn't play where I could get the most money," he said.

Chiefs Sign Their Biggest Player

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Ed Pope of Jackson, Miss., State has signed a contract to play for the Kansas City Chiefs of the American Football League.

Pope, 22, who is six-foot-six and weighs 330, is the biggest player the Chiefs have ever signed. Hank Stram, the Chiefs coach, said he expects Pope to report at 285 pounds.

Cards' Shannon Makes 2nd Start, Injured Again

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Third baseman Mike Shannon of St. Louis suffered a lacerated right thumb when hit by a pitch in the first inning of the Cardinals' game against the Los Angeles Dodgers Monday night.

Shannon, who was making his second start after missing seven games with a leg injury, left the game after being struck by a pitch from Dodger right-hander Don Sutton.

X-rays were negative but three stitches were required to close the wound.

Shawano '9' Tops Kimberly In M-E Opener

Ron Jesse Hurls 1-Hit, 15-0 Win, Drives in 3 Runs

KIMBERLY — Senior Ron Jesse pitched and batted the Shawano High School Indians to a 15-0 victory over Kimberly Monday afternoon in the opening Mid-Eastern Conference game. It was called after six innings because of darkness.

Jesse allowed just one hit — a single by Ralph Kalies in the fifth — and struck out nine. He also drove in three runs with a double and triple.

The game was scoreless in the first two frames, then Shawano got the only run it needed on an error and Bob Zahn's single in the top of the third.

The Indians jumped on starter and loser Steve Du Pont in the fourth for seven runs on four hits, a pair of walks, two hit batsmen and a couple of errors. Shawano finished the job in the sixth, when four more hits led to seven runs.

Flood Slams 810 Set of 4 Games

Prue Shares Honors With 245; Wanda Wessel Rolls 544 Series

Stan Prue and Ed Flood divided honors in the All-Star Classic League at Sabre Lanes, Monday night as Prue slammed a 245 game and Flood came through with a 810 series for the four games.

Prue was just one pin behind Flood for series honors with a 809 count and nxt in line was Bruce McEachern with a 796.

Prue was just one pin behind Flood for series honors with a 809 count and next in line was Bruce McEachern with a 796.

Wanda Wessel Hits 544

In Couples League action last weekend, Wanda Wessel had one of the best counts as she rolled games of 198 and 192 for a 544 series in the Swingers Couples League at Sabre Lanes.

Arlene Huebner had a 191 game and 527 series. The Monkey's won the team title in the Swingers loop with a 27-15 record and the team included Mr. and Mrs. Bob Huebner and Mr. and Mrs. Wynn Dobberstein.

Karen Williamson smacked a 209 game and Lois Kuse had a 191 singleton and 526 series to set the pace in the Lucky League at Sabre Lanes Monday night. Barbara Derks hit a 191 and other top scores included Elaine Krueger 198-522, Karen Williamson 507 and Margaret Zehren 192-504.

Ruth Huebner had the lone honor counts in South Greenville Grange Couples League competition at Sabre Lanes as she hit 214 and 517.

Melvin Wegner hit a 232 game and 588 series to lead the final night of action in the Commercial League at Sabre Lanes last Friday.

Bert Arfstrom had a 587 set and Roger Thiel rolled 564. Pond's Sport Shop won the league championship.

'I Want to Quit While Ahead,' Says Lorenzen

Stock Car Racing's All-Time Money Winner Retires at 33

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Stock car racing's Golden Boy, Fred Lorenzen, says he can now unwind his tangled nerves and forget about the dangers and fears of the track.

"Sure I was scared many

times, especially on the high-speed tracks," said the 33-year-old all-time money winner after announcing Monday night he is retiring from the sport that brought him wealth.

"I don't know a driver who doesn't feel fear at the pit of his stomach before and during a race," he said. "After all, there are others out there on the track, and they're all trying to win."

The sport gave Lorenzen a case of the nerves in the last couple of years. He developed an ulcer, for which he is now being treated and which played a large part in his retirement.

"I want to quit while I'm ahead," he said at a banquet given him by Ford division officials. "The only place I can go now is down."

Present for Lorenzen's formal retirement from the sport were a number of company executives, including Jacques Passino, who has charge of performance activities.

Passino credited Lorenzen, an ex-carpenter's helper from Elmhurst, Ill., with doing more for the company's performance image than anyone since the late Barney Oldfield.

Image Builder

Lorenzen says he has saved and invested most of the nearly half a million dollars he garnered in prize money during a six-year reign over the South's big super-speedways.

He said he has no immediate plans for the future other than "to get rid of the ulcer and unwind my nerves a little bit."

Lorenzen's off-white and blue racing colors will be retired permanently, as will his No. 28 that found its way into victory circle 21 times in races of 250 miles or longer — 12 of them on the South's big high-speed tracks.

Groat Doesn't Know When He'll Return to Lineup

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Dick Groat, Philadelphia Phillies' shortstop, hospitalized here with an inflamed right ankle, said Monday he does not know when he will be able to return to the line-up.

The 36-year-old veteran was hospitalized Thursday with cellulitis — an inflammation of the soft tissues in the ankle — and said from his room in St. Joseph's Hospital that he probably won't be ready to play until early next month.

Two Appleton Pin Teams in Meet's Top 10

Two teams from Appleton were among the top 10 finishers in the State Teamsters Association Bowling Tournament which was concluded at Lake road Lanes, Neenah, last weekend.

Fry's TV, Green Bay, took first place with a 3,068 total and Bonds Men, Green Bay was second with 3,025. Appleton Wire Works No. 2 placed third with a 3,020 total.

Another Appleton team, S. C. Shannon No. 2 tied for ninth place with 2,965.

In the doubles division, S. Young and D. Jacobs, Appleton, placed second with a 1,306 total. In 10th place was R. Simon and C. Elertson, Appleton with 1,257.

Top area finishers in the singles event was A. Reitzner, Appleton, with a 689 total.

Gamble Helps Yancey Capture Dallas Crown

De Vicenzo and Zarley Tie for Second Place

DALLAS (AP) — Bert Yancey had an important decision to make at the 14th hole of the 6,777-yard Oak Cliff Country Club course.

He was among the trees, with a downhill lie and he had to make up his mind whether he wanted to play safe and pitch out onto the fairway or shoot through an eight-foot opening.

"I thought I was behind and I figured I had to make a birdie or lose the tournament," said the young man from Philadelphia, "so I went for it—I shot through those trees, only touching a few leaves."

Actually Yancey wasn't behind — he was tied with Bob Goalby, who had bogeyed the hole.

Yancey's birdie—with a 20-foot putt—put him in the lead to stay. He swung down the stretch to a one-over-par 71, 274 for 72 holes and $20,000 as champion of the $100,000 Greater Dallas Open).

Seek to Repeat

He finished a stroke ahead of Roberto de Vicenzo, the 1966 Dallas Open champion who made a gallant bid for a repeat with a two-under-par 68, and Kermit Zarley, who also could manage only a 71 on the final round. They wound up with 275 and won $9,750 apiece.

The PGA golf tour moved on to San Antonio for the Texas Open today with the top three Dallas finishers in the field.

It also had Yancey in sixth place among the money-winners with $40,727.27. He moved up from 10th with his victory here —his first tournament triumph of the year.

Yancey will have a new caddie at San Antonio, it was indicated after the tournament Monday when he paid his bagpacker $500 and then fired him with the explanation that "he didn't help me."

The caddie contended that he should have been given $1,000 under a rule that allows a golfer to give up to 10 per cent to his caddie.

Jail 58 Fans for Soccer Violence

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Fifty-eight of the 78 fans arrested in a crackdown on violence at soccer games Sunday were given 30-day jail sentences Monday. The other 20 were released.

The crackdown was ordered after a boy was killed in the stands two weeks ago at the Huracan club field.

Stock Car Racing's All-Time Money Winner Retires at 33

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Stock car racing's Golden Boy, Fred Lorenzen, says he can now unwind his tangled nerves and forget about the dangers and fears of the track.

"Sure I was scared many

times, especially on the high-speed tracks," said the 33-year-old all-time money winner after announcing Monday night he is retiring from the sport that brought him wealth.

"I don't know a driver who doesn't feel fear at the pit of his stomach before and during a race," he said. "After all, there are others out there on the track, and they're all trying to win."

The sport gave Lorenzen a case of the nerves in the last couple of years. He developed an ulcer, for which he is now being treated and which played a large part in his retirement.

"I want to quit while I'm ahead," he said at a banquet given him by Ford division officials. "The only place I can go now is down."

Present for Lorenzen's formal retirement from the sport were a number of company executives, including Jacques Passino, who has charge of performance activities.

Passino credited Lorenzen, an ex-carpenter's helper from Elmhurst, Ill., with doing more for the company's performance image than anyone since the late Barney Oldfield.

Image Builder

Lorenzen says he has saved and invested most of the nearly half a million dollars he garnered in prize money during a six-year reign over the South's big super-speedways.

He said he has no immediate plans for the future other than "to get rid of the ulcer and unwind my nerves a little bit."

Lorenzen's off-white and blue racing colors will be retired permanently, as will his No. 28 that found its way into victory circle 21 times in races of 250 miles or longer — 12 of them on the South's big high-speed tracks.

Two Appleton Pin Teams in Meet's Top 10

Two teams from Appleton were among the top 10 finishers in the State Teamsters Association Bowling Tournament which was concluded at Lake road Lanes, Neenah, last weekend.

Fry's TV, Green Bay, took first place with a 3,058 total and Bonds Men, Green Bay was second with 3,025. Appleton Wire Works No. 2 placed third with a 3,020 total.

Another Appleton team, S. C. Shannon No. 2 tied for ninth place with 2,985.

In the doubles division, S. Young and D. Jacobs, Appleton, placed second with a 1,306 total. In 10th place was R. Simon and C. Elertson, Appleton with 1,257.

Top area finishers in the singles event was A. Reitzner, Appleton, with a 689 total.

Gamble Helps Yancey Capture Dallas Crown

De Vicenzo and Zarley Tie for Second Place

DALLAS (AP) — Bert Yancey had an important decision to make at the 14th hole of the 6,777-yard Oak Cliff Country Club course.

He was among the trees, with a downhill lie and he had to make up his mind whether he wanted to play safe and pitch out onto the fairway or shoot through an eight-foot opening.

"I thought I was behind and I figured I had to make a birdie or lose the tournament," said the young man from Philadelphia, "so I went for it—I shot through those trees, only touching a few leaves."

Actually Yancey wasn't behind — he was tied with Bob Goalby, who had bogeyed the hole.

Yancey's birdie—with a 20-foot putt—put him in the lead to stay. He swung down the stretch to a one-over-par 71, 274 for 72 holes and $20,000 as champion of the $100,000 Greater Dallas Open).

Seek to Repeat

He finished a stroke ahead of Roberto de Vicenzo, the 1966 Dallas Open champion who made a gallant bid for a repeat with a two-under-par 68, and Kermit Zarley, who also could manage only a 71 on the final round. They wound up with 275 and won $9,750 apiece.

The PGA golf tour moved on to San Antonio for the Texas Open today with the top three Dallas finishers in the field.

It also had Yancey in sixth place among the money-winners with $40,727.27. He moved up from 10th with his victory here —his first tournament triumph of the year.

Yancey will have a new caddie at San Antonio, it was indicated after the tournament Monday when he paid his bagpacker $500 and then fired him with the explanation that "he didn't help me."

The caddie contended that he should have been given $1,000 under a rule that allows a golfer to give up to 10 per cent to his caddie.

Groat Doesn't Know When He'll Return to Lineup

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Dick Groat, Philadelphia Phillies' shortstop, hospitalized here with an inflamed right ankle, said Monday he does not know when he will be able to return to the line-up.

The 36-year-old veteran was hospitalized Thursday with cellulitis — an inflammation of the soft tissues in the ankle — and said from his room in St. Joseph's Hospital that he probably won't be ready to play until early next month.

Bank President At Clintonville Dies of Injuries

John Buehrens, 62, Involved in Crash Monday Afternoon

CLINTONVILLE — John Buehrens, 62, president of Dairyman's State Bank, suffered fatal injuries in a two-car crash about 1:30 p.m. Monday at the intersection of Hemlock and Ninth Streets.

Buehrens, 182 N. Main St., died about three hours later in Clintonville Community Hospital. The driver of the other car, Mrs. L. A. Russell, 52, Chicago, sustained minor injuries and was reported in good condition this morning at the hospital.

Police said Buehrens was driving south on Hemlock returning to the bank after attending a luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club at the Hotel Marson. Mrs. Russell was driving west on Ninth, when the collision occurred, police said.

Struck House

After the collision, Buehrens' car crossed the lawn of the Adolph Buelow residence, 63 Ninth St., struck the house and damaged a door and vestibule of the Buelow home.

John Buehrens

Mrs. Russell's car also ended up on the lawn.

An attending physician said Buehrens' injuries included a concussion, head cuts, and several broken bones.

An autopsy was scheduled this morning.

Buehrens started work at the bank as a bookkeeper in 1922. In May, 1963, he was elected executive vice president. He became bank president in 1964.

Active in civic affairs, Buehrens was treasurer of the Clintonville Board of Education, a menber of the Rotary Club and Christ Congregational Church and admissions and budget chairman of United Funds of Clintonville and Vicinity, Inc.

Buehrens recently was elected to the executive council of the Wisconsin Bankers Association

Johnson Talks With De Gaulle

Western Leaders Gather For Final Adenauer Rites

COLOGNE, Germany (AP) — This Rhine River city was somber in spring sunshine today as Germans and leaders of the Western world attended a funeral mass for former Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Inside Cologne Cathedral were 2,000 invited guests, including President Johnson, President Charles de Gaulle of France and Prime Minister Harold Wilson of Britain. Later the leaders were to discuss common problems with Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger.

Joseph Cardinal Frings, 80-year-old friend of Adenauer, said in a brief funeral sermon that "the German nation will mourn him as it would a father."

Bundestag Rites

Formal eulogies were pronounced earlier at Bonn in a ceremony in the Bundestag — Parliament. The mass at the 718-year-old cathedral was the last public service for Adenauer, who died last Wednesday at the age of 91.

A private family service in the little Waldfriedhof — forest cemetery — in Rhoendorf, his home town, is the last rite for the man who led postwar Germany from ignominious defeat to a respected place in the community of nations.

A military band played funeral music as troops marched in slow-step toward the Rhine River bank where the casket was placed aboard a motor torpedo boat of the West German Navy for the final journey to Rhoendorf.

Crowds lined the streets before the twin-spired cathedral that has survived the ravages of time and near misses by World War II bombs as Western leaders arrived.

Johnson, in a slow-moving limousine, was among the first chiefs of state to reach the cathedral.

Johnson and De Gaulle talked together for 10 minutes at a luncheon given by President Heinrich Luebke but the meeting apparently was confined to civilities. Aides said the conversation, carried on through interpreters, was amiable and the two men expressed the hope of seeing each other again.

New Attacks Officially End Ban of LBJ

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Resumption of U.S. air attacks on military targets in the vicinity of Hanoi ends the ban President Johson imposed last December on air strikes within about 10 miles of the center of the North Vietnamese capital.

The forbidden zone was never officially announced but authorities quietly confirmed its existence months ago.

Analysis of the News

The ban ended today when U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs struck a railroad repair yard 2¼ miles from the center of the city and an electric transformer site 7 miles from the center.

The attacks had been foreshadowed Monday when U.S. planes struck for the first time two airfields serving Soviet-designed MIG fighter planes.

Stone Wall

One of the most important elements of the policy of escalation in targeting, informants here agree privately, is the stone wall stand which the government of President Ho Chi Minh has taken against any kind of peace moves.

In the view of some officials the Hanoi tough line on peace proposals and the newest potential threat of direct mass invasion against South Vietnam have justified Johnson in stepping up bombing pressures on the north. This in turn presumably brought reconsideration of the no- strike circle around Hanoi.

Troubles Aboard Rocket

U.S. Delays Attempt To Loft Five Military Satellites Into Space

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Rocket problems today forced the Air Force to postpone plans to launch five military satellites, including two space sentries to guard against sneak violations of the nuclear test-ban treaty.

No new launch date was set immediately. The scrub came at 5:45 a.m. CST.

A countdown toward an original 4:07 a.m. blastoff was interrupted by a faulty radar at a tracking station. A second launch atempt, planned for 4:25 a.m., got to within one second of liftoff when an automatic sensing device determined there were troubles on the rocket and stopped the countdown before the motors actually ignited.

Steering Mechanism

Air Force officials said the problem apparently was associated with a control valve in the steering mechanism of one of two strap-on booster rockets.

Data received at mission control indicated the control valve did not open as planned, officials said.

The powerful Titan 3 was scheduled to perform nearly 4½ hours of acrobatic space maneuvers to carry its payload toward a preliminary orbit ranging from 5,300 to 69,000 miles above the earth.

About 22 hours after separating from the rocket's last stage, one of the nuclear detection satellites, called Velas, was to trigger a spacecraft motor to kick it into a circular path 69,000 miles high.

Same Maneuver

The second Vela sentry was to perform the same maneuver in three days, stationing itself on the opposite side of earth.

The 730-pound Velas, shaped like lump beachballs, were built to spot nuclear blasts in the Earth's atmosphere and deep in space, perhaps as far from earth as Mars.

Bullets Wound Seven Students

Injuries All Slight During Protest at Louisiana College

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Seven students demonstrating on the campus of Southern University suffered superficial wounds today when struck by ricocheting .30 calibre rifle bullets and flying bits of asphalt pavement.

The Easton Baton Rouge Parish sheriff's office took a Negro night watchman into custody after the 8 a.m. shooting. An official of the sheriff's office quoted the watchman, James G. Jones, as saying:

"I didn't mean to shoot anybody. I was just trying to scare them."

Three shots were fired downward into asphalt. The students were wounded by fragmenting bullets and asphalt.

Southern University is a predominately Negro institution north of Baton Rouge. It was the scene of a student boycott Monday following a dispute over several grievances, including the university's refusal to hire two white instructors on a full-time basis.

Blockade Threatened

Threats were made to blockade college buildings today to enforce the boycott.

Several thousand students milled around the campus after the shootings today, blocking newsmen who attempted to get on the campus.

Detectives said someone shot into the pavement with a 30-30 rifle and the bullets ricocheted, hitting the students. All the wounds were superficial, said sheriff Bryan Clemmons.

Milwaukee Killer Remains at Large

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Authorities questioned more than 30 persons Monday in connection with the knife slayings of two Waukesha County women, but sheriff's deputies said the killer was still at large.

The bodies of Miss Cheryl Ann Packard, 22, of rural Pewaukee, and Miss Sharon Malone, 25, of rural Hartland, were found Sunday in a farm field in suburban New Berlin.

An official said Miss Malone had been stabbed 15 times and Miss Packard, 16 times. He said that autopsies failed to establish that either girl had been sexually molested.

N. Vietnam's 2 Big Cities Again Blasted

SAIGON (AP) — American warplanes pounded relentlessly at prime targets in North Vietnam today, hitting again inside the port city of Haiphong and closer than ever before to the center of the Communist capital of Hanoi.

The new strikes against North Vietnam's two major cities came within 24 hours of the first attacks of the war on MIG airfields in North Vietnam.

The stepup in the air was accompanied by a jump in American plane losses. Four U.S. planes were reported lost over the north — three Monday and one today. American pilots reported shooting down two Communist MIG17s Monday.

China Broadcast

A Peking broadcast said two U.S. fighters were shot down Monday in a dogfight just over the border of Red China from North Vietnam, but a U.S. spokesman denied it. He said "I can find no report that would even remotely relate to this."

The Soviet news agency Tass said Hanoi reported a total of 15 U.S. planes shot down today — three at Hanoi and 12 over Haiphong. It said one American pilot was captured.

Saigon announcements were limited to the one plane. The record loss over North Vietnam in a single day was eight planes shot down last Dec. 2.

Only sporadic fighting was reported in the ground war in South Vietnam. Scattered enemy resistance was encountered in Operation Manhattan in War Zone C northwest of Saigon which involves about 20,000 U.S. troops. Spokesmen said 18 enemy had been killed since the operation began Sunday. American losses were put at 2 killed and 14 wounded.

A new U.S. Marine operation was announced in the menaced northern part of South Vietnam. Called Operation Shawnee it began Saturday and so far 27 of the enemy have been killed, spokesmen said. Four Marines were reported wounded.

The accelerating air war over North Vietnam after weeks of bad weather included two strikes this morning on the fringes of Hanoi.

One strike by U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchief pilots hit a railroad repair yard which the American command said was 2¼ miles east-northeast of the center of the city and across the Red River from the capital's most densely populated section. The second raid, also by Thun-

Many Arrested by Greece's Leaders

ATHENS (AP) — Greece's new military government has made a number of new arrests, it was learned today.

Soldiers who rounded up thousands of persons in the first hours of the coup last Friday launched a new roundup Monday in Athens and the provinces. Most of those picked up were believed to be leftists.

Premier Constantine Kollias claimed in a broadcast by the army radio Monday night that King Constantine would demonstrate his support of the new regime before the week is over. Kollias said the 26-year-old monarch would preside over a meeting of the new Cabinet within the next five days.

Soviets Pay Homage To Fallen Cosmonaut

Russian Committee to Investigate Crash; U.S.-U.S.S.R. Cooperation Felt Unlikely

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet President Nikolai V. Podgorny and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin stood in the guard of honor beside the ashes of cosmonaut Vladimir Komarov today as a long line of Soviet citizens filed past to pay tribute to the first known victim of the Soviet space program.

The urn containing Komarov's ashes was placed atop a high pedestal covered with black in the army's red banner hall. The government announced that Komarov would be given a hero's funeral in Red Square Wednesday and his ashes interred at the Kremlin wall.

Newspaper front pages displayed a portrait bordered in black of Kovarov, 40, the first Soviet cosmonaut to make two flights into space. He had piloted Voskhod 1, which carried three cosmonauts into orbit in 1964.

Posthumous Award

The papers also published a decree of the Supreme Soviet posthumously awarding Komarov a second Gold Star medal. This was accompanied by the same brief description of the crash of Komarov's spaceship, Soyuz 1, which appeared Monday.

Condolences poured in to the family and associates of Komarov. They included a telegram of sympathy from the American astronaut corps.

"We feel comradeship for this test pilot because we have met several of his fellow cosmonauts," said the cable signed by all 47 U.S. spacemen, "and we know that we are all involved in a pioneering flight effort which is not without hazards."

The Soviet government announced that it was setting up a commission to investigate "all the circumstances" of Komarov's death, the first announced fatality in the Soviet Union's space program. But in view of the secrecy that has always surrounded the Russian program, it was considered unlikely that the commission's report would ever be made public.

U.S. Proposals

The disaster revived U.S. propocals for cooperation between the two chief space powers in space exploration. But Western experts privately doubted the Russians would be willing to share their knowledge or admit their shortcomings.

Novel Reportedly an Agent

Probe by Garrison Linked With CIA

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The New Orleans States Item said today in a copyrighted story there is mounting evidence of Central Intelligence Agency links in Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's Kennedy assassination probe.

"At least one Garrison probe figure intends to use CIA connections as part of his defense," the newspaper said.

The story said "still others linked to the Garrison investigation have been named as acting for the supersecret espionage organization — as informers, as couriers and munitions carriers."

Gordon Novel, the 29-year-old former French Quarter bar owner who is fighting extradition from Ohio to Louisiana, was named as having the strongest CIA ties.

The newspaper said Novel told intimates "he was a CIA operative and will use this role to battle Garrison's charges."

Novel is free on $10,000 bond in Columbus, Ohio after his arrest on a Louisiana warrant charging that he helped plan the burglary of an oil-field explosive bunker near Houma in 1961.

Novel has referred to the alleged bunker burglary as "the most patriotic burglary in history."

The States-Item quoted Novel as saying he was working for the CIA in New Orleans.

Double Fatality Second of Year In Outagamie

Trains Involved in Bally Death Toll Ahead of Record '65

The deaths of a rural Manawa couple in a car-train accident near Dale late Monday morning accounted for the year's second double fatality mishap in Outagamie County, and boosted the county's traffic toll for the year to eight, five more than a year ago and one more than in record 1965.

Both of the county's double fatality accidents this year involved trains.

Herbert C. Westerman Sr., 64, and his wife, Bertha, 60, route 2, Manawa, were killed instantly Monday when their 1965 auto was struck by a 34-unit Soo Line Railroad freight train at a crossing marked by automatic signals, on Outagamie County Trunk D, three miles northwest of Dale.

Coroner Bernard H. Kemps said Westerman, driver of the car, died of severe head injuries and his wife died of crushing chest injuries. They were pronounced dead on arirval at New London Community Hospital.

Rammed by Train

Robert J. Kons, 27, route 4, Appleton, and his year-old son, Joseph, died Feb. 8 when their car was rammed by a Chicago and North Western passenger train at a crossing on Washington Street in Little Chute.

The Westermans, who moved to Manawa about a year ago, were returning from visiting a son in Menomonee Falls when the accident occurred. The couple lived in Menominee Falls until Westerman retired from A. C. Spark Plug Co. He worked part time at Trantow Hardware in Manawa. Their bodies were sent today to a Menomonee Falls funeral home.

The Outagamie County traffic toll is running ahead of 1965, when at the end of April, there were seven deaths. A record 27 fatalities were counted in the county in 1965. There were no traffic deaths in January of this year. Three persons were killed on county roads in February, two in March, and three so far this month.

Herbert C. Westerman Sr., 64, and his 60-year-old wife were killed late Monday morning when their car was rammed broadside by a 35-car Soo Line Railroad freight train at a crossing on Outagamie County Trunk D, three miles northwest of Dale. The rural Manawa couple's car was dragged about 130 feet after it was struck. The Westermans' deaths raised the Outagamie County traffic toll for the year to eight. Seymour District Approves $1.6 Million School Program

Referendum Gives Plan Big Margin

SEYMOUR — A referendum authorizing bonding for a $1.6 million school district expansion program was approved by voters here Monday by better than a 2-1 margin.

The vote was 633-275 favoring the expansion.

Largest segment of the funds will be used to construct a new elementary school for kindergarten through sixth grades at Seymour. The present elementary school will be used for seventh and eighth grade pupils.

Additions to schools at Black Creek and Nichols plus improvements to the locker rooms and music rooms at the high school here also are part of the planned improvements.

Discuss Construction

Details of contracts and possible construction schedules are expected to be discussed by the school board when it meets at 8 p.m. today at the high school library.

Construction on some of the minor projects may begin soon, school officials indicated. The new 24-classroom elementary school at Seymour will be constructed about 2½ blocks north of the present high school.

It will offer three kindergarten classrooms, multi-purpose room, kitchen facilities, gym, music, art and library rooms. It will house grades kindergarten through sixth.

The present elementary school will house seventh and eighth grade students from Seymour and the eastern half of the district.

Nichols Addition

At Nichols a multi-purpose room will be added and kitchen remodeled. Grades one through six will occupy the facilities.

Elementary facilities, when completed at Black Creek, will contain 18 classrooms, music, library, art, multi-purpose and

Court Approves Petition for Forming Village of Nichols

Incorporation Papers Now Go to State

Step three in the procedure to incorporate a 576-acre area into the village of Nichols was accomplished Monday morning in Outagamie County Circuit Court.

Since no one appeared to object to the incorporation petition, Judge Andrew Parnell approved it, and it now goes to the Wisconsin Department of Resource Development for action.

Only four persons appeared at Monday morning's hearing in the courthouse — State Sen. Gerald Lorge, R-Black Creek, attorney for the Nichols Incorporation Committee; Lester Boman, chairman of the committee and legal representative of the people who signed the petition; Raymond Klein, alternate representative, and James Heinemeyer, who conducted a population census of the area.

Judge Parnell accepted and approved the petition, the map of the 576-acre area and the census.

If the Department of Resource Development approves the petition, it must pass a fifth step — approval by residents of the village of Nichols in a referendum. The first two steps had been filing a motion of intent and filing the petition.

The area, which includes a bank, a post office and some retail establishments, has 181 residents.

Lorge said Monday that residents of the village had been talking about incorporating for a long time, but they were spurred into acting sooner because of a $430,000 lawsuit brought against the Town of Cicero by the Wisconsin Department of Water Resources. Nichols is in the Town of Cicero.

The state is suing the town because the village dumps raw sewage into the Shioc River from its sewage pipes.

The village's water and sewage systems are privately owned. Officials of Nichols Incorporation Committee heard that the system was for sale, and expressed an interest in purchasing it, but learned the village couldn't buy the system unless it was incorporated.

Lorge said that if incorporation is approved, the lawsuit against Cicero will be "thrown out" since it no longer will be a party. "No judge would entertain a lawsuit then," he said.

Lorge also said that as soon as the village is incorporated, it probably will provide a primary sewage disposal plant.

Visits Planned To UW Sites At Green Bay

Assembly Committee To Tour Shorewood, Larsen Farm Areas

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — On-site inspections of the two proposed locations of the University of Wisconsin (UW)-Green Bay are scheduled Monday.

The Assembly education committee, which is considering a bill which would move the planned UW campus from the approved Shorewood site on the city's northeast side to the Larsen Farms site of the southwest side, will visit both locations.

Assemblyman D. Russell Wartinbee, R-LaCrosse, chairman of the 11-man committee, sent letters to all committee members during the past weekend stating that the trip had been authorized by Assembly Speaker Harold V. Froehlich, R-Appleton, and that the group would receive further information on the excursion Wednesday.

The bill, authored by Assemblyman William Rogers, D-Kaukauna, is strongly supported by the legislative contingent from the southern part of the Fox River Valley. Opponents of the Shorewood site claim that traffic problems in Green Bay will make it unreachable for commuting students from the southern part of the Valley.

Youth Jailed 60 Days For Driving Car After Revocation of License

Driving after his license was revoked cost Layne Purdy, 19, 734 E. North St., 60 days in the Outagamie County jail Friday afternoon.

The Appleton youth pleaded guilty to the charge brought by state police who arrested him about 10 a.m. Friday on State 54 in Black Creek. In addition to the jail sentence, County Judge Gustave J. Keller ordered Purdy's driver's license revoked for another year.

New London Men Visit Housing Units

Authority Studies La Crosse Rental Facilities for Low Incomes, Aged

NEW LONDON — Four members of the Housing Authority toured the Stoffel Court housing development in La Crosse Saturday to get some ideas for a local low-rental development for the aged.

The authority is going ahead with applications to the federal government for funds to plan a 60-unit development for the elderly and an additional 60 units which would be built at a later date. The second 60 units haven't been specified for use by the aged, and could be used as low-rental units for low income persons.

Four Inspect

Inspecting the La Crosse development were authority members the Rev. Wesley L. Sharpe, Wallace Gruening, M. John Huppler and Mayor Harry S. Emans.

Stoffel Court is a 70-unit structure with seven to nine units on eight floors. Each unit has 400 or 500 square feet of space. Rental ranges from $35 to $51 per month with all utilities furnished.

Three Rooms

Each unit contains a bedroom, kitchen, dining-living area and bath.

A general recreation and activity center is located on the top floor.

The authority also toured a low-income 58-unit family development being constructed in La Crosse. Low income developments would have larger quarters and be of different types to suit the needs of persons who would occupy them.

The authority is in the process of determining the design of development it would want for the city.

Weyauwega to Decide Fate of School Merger

Board of Education Calls Special Meeting of Electors

WEYAUWEGA — A special school district meeting for 8 p.m., Monday in the high school gym to determine whether the Weyauwega Board of Education should continue discussions on a possible merger of the Waupaca and Weyauwega school districts.

The meeting was called after the board received a petition from electors of the district asking for the special meeting.

Merger discussions were held since last fall and were halted temporarily last month when Cooperative Education Service Agency school committees from districts No. 7 and 8 voted not to issue an order to merge the two districts. At the time of the denial, CESA committee members said they would not issue the order because if it went to a referendum, it appeared the merger would be defeatd at the polls because the public was not well eonough informed on the issue.

Shiocton To Observe Arbor Day

SHIOCTON — Observance of Arbor Day is scheduled Friday at 9:30 a.m. on the front lawn of the Shiocton School.

Future Farmers of America and Russell Luchow, county agriculture agent, will conduct a tree planting ceremony. Also helping with arrangements are the school faculty and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Elementary students are receiving instructions this week on, "How to Plant A Tree."

Wisconsin has celebrated Arbor Day since 1889, and Gov. Warren P. Knowles, in a proclamation, has urged communities "in schools and towns to celebrate this day with the planting of young trees.

Home Ownership Bill Introduced by Steiger

WASHINGTON — Rep. William Steiger, Oshkosh, has introduced legislation in the House of Representatives calling for the establishment of a National Home Ownership Foundation Act to assist low income families in finding and financing suitable living quarters.

The resolution is similar to those originally drafted by Sen. Charles Percy and Rep. Willam Widnall. Steiger said today that the House does not provide for joint sponsorship of resolutions which results in identical bills being submitted by supporters of the original draft.

Bill Proposes School Milk For Teachers

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — The government-financed milk that is distributed to thousands of children in their schools should be good for their teachers too, according to several rural area legislators who have sponsored a joint resolution on the subject.

The proposed message to the United States Congress would ask for a change in the regulations to provide for eligibility of teachers in the school milk program.

"This is a small benefit our teachers could receive at a relatively low cost, and an increased consumption of milk by our teachers would set an encouraging example to their students," says the resolution offered by Calumet County Assemblyman Gervase Hephner, Chilton, and others.

Clintonville Man Fined $25 for Drunkenness

CLINTONVILLE — John Donaldson, 49, was fined $25 and court costs of $6.70 in court Thursday before Municipal Justice Nathan Wiese on a charge of drunkenness. He was arrested by the Clintonville police at 1:10 a.m. Thursday.

Kiwanis Governor To Visit Clubs In Fox Cities

Richard A. Misch, Kenosha, district governor of the Wisconsin-Upper Michigan District Kiwanis International, will make his official visit to Divison 13 Kiwanis Clubs of Appleton, Kaukauna, Kimberly, Little Chute, Seymour and Waupaca, May 9.

Misch and his wife, Betty, will attend a governor's reception for club presidents and their wives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond P. Brock, 1231 E. Hanson Drive, Appleton, preceding the governor's dinner at Reetz's Supper Club, Appleton, at 7:30 p.m. Brock is division lieutenant governor.

A fellowship hour for all Division 13 Kiwanians and their wives will convene at Reetz's at 6:30 p.m. The program will include the Kimberly Kiwanis Key Club Color Guard.

'Wolf' May Disappear From Planners' Name

Expect 'Northeastern Wisconsin' to be New Title; vote on Taking in Florence County

Members of the Wolf River Basin Regional Planning Commission Thursday will consider a name change and the addition of Florence County to the group's membership.

The changes will be discussed at the commission's quarterly meeting at 10 a.m. at the Club Continental, east of Shawano.

Change Name

Agenda for the day-long session includes changing the name to the Northeastern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission. The executive committee has recommended both the addition of Florence County and the name change.

Florence County would be the ninth member-county, and the second commission member to border the Upper Peninsula. Other member counties are Outagamie, Winnebago, Waupaca, Waushara, Shawano, Menominee, Forest and Langlade.

Gordon A. Bubolz, commission chairman, will give opening remarks at the morning session. Also scheduled are reports by William Morris, executive director; Frank M. Hedgcock, chief park planner; Henry Allhiser, treasurer and chairman of the finance committee; Alfred Broehm, secretary, and the introduction of Gerald Paul, new chief hydrologist.

See Movie

State highway plans will be discussed by Arne Gausmann, chief of urban and advance planning for the State Highway Commission.

After lunch, commissioners will be shown "The Majestic River," a film of the Wolf River. The afternonon session will be taken up with the quarterly commission business meeting including the proposed changes.

Tests Scheduled for Stockbridge Students

STOCKBRIDGE — Tests for juniors and incoming freshmen will be administered at the high school Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 12:10 p.m.

The achievement, educational development tests will be in the fields of science, mathematics, social studies, reading, listening and writing. The Henman Nelson maturity tests also will be given.

Seniors will participate in the Strong Vocational Inventory to select vocational fields according to aptitude, and interest through the guidance counselor.

Mural From Clintonville Wins Show

CLINTONVILLE — Mrs. Eugene Dexter, 71 Hughes St., received an "outstanding" rating on a hanging mural in mosaic and sculpture, "Pilgrimage," at the recent Wisconsin Rural Arts and Crafts show at the University of Wisconsin-Fox Valley Center.

The art work will be exhibited at the Wisconsin State Rural Art and Craft exhibit at the Wisconsin Center at the University of Wisconsin in Madison in September.

On her exhibit of St. Francis, a standing piece of sculpture, Mrs. Dexter received an honorable mention. She received her letters of commendation on Friday.

260 Exhibits

800 See First New London PTA Sponsored Art, Science, Math Fair

NEW LONDON — A crowd estimated at 800 persons viewed the 260 exhibits at the first annual New London Parent-Teacher Association Art, Science and Math Festival Sunday at the senior high school.

James Megy, PTA president, said the students should benefit from this type of competition and eventually participate in the International Science Fairs or art fairs.

Exhibited were 140 pictorial art entries, 20 pieces of sculpture and some 100 science and mathematics projects.

Sculpture Event

Sandra Springer captured first in the sculpture event with her carving titled "Water Buffalo" and Robert Montovitsch was second with his "The Leper."

Winning blue ribbons in the pictorial art competition were Ed Loss, Linda Behm, Richard Broeker, Jane Mergy and Sharon Fuhrmann. Second places were won by John Groat, Sally Eisentraut, Mary Glegg, James Hoewisch, Tom Monsour, Linda Kirk, Kathy Rogers and Susan Elliot.

Cheryl Kloehn, Richard Boser, Dick Matyas, Lee Kuester, Wilbur Deizer, Randy Platte, Tony Bove and Tony Roman received honorable mentions for their art work.

Steven Duch and Donna Gitter, seventh grade; Jane Mergy and Robbin Hanson, eighth grade; Chuck Schmidt and Rhonda Steurek, ninth grade; Randy Judd and Cheryle Radtke, 10th grade; Lee Smith and Mary Klinking, 11th grade, and Dennis Dobberstein, 12th grade, were winners in the science competition.

Waneita Steinert, Appleton, a professional artist, and Dudley Huppler, Oshkosh, were judges of the art entries. Mergy, Alfred Lau and Walter Schlise judged the science and mathematics displays.

Members of the art committee were Steven Fuhrmann, Joseph Ingli, Mrs. James Mergy, Mrs. Clifford Roman, and Mrs. Kenneth Flanagan.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Weeden were chairmen of the program; Michael G. Kaehr and Donald Griebenow, entertainment; Ronald Steinhorst, publicity; Robert Wierzak, programs; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ruppio, photography, and Mrs. Mergy and Mrs. Flanagan, typing.

Gary Henke and George Warren, industrial arts instructors, assisted in planning the festival.

Women Arrested for Disturbance at FWD

CLINTONVILLE — Two women, who were arrested by the Clintonville police at 12:15 p.m. Wednesday at the FWD Corp. parking lot, were fined $10 and costs in court Thursday by Municipal Justice Nathan Wiese on charges of disturbing the peace.

They were Mrs. Hulda Heling, 66, Bear Creek, and Carlien Urban, 38, 39 W. Third St., Clintonville.

The case of Miss Urban was held open until April 29 for payment or the alternative of 10 days in jail.

Bi-Partisan Bill Seeks Change in Gas Retailing

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — A bi-partisan group of assemblymen and state senators has offered a bill in both houses of the legislature that if enacted would bring about a wholesale reorganization of the petroleum products distribution industry in Wisconsin.

The measure would prohibit any manufacturer of such products from owning, leasing or in any way controlling the land or building used in the operation of a retail gasoline station if that station handles any of the products of that manufacturing company.

The legislation would affect hundreds of outlets throughout Wisconsin, it has been estimated here. Major producers now have interests in retail operations, directly or indirectly.

Among 11 listed authors of the bill are Assemblyman [illegible] and Rogers of [illegible]ty.

Bonduel Wins Quadrangular At Marion

Tigers Break Four School Records in Gaining 2nd Place

MARION — The Mustangs broke four school records but were unable to gain more than second place in a quadrangular track meet here Friday which was dominated by Bonduel.

Bonduel amassed 99 points while Marion was earning 62 followed by Wittenberg with 43 and Manawa with eight points.

Jim Bork broke his own record in the long jump with a leap of 20 feet 3½ inches. Jim Braun ran the 440 yard dash in 52.7 to establish a new record. The 880 yard relay team set a time of 1:40 for a new record and the mile relay team ran the distance in 3:44 7 for a new record but finished second to Bonduel who ran the distance in 3:41.1.

The Mustangs will compete in a quadrangular at Weyauwega today against the host team, Iola and Amherst. Friday Amherst Iola and Shiocton will be here for a meet.

The work will consist of cleaning up the grounds, taking down the rope tows and painting. There will be a potluck supper at 5 p.m. In case of rain the work day will be May 7.

Soot Damage Results From Furnace Backfire

NEW LONDON — There was extensive soot damage at the Carroll Ritchie home, 121 E. Beacon Ave, about 9 a m. Saturday when an oil furnace backfired.

An official of the fire department believed the explosion was the result of a down-draft which kept the furnace from igniting properly.

Waupaca Takes Last Look

Days of Old Jail Are Numbered

WAUPACA — The days of the old county jail are numbered.

Members of the public property committee met Monday and decided to raze the two-story brick building as soon as utility lines are disconnected.

Fred Grunwald, highway commissioner, has informed the committee that his men will start the wrecking job within the next few days.

Provide Parking

A motion to raze the structure, located on the southeast corner of the courthouse square, was one of the last items of business of the board of supervisors at its two-day April session last week. The space now occupied by the jail will be filled in and turned into parking space for courthouse employes.

Members of the public property committee toured the building Monday in an effort to determine how much material could be salvaged. One service door leading from the kitchen to the cell blocks will go to the Waushara County jail which presently is being remodeled.

Walter Ciura, chairman of the committee, said he has had several requests for some of the fixtures and doors and windows but they will not be sold until they have been removed, he said.

"We do not want the public inside the building taking out fixtures because if they are injured the county will be liable," Ciura said. Highway department workmen will dismantle the building and then the fixtures will be sold to the people who have indicated they want them, Ciura said.

The old building, which served as the county jail for more than 70 years, was vacated recently when the jail and sheriff's office was moved to a new building on the eastern edge of the city.

Driver Falls Asleep at Wheel, Car Hits Pole

NEW LONDON — Damage exceeded $100 in a one-car accident about 10 p.m. Sunday on Pershing Road near Wyman Street.

Jack N. Spencer, 23, 1013 N. Water St., told police that he had fallen asleep while driving. Police said the Spencer car was travelling southwest on Pershing Road when it ran off onto the left shoulder of the road, crossed Wyman Street and continued on until it hit a telephone pole.

Confirmands Mean What They 'Pray'

CHILTON — A junior confirmation class at Ebenezer United Church of Christ agreed "to put their money where their mouth was" Saturday.

The class was assigned to write a prayer resulting in many phrases as "Lord help me to help those who are less fortunate"

All agreed that this would hardly effect any change in themselves, and that to be effective it would have to be directed more specifically. The class decided to re-write their prayers with the tornado victims in Illinois in mind and to bring an offering on Sunday

The Rev. Quentin Moeschberger, paster, sent a check for $17.35 to the American Red Cross Monday, "to help those who are less fortunate."

The homes to be toured contain a variety of furnishings and architecture. Owners are Carl Rulseh, Gerald McFarren, Murray Meyer, Percy Mitchell, Emory Roger, Milton Solberg, and Lloyd Goodstorf.

Tickets for the tour may be purchased from any member of the woman's club or at the Wisconsin Power and Light Co. office. Mrs. Kenneth Halpop is chairman of the event.

Conservation Outing

Hilbert Scouts Plant 1,000 Trees at Waupaca

HILBERT — Boy Scouts in troop 79 went to Waupaca on a conservation field trip Saturday where they planted 1,000 evergreens at the Donald Hovde tree farm.

Fifteen boys participated with Scoutmaster Clem Palmbach and assistant, Willard Franz. Also accompanying them were H. D. McWilliams and Ivan Novak, members of the Boy Scout committee.

A cook-out at noon was followed by a nature hike and a visit to the buffalo and elk farm at Lind Center.

Equipment to outfit 20 Scouts is being purchased with funds earned from the sales of Christmas trees and other activities. A car wash is planned 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday at the village hall. Handbills announcing the project will be distributed here by the Scouts Thursday night. The proceeds are earmarked for additional camping equipment.

A camping session with Brillion and Sherwood scouts is in the planning stages and is expected to be conducted in May at the Hilmer Kuchenbecker farm, route 1, Brillion.

The troop, sponsored by the Hilbert Advancement Association, has reactivated this year and has 19 members.

Members of the committee who will attend the East District Boy Scout banquet tonight at the Darboy Club with their wives are Franz, Joseph Zuchek, Howard Sielaff and Donald Gast.

Most of the Time I Can't Even Tell What Those Stock Brokers Are Talking About

Well, you won't have that problem at The Marshall Company, Inc.

We make a point of talking "peole's" talk so that even the newest beginning investor can understand what we're saying and what we mean. If technical terms are necessary, we take care to explain them, too.

Best of all, we examine your individual needs and suggest a program that we consider will fill them best. And, we supply you with all the background information you'll need on the companies whose securities we suggest.

But, to help you even further, we are offering at no obligation, a 40-page booklet, THE LANGUAGE OF INVESTING. It explains and illustrates over 230 words and phrases commonly used by investors and brokers. It will take much of the effort and guesswork out of "investigating before you invest." Four Injured In Outagamie Car Mishaps

Two Appleton Men Taken to Hospitals After Accidents

Two Appleton men were among four persons injured in weekend accidents on Outagamie County roads.

Gary R. Volkman, 20, 2100 N. Harriman St., was listed in satisfactory condition today at Appleton Memorial Hospital where he was taken by Larry's Ambulance after he was struck by a car on State 76, near Casaloma Drive, about 1:10 a.m. Sunday.

Volkman reportedly suffered several fractures and possible internal injuries. Outagamie County police said he had left a parked car and walked across the road into the path of a car driven by Gary L. Buntrock, 25, 1036 W. Hiawatha Drive, Appleton. Investigation into the accident is continuing.

Orville E. Gass, 34, 205 N. Story St., suffered back injuries and cut hands when his car left County Trunk BB, just east of U. S. 41, and tipped over about 5:15 a.m. Sunday.

Gass was taken to the hospital in Lindy's Ambulance. Police said the left front tire blew out, causing the car to go into the ditch and overturn. The car came to rest on its left side.

Wayne LaCount, 22, route 2, West DePere, was taken by ambulance to St. Mary Hospital, Green Bay, after the car in which he was riding struck two horses on Outagamie County Trunk E, near Oneida, about 11:40 p.m. Sunday.

Police said LaCount suffered multiple cuts and abrasions to the face.

He was in a car driven by Richard C. Van Den Heuvel, 23, route 1, West DePere, which was northbound when it struck two of three horses that were in the roadway. The horses were killed. Van Den Heuvel suffered a cut forehead. Police said the horses were owned by Albert Manders route 2 West DePere.

Proxmire Will Talk on Budget, Foreign Aid

Senator to Address C of C, League in Neenah Saturday

NEENAH — Sen. William Proxmire is expected to speak on the federal budget and on the U.S. foreign aid programs at a dinner co-sponsored by the chamber of commerce Governmental Affairs Division and the League of Women Voters at 7 p.m. Saturday at the Valley Inn.

The dinner is open to the public. Reservations, which are due by 4:30 p.m. Thursday, may be made by calling either Mrs. George Runde, 2-1023, or the chamber office, 2-7758.

Franklin Moore Jr., general chairman of the Governmental Affairs Division, will be master of ceremonies for the dinner.

Proxmire is chairman of the powerful Joint Finance Committee of Congress. Provisions have been made for a question and answer period after the dinner program.

Earlier in the afternoon, Proxmire is expected to appear at a special open house program at the new Neenah Post Office planned by the members of the chamber's Neenah Post Office Committee.

The senior senator from Wisconsin will be speaking in Milwaukee at noon Saturday and then come to Neenah.

Board Okays Three School Line Changes

Franklin, Highlands, Lincoln Get New District Boundaries

Boundary changes involving Franklin, Highlands and Lincoln elementary schools, beginning in September, were approved Monday by the board of education.

Franklin School boundaries are as follows: beginning at Richmond Street and Parkway Boulevard, east on Parkway to Morrison Street, south on Morrison to Roosevelt Street, east on Roosevelt to Meade Street, south on Meade to Woodland Street, east on Woodland to Viola Street, north on Viola Street extended to Capitol Drive, west on Capitol to Richmond south on Richmond to the beginning point.

Eliminate Washington

Highlands: beginning at Lynndale Drive and Wisconsin Avenue, east on Wisconsin to Richmond, north on Richmond to Northland Avenue, west on Northland to Lynndale, then south on Lynndale to the beginning point.

Lincoln: beginning at Lynndale and College Avenue, east on College to Division Street, north on Division to Wisconsin, west on Wisconsin to Lynndale, then south on Lynndale to the beginning point.

These changes incorporate that part of the Lincoln School attendance area north of Wisconsin Avenue into the Highlands attendance area, combine ton School are and eliminate the Washington attendance area as of September 1967.

The presentation was outlined by James Westphal, elementary curriculum coordinator.

Retail Promotion to Be Tried This Week by Kaukauna Merchants

KAUKAUNA — "Kaukauna Days," a new retail promotion, will be held in many city stores Wednesday through Friday under the sponsorship of the retail division of the Chamber of Commerce.

The promotion is designed to bring shoppers special price values between the traditional January and July sale seasons, noted Peter Berens, chairman of the retail division.

Special price reductions will be made on many items during these three days and store owners will also offer some clearance discounts at this time, noted the chairman.

Early Morning Fire Damages Living Room

Fire damaged a living room wall early Sunday at the home of Agnes Knapp, 608 W. Michigan St.

Appleton firemen, when they were summoned at 3:35 a.m., were told there was a chimney fire. The fire was in a wall near the fireplace which reportedly had been used Saturday.

Firemen remained at the home about an hour. Investigation into the cause of the fire is continuing.

Appleton Man Head Of Lutheran Pioneers

Carl Meitner, Appleton, was elected chairman of the National Council of the Lutheran Pioneers, Inc., at its 12th national convention at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Wayne, Mich., Saturday.

Carl Meitner

In 1965 Meitner was elected to a four-year term on the national council, and since April, 1966, he has been vice chairman. He has served as commander of the Paperland District since it was organized in 1963, and started work with the Pioneers program in 1957 while serving in the Army, assigned at Milwaukee.

Merlin Kobussen and LaVern Diestler St. Matthew Evangelical Lutheran Church: Elmer Boldt, Riverview Evangelical Lutheran Church and Jim Mead, of Bethany Evangelical Lutheran Church, all of Appleton, were among the 225 delegates who attended from 187 units in 11 states.

After the business meeting seminars were held for Lutheran boys' program in churches of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod.

"What's New in the Lutheran Pioneers?" was discussed by Bruce Thompson, national commander of the Lutheran Pioneers from Burlington. Tom Palubicki, Buckaroo Commander of Milwaukee, held a seminar on the program set up for boys in the first through third grade age.

Paperland District units will be host to the next national convention in April of 1969 in Appleton.

Wisconsin Seeks First Capital Liaison Office In Washington, D. C.

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — Operation of an office of the State Division of Economic Development for national capital liaison in Washington, D.C. would cost the state about $58,000 a year, the division has informed the legislature.

Authorizing legislation is now before the Wisconsin Senate and Assembly for the first office ever sought by a state administration in Washington. Many other states now maintain such Washington branches to keep in close contact with congressional delegations, and with agencies disbursing federal aid grants.

The state division is a part of the executive office of Gov. Warren P. Knowles, who is supporting the branch in Washington.

kindergarten accommodations. It will house all eight grades and absorb some of the seventh and eighth graders from Nichols. Others will be transported to Seymour depending on where they live.

The site preparation fund which has been accumulating for several years will be used to develop an athletic field near the high school and parking facilities at the new elementary school in Seymour.

Kindergarten For All

The building program will enable the district to offer kindergarten to all children in the district. In the past it was available to only those in the Seymour area. Summer kindergarten classes have been conducted in Black Creek in the last few years.

The Sunny Nook School north of Black Creek and Isaar School northeast of Seymour, will be closed and pupils absorbed in attendance centers nearest them.

An earlier referendum incorporating parts of the present program plus a new senior high school was turned down by a sizable margin.

Harrison Man Asks Annexation; Buckley Elated

Appleton city officials were elated Monday over notice from Albert F. Schimmers, a Town of Harrison resident, who wants to have 33.4 acres of his property annexed into Appleton.

The official notice was received at the city clerk's office Saturday. The property Schimmers wants annexed is part of his 74.9 acre tract in the township.

"I think it is very good for all concerned," commented Mayor George Buckley. "The city will be glad to cooperate."

The land to be annexed is south of Calumet Street and east of the existing city limits.

Kaukauna Utility Plans Little Chute Station

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — A proposed substation of the Kaukauna electric utility in the Village of Little Chute is being investigated by the state Public Service Commission.

The city has proposed that it be allowed to construct a 7,500 kilovolt substation in the village on Outagamie County Trunk OO just west of Buchanan Street.

Estimated cost of the distribution substation is $125,000. No public hearing on the project will be held.
